Boynton Neighborhood, The. By FAYE HUNTINGTON. Pp. 251. $1.

The story has a basis in fact, and shows, as no amount of lecturing could do, the way in which a Home Department can be made to transform a community.

Boys of North Parish, The. By HELEN PEARSON BARNARD. Pp. 320. $1.50.

The boys are a live set, each with a strong individuality.

Boys' Bookshelf Library, The. Net, $3.

Ten stories from among our older publications, all of them having had their popularity attested by large sales. We still sell them separately at the usual rates, but supply the ten books together at the following low rate, barely covering the cost of manufacture:

Mr. Standfast's Journey	.60	Fussbudget's Folks	1.00
Choir Boy of York Cathedral	1.25	Robbie and His Mother	.75
Tom Gillies	.90	Duxberry Doings	1.25
Donald Deane	1.00	Life Scenes in Mountains of Ararat	1.00
Ned Harwood's Delight	.75	Oakwood and Its Lessons	.75

The list price of these books is $9.25. Our net price for the set of ten is $3.

Brian's Home. By FANNIE E. NEWBERRY. Pp. 342. $1.50.

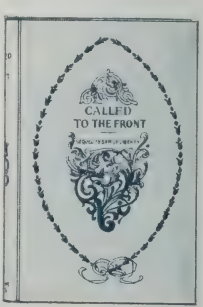
An intensely interesting story of home life, teaching lessons of patience, courage, and self-reliance, while it shows how great an inspiration a mother can be to her sons and daughters.

Bunker Hill Failure, A. By ANNA F. BURNHAM, author of "Fussbudget's Folks," "Lake View Series," etc. Illustrated. Pp. 290. $1.25.

The defeat at Bunker Hill was really a victory, and has always been so regarded. The failure of a schoolboy to win the prize in the same way was of such benefit to him that it was called a Bunker Hill Failure. Good lessons for boys.

By a Strange Path. By MARGARET H. ECKERSON. Pp. 229. $1.

A story of life in a German village.

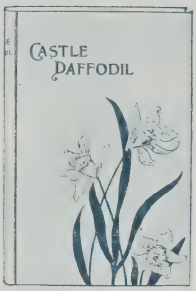


Called to the Front. By WILLIS BOYD ALLEN. Pp. 260. Illustrated. $1.25.

A sequel to "A Son of Liberty." Both these historical stories are in the author's best vein. They are based on facts and are full of incident and adventure, the scenes being laid in the perilous days just preceding and in the beginning of the American Revolution. They cannot fail to teach lessons of patriotism and bravery.

Castle Daffodil. By MARTHA BURR BANKS, author of "Prince Dandelion," etc. Illustrated. Pp. 209. $1.

Some little children thought that the secluded house across the way, guarded by a high wall and iron gates, was a sort of castle of which children had reason to be afraid. Instead of enemies, however, they found that the people there were capital folks. A delightful story for the little ones.

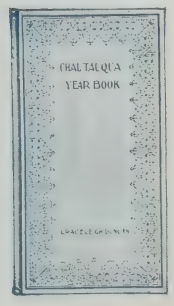


Chapel Hymnal, The. For Prayer and Social Meetings, and Smaller Churches. Pp. 350. 60 cents. $40 per 100 for introduction.

One of the best collections issued, containing the standard hymns and tunes endeared to the church, also some of the best of the Gospel Hymns.

Chautauqua Year Book, The. By GRACE L. DUNCAN. Deckeled paper, gilt top, ornamental side. Pp. 370. $1.

The author is the well-known Chautauquan who has compiled "The Chautauquan Calendar" for a number of years and which is familiar in thousands of homes. The selections for each day, prepared on the same plan as heretofore, are so choice as to deserve the more permanent setting here given to them.



Children and the Church, The. By FRANCIS E. CLARK, D.D. Pp. 108. 75 cents.

Chapters on child life in the Bible, and the place that children may claim in the Church, with an account of "The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor."

Children's Day. Addresses to Young People. By JAMES G. VOSE, D.D. Pp. 180. $1.

These are examples of the best kind of preaching to young folks. Simple yet sensible. Childlike but not childish. They will be suggestive to ministers and all who have occasion to address Sunday-schools or Young People's Societies.

Choir-Boy of York Cathedral, The. By REV. A. S. TWOMBLY, D.D. Pp. 292. $1.25.

Five characteristic stories from an experienced pen: "God's Love," "The best possible Christmas," "Piétro and Nina," "A Huguenot Story," and "The Choir-Boy of York Cathedral."

Christian Business Man, A. The Life of Deacon Caleb Foote Gates. By his son, REV. CALEB F. GATES. Pp. 200. $1.

From his boyhood work on his uncle's farm, through his experience as a banking clerk to the end of the ups and downs of his life in Chicago, one follows with the deepest interest this sturdy, energetic, able, and consecrated man.

Christian Way, The; Whither it leads and how to go on. By WASHINGTON GLADDEN, D.D., author of "Being a Christian," etc. Pp. 142. 75 cents.

This admirable little work has been for some time out of print and is now reissued in response to numerous demands. Few writers have stated so clearly and convincingly the reasonable claims of Christianity as has Dr. Gladden in this and his other similar works.

Christmas at Surf Point. By WILLIS BOYD ALLEN. Pp. 168. $1.

Mr. Allen's style is sprightly and animated, of the kind particularly liked by boys. The book is capitally and profusely illustrated.

Chubby Ruff. By PROF. GEORGE HUNTINGTON. Pp. 200. $1.

A charming little book for the children, fresh and bright and wise.

Church-Kingdom, The. Lectures on Congregationalism. By A. HASTINGS ROSS, D.D. Pp. 386. $2.50.

These lectures were delivered on the Southworth Foundation in the Andover Theological Seminary. He gives to us, not a narrow view of one particular polity, but a broad treatment of the development of the Church.

Clark, Nathaniel G., D.D,. A Memorial of. Pp. 222. $1.00.

Dr. Clark wastwenty-nine years Corresponding Secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. An account of his life and several of the annual papers which he presented at the gatherings of the Board. It is the record of a life of usefulness and of consecration such as are rarely to be found.

Common-Sense Christianity. By ALONZO H. QUINT, D.D. Small 8vo. Pp. 224. $1.50.

Short, breezy, spicy articles, from the pen of one of the foremost Congregational writers.

Comrades. By FANNY E. NEWBERRY. Pp. 308. $1.25.

This story tells of a poor boy, taken up by a bachelor doctor and his nephew; trusted, then suspected; running off, but vindicated, and finally fully adopted as a brother to the nephew.

Conditions of Success in Preaching without Notes. By RICHARD SALTER STORRS, D.D. With portrait of author. Pp. 233. $1.

Titles

Three lectures delivered before students of Union Theological Seminary A very valuable work for ministers and students, by one who is without doubt the finest extempore orator now living.

Cyrus the Magician. By DAVID BEATON, D.D. Pp. 280. $2.50.

A tale of the Christian era, full of interest, and a graphic picture of the superstition of the times.

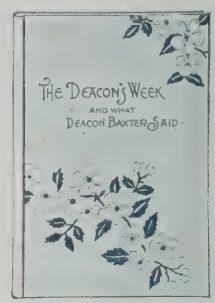
Dan Drummond of the Drummonds. By GULIELMA ZOLLINGER. Illustrated. Pp. 345. $1.25.

Dan Drummond had heard it said that none of the Drummonds ever did a mean thing. Dan was a bootblack, but was ambitious to be truly a Drummond. From an old lady he got the motto, "Pay as you go, and don't forget your manners." The story tells how with that motto he succeeded. A better book could hardly be put into the hands of boys.

Days of Prince Maurice, The. By MARY O. NUTTING. Pp. 360. $1.50.

A clear and vivid, though brief, description of the last years of the war in which the Netherlands won their independence.

Deacon's Week, The, and What Deacon Baxter Said. By ROSE TERRY COOKE. With twenty pen drawings by H. P. Barnes. Ornamental binding. Pp. 46. 40 cents.



These little New England dialect sketches have had remarkable popularity. About one hundred thousand copies of Deacon's Week have already been sold. The illustrations add greatly to the interest of each story, and many who have read them will be glad to see them again in this new and attractive form.

Dear Gates. By JOSEPHINE R. BAKER. Pp. 333. $1.25.

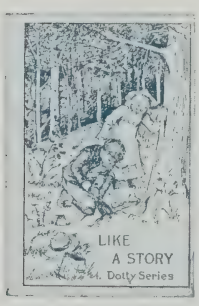
A story for little folks which will captivate all who read it, whether old or young.

Development of Modern Religious Thought, especially in Germany, The. By EDWIN STUTELY CARR, A.M., D.B. Pp. 293. $1.

A brief but clear and scholarly sketch of the rise and growth of modern German theology.

Doctor Lincoln's Children. By KATE W. HAMILTON. Pp. 207. $1.

Dr. Lincoln's children are always attempting something, and in their mistakes there always is a moral which the young readers cannot fail to apply, though it is not preached.



Donald Deane and his Cross. By GLANCE GAYLORD. Pp. 390. $1.

A temperance story, showing the misery brought by intemperance on the innocent, and the wreck it makes of its victims.

Dotty Series, The. By KATE W. and ERSKINE M. HAMILTON. Pp. 50 to 70 each, 6 vols., $2.

Stories for the youngest children, who read for themselves.

Drift of the Young Men with Relation to the Churches. Cloth, 35 cents; paper, net, 15 cents.

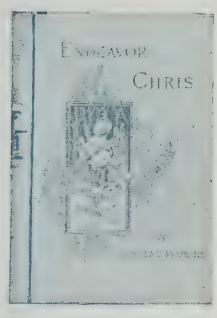
Duxberry Doings. By CAROLINE B. LEROW. Pp. 406. $1.25.

Showing the transformation of a frivolous city girl into a thoughtful, useful woman by certain rural experiences and friendships.

Eleanor and I. A tale of the days of King Richard II. By MARY E. BAMFORD. Pp. 335. $1.50.

The story which Hugh tells of his sister and himself is very interesting, while it reveals the almost incredible ignorance and superstition of the times.

Titles



Endeavor Chris. By ISABELLA T. HOPKINS. Pp. 401. $1.50.
The story of a waif who found a good home and made an impression upon all whom he met by the true knightliness of his character.

Evolution in Religion. By WILLIAM W. MCLANE, D.D. Pp. 226. $1.
Demonstrates with a good deal of force that evolutionists have erred in overlooking or ignoring religious phenomena because they are spiritual in their nature.

Fairies of Fern Dingle, The. By HARRIET A. CHEEVER. Pp. 250. $1.
A fairy story which is true as well as instructive and interesting.

Faith on the Frontier. By EDMUND MARCH VITTUM. Pp. 390. $1.50.
A story of the far West and of its early settlers.

Fanny's Autobiography. By MRS. M. E. DRAKE. Pp. 278. $1.25.
The story of a home missionary horse, which incidentally gives a good deal of information about her master and mistress.

Father Eells. By REV. MYRON EELLS, D.D. Pp. 336. $1.25.
The history of the life work of Cushing Eels, companion of Marcus Whitman, as a missionary to Indians and white men in Oregon and Washington.

Forest Home Series. By WILLIS BOYD ALLEN. 5 vols. $2.
Each volume contains a little story complete in itself, yet connected with all the others, and just adapted for the little ones.

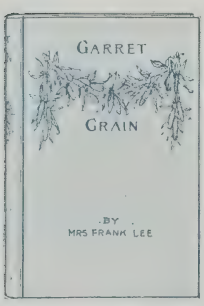
Forty Years Among the Zulus. By REV. JOSIAH TYLER, Missionary of the A. B. C. F. M. Pp. 208. $1.25.
An account of the methods used to Christianize the Zulus, with their results; also of their customs, religions, and character, their life in a kraal, their superstitions, their folk-lore, their good traits and their bad ones.

Fourfold Story, The. By PROF. GEORGE F. GENUNG. Pp. 118. 75 cents.
This is by far the best analysis of the Four Gospels which has yet appeared. The style is clear, concise, and to the point, and the peculiarities of each Gospel are most discriminatingly set forth.

Four Miles from Tarrytown. By FANNIE H. GALLAGHER. Pp. 202. $1.
This is a story of the late Civil War, but the interest in it does not center on the battle-field. One rather in it gets glimpses of struggle and victory in the home.

Frontier Hero, A. By MRS. I. T. THURSTON. Pp. 300. $1.25.
The story of how Paul Bartlett went West, and how in the family of his father's classmate, William Hayes, he learned the lesson of true bravery from David Hayes and the others. Incidentally the story brings out many phases of home missionary life and work.

Freshman and Senior. By ELVIRTON WRIGHT. Pp. 452. $1.50.
A unique college story, with a little hero who rivals Little Lord Fauntleroy in sweetness, brilliancy, and attractiveness.



Fussbudget's Folks. By ANNA F. BURNHAM. Pp. 198. $1.
A minister's family have struggles with poverty, sickness, and want of appreciation, but are so brave, affectionate, and unselfish that they manage to extract enjoyment from their darkest days.

Gap in the Fence, The. By HATTIE LOUISE JEROME. Pp. 275. $1.25.
How the Lincoln children and the Jewel children passed back and forth from house to house through a gap in the fence, and how in the passing many pleasant little adventures came about are here set forth admirably. Miss Jerome understands children and those of whom she writes are very lifelike.

Garret Grain. By MRS. FRANK LEE. Pp. 336. $1.25.
The story of an ideal home and how seven children grew up in it.

Gee's Trap; or The Lambs and Field Street. By JOSEPHINE R. BAKER, author of "Dear Gates," "Round Top and Square Top," etc. Pp. 286. $1.25.

Titles

The Lambs lived in palatial residences, with large grounds in the rear. Field Street was a dingy neighborhood at the foot of the Lambs' grounds. The contrast between Aster Lamb and 'Lize Closson of Field Street is described in this book, and the influence which each had on the other's life is powerfully shown.

Gems from the Bridal Ring. By J. E. RANKIN, D.D. Pp. 141. 75 cents.

Choice selections of prose and verse; wedding certificate inside the front cover.

General Peg Series, The. By KATE W. and E. M. HAMILTON. Pp. 64 to 92 each. The set of six, $2.

The reputation of these writers for little children is unsurpassed. Six charming little volumes of series for children, profusely illustrated and attractively bound.

Genuine Lady, A. By MRS. I. T. THURSTON, author of "Ruth Prentice." Illustrated. Pp. 289. $1.25.

The "Genuine Lady" was a student who in a young ladies' school was supposed to be a charity scholar, and hence by some ill-bred girls was despised and snubbed. She, however, by her rare Christian character was able to live down all hostility and become a general favorite.

Girls' Bookshelf Library, The. Net, $3.

Ten stories for girls similar to those in our "Boys' Bookshelf Library," and like them of proved popularity. We sell them separately at usual prices, but will supply the ten books together at the following very low rate, barely covering cost of manufacture:

Our net price of the 30 volumes, $10.00.

Green Garnet, The. By NATALIE L. RICE. Pp. 390. $1.50.

A fine, natural story of school life, especially emphasizing the value of class fellowship and showing how much injury may be done by unjust suspicion.

Gregory the Armenian. By HELEN R. ROBB. (In press.) $1.25.

A graphic tale which sets forth powerfully the nobility of character which has developed through the work of American missionaries, and which also shows the way in which the Armenian people suffer from the tyranny of the Turks.

Gulick, Luther Halsey, Missionary in Hawaii, Micronesia, and Japan. By FRANCES GULICK JEWETT. Pp. 314. $1.25.

Born in Hawaii, educated in New York, laboring as a pioneer in Micronesia, then going to Honolulu, turning at the call of duty to Spain, and a little later to Italy, refusing a secretaryship of the American Board that he might be a missionary rather than a guide of missionaries, and ending his life in China after successful service there for the American Bible Society, Dr. Gulick showed his complete devotion to missionary work as well as his great ability.

Handbook of Congregationalism. By H. M. DEXTER, D.D. Pp. 212. Paper, net 50 cents. Cloth, $1.

Happy Discipline, A; Two Years' Apprenticeship to Life. By ELIZABETH CUMINGS. Pp. 258. $1.

The story of how a young girl found out the depth of meaning that life holds for those who suffer and those who love. Presents a clear view of life as it is.

Helpful Thoughts for Quiet Hours. By SARAH F. DAY. Deckeled edge paper, tastefully bound, with gilt top and ornamental side die. Pp. 384. $1.75.

A collection of choice extracts for daily reading, gathered from many sources, originally compiled for personal enjoyment and inspiration, but full of help and encouragement for all.

Hermit of Livry, The. By MISS M. R. HOUSEKEEPER. [Prize Series.] Pp. 438. $1.50.

A story of the sixteenth century. The scene is laid in France, and the tale is one of powerful interest.

His Best Friend. By JESSIE WRIGHT WHITCOMB. Pp. 295. $1.25.

How a street-boy found Jesus Christ a real helper and friend through the midst of adventures which hold the attention of the reader firmly to the very end. Not a "preachy" book, but one which shows with little apparent effort how a living religion makes a boy more manly.

His Brother's Keeper. By REV. CHARLES M. SHELDON. Author of "In His Steps, etc." Pp. 381. Paper, 25 cts.; cloth, 75 cts.

A striking story of labor troubles and their settlement on a Christian basis.

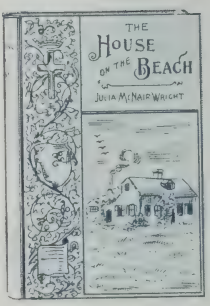
Home Classes; or, The Home Department of the Sunday-school. Its history, purpose, and plan, organization, methods, requisites, and difficulties, By M. C. HAZARD, PH.D. Pp. 141. Paper, 25 cts.; net, 50 cts.

A full discussion of this most important part of the Sunday-school work.

Honda the Samurai. By REV. WM. ELLIOT GRIFFIS, D.D., author of "The Mikado's Empire," etc. Pp. 390. $1.50.

"Honda" is a detailed and interesting description of the Japanese, given in connection with the life and deeds of certain historical characters who figure in the book under fictitious names. Home life is most entertainingly pictured. The political life of this fascinating nation, with the history of the double rulership of the Tycoon and Mikado, is carefully explained.

Titles



House on the Beach, The. By JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Pp. 339. $1.50.

"The House on the Beach" is a small cottage in which live Ralph Kemp and his two daughters. Kemp is a man of refinement and education, but a drunkard. A powerful temperance story.

House with Two Doors, The. By ALICE EDDY CURTISS. Pp. 318. $1.25.

The stories which make up this volume are all written in that style and with that lovingly sympathetic touch which has made all Mrs. Curtiss's writings popular with so wide a circle of readers.

How He Made His Fortune. By JULIA W. DEWITT. [Prize Series.] Pp. 317. $1.50.

In this story we have illustrated the results of a firm faith in God and in his blessing upon the right-doer. Sandy Ferguson, a Scotch lad, starting out for himself without a penny, was nevertheless rich in piety and principle. His capital proved productive, too though he took up with mining as a beginning.

How to Build a Church. By C. L. GOODELL, D.D. Pp. 76. 35 cts.

Hymnal for Congregational Churches, The. Pp. 650. With Responsive Readings. Cloth, $1.25; half leather, $1.75; full morocco, gilt edges, $2.50. Special prices for introduction. See descriptive circular.

This is believed to be the finest collection of church music and hymnology ever issued, and is being adopted in many influential churches after careful comparison with other books.

In Black and Gold. By JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Pp. 400. $1.50.

This is a thrilling fiction, which sets forth with wonderful power the terrible thraldom of those who are fascinated by gambling and by drink.

In Pulpit and Parish; Yale Lectures on Preaching. By REV. NATHANIEL BURTON, D.D. Pp. 640. With steel portrait, $1.75.

Brilliant, suggestive, and stimulating addresses that will be helpful to any minister.

In the Vultures' Nest. By ELIZABETH WASHINGTON. Pp. 396. $1.50.

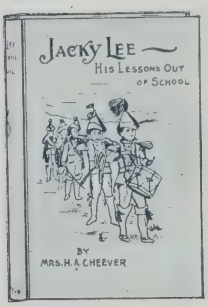
A vivid story of the events which led up to the Massacre of St. Bartholomew. The characters are historical, and the final impression is true to history.

Jack, Jr. By SALLY CAMPBELL. Pp. 348. $1.50.

The story relates how two street Arabs, Jack and Jack, Jr., form a friendship which proves very helpful to both in the Christian life on which they soon enter.

Jacky Lee. By MRS. HARRIET A. CHEEVER. Pp. 286. $1.25.

Jacky Lee and his four friends and the good hired man make a group with whom all boys and girls will be glad to become acquainted.



Janet and Her Father. By MARY E. BAMFORD. Pp. 200. $1.

The scene is laid in Scotland in the time of persecution under James II., in which the brutal Claverhouse took so prominent a part. Janet's father is among those who have to flee and hide from the merciless dragoons.

Japanese Robinson Crusoe, A. By REV. JENICHIRO OYABE. Pp. 219. $1.

The story of a most interesting life, full of thrilling romance, adventure, hard work, noble ideals, and conquest of difficulties. The book includes many comments on American life from the standpoint of a Japanese Christian which are shrewd and suggestive. It is illustrated, many of the pictures being by Japanese artists.

Jolly Ten, The, and Their Year of Stories. By AGNES CARR SAGE. Pp. 299. $1.25.

The story of a band of cousins who were accustomed to meet at the "Pinery," with "Aunt Roxy." At her fireside they play merry games, have suppers flavored with innocent fun, and listen to stories — each with its lesson calculated to make the ten not less jolly, but quickly responsive to the calls of duty and to the needs of others.

Kathie's Experience. By EMILY HUNTINGTON MILLER. Pp. 232. $1.
Kathie tells her own experience, and does it in a captivating way.

Katie Robertson. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Pp. 338. $1.25.
The story of a brave young girl who had her own way to make in the world, and succeeded in more ways than one. A story of unusual interest.

Kings and Cupbearers. By PROF. GEORGE HUNTINGTON. Pp. 443. $1.50.
A story in which a man who has given his life to a Western college points out the practical value of these colleges and illustrates their life. But the story is by no means a special plea for the Western college, but has much in it to help and inspire all young people who may read it.

Knights of Sandy Hollow, The. By MARY B. SLEIGHT. Pp. 376. $1.50.
A band of boys in a dull fishing village were united for mischief of all kinds. Their escapades made them the terror of the neighborhood, until, under the influence of a devoted young girl and her lame brother who had come to live among them, the purposes of their lives were directed into higher and more useful channels.

Knives and Forks. By MRS. FRANK LEE. Pp. 402. $1.50.
This is a strongly written story dealing with two classes of young people — the members of refined families, many of whom are college students, and the wage-workers and unrefined young men and women.

Knot of Blue, A. By LOTTIE E. STREET. [Prize Series.] Pp. 365. $1.50.
The story tells how some boys came to form a Look-up Legion, and what effect its forming had on their lives after they left the school.

Lake View Series. By ANNA F. BURNHAM. 6 vols. $2.25.

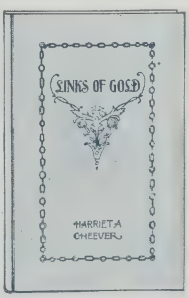
A description of the modes of life and common customs of the Armenians and of missionary life among them.



Links of Gold. By HARRIET A. CHEEVER, author of "Little Jolliby," "The Rescued Madonna," "St. Rockwell's Little Brother," etc. Illustrated. Pp. 314. $1.25.
In this story Mrs. Cheever shows how some girls, associated together in raising funds for missionary effort, did a great deal of good to others and to themselves as well. Just the book for girls.

Little Johnny Twoboys. By JULIA H. BOYNTON. Pp. 57. 60 cts.
Every boy has two boys buttoned up inside of his jacket. He has a never-ending conversation with them so long as he is awake. "Good" tells him to do one thing, and "Bad" just the opposite. "Johnny Twoboys" tells what a time Johnny had with Good and Bad.

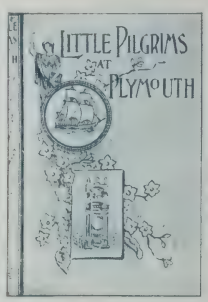
Little Jolliby's Christmas. By MRS. HARRIET A. CHEEVER. Pp. 73. 50 cents.
A short sketch of a weird but sweet-spirited child which will carry its lesson of love to all readers, young and old.

Little Miss Boston. By MRS. HARRIET A. CHEEVER. Pp. 301. $1.25.
A Christmas story of a little girl who lived in a poor district of Boston with rough women who had taken her at her mother's death. She finally escaped from them, and, after many adventures, at last finds a happy home, and for the first time learns the meaning of Christmas.

Titles

Little Pharisee Series. By MARGARET H. ECKERSON. 6 vols. $1.50.

These booklets are for the younger ones, though not for the youngest. They aim to show the unloveliness of pride, Pharisaism, and other like sins of childhood.



Little Pilgrims at Plymouth. By FRANCES A. HUMPHREY. Pp. 331. $1.25.

An entertaining story of the doings and sayings of bright children is made the background for the important facts and incidents in the lives of the Pilgrim Fathers, and their connection with Plymouth, where the modern "Little Pilgrims" are summering. Historically accurate.

Little Tommy. By SARAH ENDICOTT OBER. Pp. 260. $1.

The doings and adventures of a little colored boy, told with mingled drollery and pathos. The story is helpful, as affording an insight into the relations and affections of parents and children.

Lois and her Children. By ALICE HAMILTON RICH. Pp. 228. $1.

In the form of a concrete narrative, Mrs. Rich, who is one of the most competent writers on such subjects, has brought together her thoughts on the physical, mental, moral, and social training of children, showing how the spirit of Christ reigns in the ideal home.

Lonely Hill and its Possibilities. By M. L. WILDER. Pp. 374. $1.50.

The children in an out-of-the-way place form a mission band, and though they are at first inclined to think that they can give neither time, money, nor personal effort, find that they can do much more than they supposed possible.

Making of Oberlin, The. By D. L. LEONARD, D.D. Pp. 440. $1.50.

A graphic account of the history and growth of this great educational institution. Interesting not only to all Oberlin graduates, but forming also a valuable chapter of the educational history of the present century.

This story emphasizes purity of life, of speech, and of heart.

Margery's Vacation. By ELLA B. GITTINGS. Pp. 308. $1.25.

Margery has a beautiful home, but, convinced that a young friend of hers needs an outing more than she does, Margery sends her off on a trip to Colorado, and takes her place, spending her own vacation doing drudgery in her friend's home.

Marriage Chimes for True Lovers. Compiled by M. C. HAZARD, PH.D. Pp. 96. 75 cents.

A collection of choicest poems on Love, Marriage, and the Home. Bound in white and gold, making a very attractive wedding souvenir. Furnished, if desired, with a handsome steel engraved wedding certificate.

Mary Lyon Year Book, The. Edited by HELEN MARSHALL NORTH. Pp. 370. $1.

Mary Lyon was one of the greatest teachers America has produced. The selections from her writings, which are arranged in this volume, show her as she was, in her wonderful devotion to Christ and her strength of personal magnetism. All her old pupils will be glad to see this book, and many besides will find it full of practical and helpful suggestions.

Maud Brayton. A sequel to "Kings and Cupbearers." By Prof. GEORGE HUNTINGTON, author of "Rockanock Stage," "Nakoma," etc. Illustrated. Pp. 400. $1.50.

This sequel to "Kings and Cupbearers" continues the story of Maud Brayton, who was such a captivating character. Professor Huntington's books are all remarkable for their fine literary qualities, skill in picturing odd characters, genuine fun, and ethical teaching.

Miss Charity's House. By HOWE BENNING. Pp. 354. $1.25.

The story is both charming and touching, and it would not be strange if it suggested to many how much good they might do with just the means they have.

Mississippi Schoolmaster, The. By HENRIETTA MATSON. Pp. 219. $1.
What two colored boys achieved and endured during a winter's teaching.

Miss Malcolm's Ten. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Pp. 325. $1.50.
The difference between doing and being is well set forth in this narrative of the circle of the King's Daughters of which Miss Malcolm was the leader.

Model Sunday-school, The. By GEORGE M. BOYNTON, D.D. Pp. 167. Paper, 30 cts., net. Cloth, 75 cents.

Mountaineer Series. By WILLIS BOYD ALLEN. 5 vols. $2.
These stories are intended for the little ones, and are pure, interesting, and attractively illustrated. The five volumes form a connected story concerning the King family, who were obliged to leave their home and begin a struggle for existence elsewhere.

Mt. Holyoke Days in Wartime. By ANNA STEVENS REED. In Press, $1.25.
A picture of life at Mount Holyoke Seminary in the days of the Civil War. The story, aside from its local interest, is a pleasant narrative which will attract readers wherever it becomes known.

My Lady Nell. By EMILY WEAVER. [Prize Series.] Pp. 371. $1.50.
A story of the times when John Rogers was burned at the stake. It makes "My Lady Nell" a strong, beautiful character, though she appears in the beginning as a gay, vain, and very selfish girl.

My Life and Times. By CYRUS HAMLIN, D.D. With portrait and illustrations. New edition. Pp. 538. $1.50.
Dr. Edward Everett Hale says no book since Robinson Crusoe has so interested him as this story of a Yankee boy whose varied career as missionary, educator, inventor, college-builder, preacher, and lecturer, forms the substance of this work. Several large editions have been sold at $2.50. A new edition at a reduced price should be even more popular.

Nakoma. By PROF. GEORGE HUNTINGTON. Pp. 480. $1.50.
A story of frontier life teaching lessons of Christian helpfulness, thoughtfulness, and courage.

Neighbors in Barton Square. By ALICE EDDY CURTISS. Pp. 346. $1.50.
Impresses lessons of self-sacrifice and helpfulness to others.

Old Meetinghouse, The. By INCREASE N. TARBOX, D.D. Pp. 146. 60 cents.

An account of an old-time New England town and events that occurred in it.

One Girl's Way Out. By HOWE BENNING, author of "Miss Charity's House." Pp. 368. $1.25.

The "way out" was a way out of a mere butterfly existence into a life worth living.

One Little Maid. By ELIZABETH PRESTON ALLAN. Pp. 367. $1.50.

This book tells how America and an American boarding school looked to a missionary's daughter and her companion Narika, a Japanese girl. They learn many lessons themselves, and their idealized views of what happens in a Christian nation teach some valuable truths to their companions.

Orders of Worship for the Sunday-school. Ten Opening Services, bound in one volume, arranged by D. E. CURTIS. 15 cents; $12 per 100, net.

The exercises consist of responsive Scripture readings, hymns, choruses, etc., arranged to form a pleasant and helpful service.

Our Life among the Iroquois Indians. By MRS. HARRIET S. CASWELL. Pp. 323. $1.50.

The customs of the six Iroquois tribes, their traditions and their folklore, are set before the reader, often in the words of some Indian convert or interpreter. Touching stories of heroic devotion to Christ and of gratitude for salvation find large place in the book.

Outline Bible Studies, The. Four Studies in each Part. Six Parts. 4 cents, net, each. The six in bound form, 25 cents, net.

Outline Normal Lessons. (Revised edition.) By J. L. HURLBUT, D.D. Paper, 25 cents, net; cloth, 40 cents, net.

Outlines of Congregational History. By REV. GEORGE HUNTINGTON. Pp. 201. $1.

A popular guide to a better and more useful understanding of many subjects of much importance to our churches.

Patchwork Quilt Society, The. By MARY SPRING CORNING. Pp. 280. 75 cents.

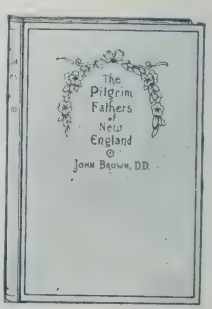
Well calculated to arouse a love for natural history. It tells of the habits of animals and of some of their curious and amusing characteristics.

Patty's Granduncle. By HELEN PEARSON BARNARD. Pp. 425. $1.50.

A rich uncle tests his relatives by allowing them to infer that he has lost all his property. In that way he ascertains that those in one brother's family have no further use for him, while all in the other willingly give him a home, though their means are scant. Patty, in this latter family, becomes his favorite, and she develops a fine character by her regard for him.

Pen's Venture. By ELVIRTON WRIGHT. Pp. 278. $1.25.

Something Pen saw in the condition of the cash girls in a certain store gave her a thought; the thought became a plan; the plan became a venture — Pen's venture. It is amusing, touching, and instructive to read about it.



Pilgrim Fathers of New England, The. By REV. JOHN BROWN, D.D. Pp. 368. $1.50.

Pronounced by Professor John Fiske one of the best as well as most interesting books upon this subject.

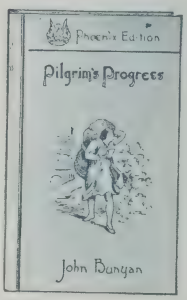
An entirely new and very complete pastor's handbook, designed to meet a minister's wants at marriages, baptisms, funerals, receiving of church members, dedications, laying of corner stones, and other ceremonies. It also contains rules of order for ecclesiastical meetings of all kinds, according to the latest decisions and thoroughly reliable.

Titles

Pilgrim Prize Series. 6 volumes, uniform binding, in box. $9.

Rose and Thorn. — How He Made His Fortune.
A Titled Maiden. — My Lady Nell.
A Knot of Blue. — The Hermit of Livry.



The above were selected from a large number of manuscripts submitted in response to our offer of two prizes, one of seven hundred and one of three hundred dollars.

Each book contains a complete story, and there is a remarkable variety of plot, character, and purpose in the series. All are worthy from a literary point of view, and some of them may be characterized as of unusual merit in that direction.

Pilgrim's Progress. By JOHN BUNYAN. Pp. 410. 25 cents, net.

A handsome and inexpensive edition of this great religious classic.

Pony Expressman, The. By J. F. COWAN, author of "Jo-Boat Boys," etc. Pp. 368. $1.50.

This is a story in which boys will take especial delight. Its hero, Norman McNally, is a bright manly boy, with an ambition to study and practice law. The death of his father makes it necessary for him to earn money, and the various original schemes which he adopts are very interesting.

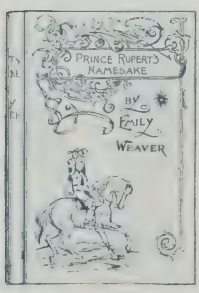
Poole's Millions, The. By JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Pp. 371. $1.50.

Showing the folly of reckless and extravagant expenditure.

Powell, James. Reminiscences. Edited by H. PORTER SMITH. Pp. 213. $1.

Primer of Christian Evidences. By R. A. REDFORD, M. A. With an appendix on "How to Teach the Old Testament." Net, 75 cents.

The "Primer," though very brief, is a judicious and forcible presentation of the subject, and will be very useful to Sunday-school teachers and other intelligent laymen.



Prince Rupert's Namesake. By EMILY WEAVER. Pp. 394. $1.50.

This historical story is of peculiar interest, connected as it is with the great plague which swept over London in 1563–64 and with the persecution which just preceded it. The heroism exhibited is such as to stir one's heart.

Prince Siddartha, the Japanese Buddha. By REV. J. L. ATKINSON. Pp. 309. $1.25.

A sketch, taken from original sources, of the life and work of the Buddha whom the Japanese worship. It is both accurate and interesting. It sets forth the peculiarities of Buddhistic doctrine, allowing that religion to speak for itself. At the same time the book shows very clearly how far inferior Buddhism is to Christianity.

Protestant Foreign Missions. A universal survey. By PROF. THEODORE CHRISTLIEB. Pp. 280. $1.

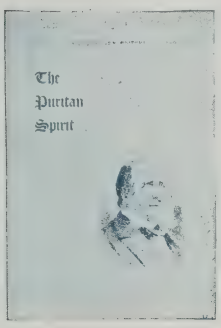
Proud Little Baxter, A. By FRANCES BURT DILLINGHAM. Fully illustrated. Pp. 100. 75 cents.

A very charming story, suggestive of "Captain January," and pronounced by some fully equal to it in merit.

Psalms and their Story, The. By W. E. BARTON, D.D. 2 vols. in a box. Pp. 250, each. The set $2.50.

A scholarly and at the same time exceedingly interesting account of the Psalms and the circumstances under which they are supposed to have been written. Prof. Ballantine of Oberlin commends the book in the highest terms as containing much valuable information not elsewhere found in the English Language. Though it will be useful to ministers and scholars, nothing could be better for use in family worship, as it contains a translation of the Psalms based on the Revised Version, showing the Hebrew parallelism, and also bringing out the peculiarity of the Acrostic Psalms.

Titles



Puritan Spirit, The. By RICHARD SALTER STORRS, D.D., LL.D. Pp. 72. 50 cents. Same, paper covers, net, 30 cents.

This large paper edition of Dr. Storrs's masterly oration before the Boston Congregational Club, with gilt top, uncut edges, portrait and other illustrations, makes a volume worthy of any library.

Rabbi's Sons, The. By EMILY WEAVER. Pp. 381. $1.50.

In this book the authoress of "My Lady Nell" tells a remarkably strong story of the days of St. Paul.

Rainproof Invention, The. By EMILY WEAVER. Pp. 414. $1.50.

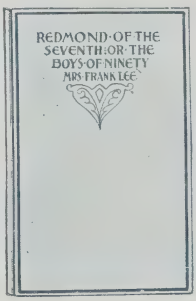
The story of a mill-owner's temptations, struggles, and triumphs.

Real Preaching. By NEHEMIAH BOYNTON, D.D. Pp. 123. 75 cents.

These are lectures delivered to theological students at Oberlin. The author's reputation as a remarkably vigorous and successful preacher and pastor is a sufficient assurance that these pages will contain something worth reading that no minister, young or old, can afford to miss.

Recollections of a Nonagenarian. By Rev. J. C. HOLBROOK, D.D., LL.D. Pp. 351. $1.00, net.

The name of Dr. Holbrook is widely known and honored in the Congregational denomination. Of especial interest are the letters which Dr. Holbrook wrote to his wife while he was employed in Great Britain raising funds for the aid of the freedmen just after the Civil War. These letters show the character of the man and his work. It is interesting reading, even to those who may know nothing about Dr. Holbrook.



Redmond of the Seventh. By MRS. FRANK LEE. Five illustrations. Gilt top. Pp. 290. $1.25.

This story has been considerably extended since it appeared in The Youth's Companion. An unusually strong and interesting character is Redmond in spite of his faults. Like "Tom Brown of Rugby," it cannot fail to influence boys to be manly and brave.

Rescued Madonna, A. By HARRIET A. CHEEVER. Pp. 104. 60 cents.

An Easter story full of pathos and sweet suggestion. Tastefully bound in white and gold.

Responsive Readings. Selections from the Psalms and other Scriptures in the Revised Version. Edited by JOSEPH T. DURYEA, D.D. Pp. 132. 50 cents, net; to churches for introduction, 100 copies, $30.

The Responsive Readings are selected and arranged with the greatest skill. Never before have the rhythmical portions of the Scriptures been so well presented and adapted to their original uses of worship. The divisions for alternate recitations are made so as to secure the best effect both as to sense and rhythm.

Responsive Readings, with Morning and Vesper Services. By J. T. DURYEA, D.D. Pp. 203. 70 cents, net; to churches for introduction, 100 copies, $50.

Richard Bruce. By Rev. CHARLES M. SHELDON. Pp. 355. 75 cts.

A strong, impressive, and thrilling story, putting forth the nobility of setting aside self in the attempt to do the Master's will.

Robert Hardy's Seven Days. By Rev. CHARLES M. SHELDON. Pp. 238. 75 cents; paper, 25 cents.

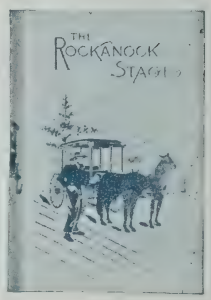
A book for young men, often dramatic and always of intense interest, while treating in an able and helpful manner some of our most important social problems.

Rock-a-By Series. By ANNA F. BURNHAM. Each 48 pp. Fully illustrated. 6 vols. $1.50.

Charming stories with morals deftly woven in, a picture on every page with a story to match it. Suitable for children from six to ten years of age. Each volume in a bright illuminated cover.

Titles

Rockanock Stage, The. By PROF. GEORGE HUNTINGTON. Pp. 551. $1.50.



One of the strongest, most interesting, and quietly humorous of this author's excellent stories.

Root-Bound. By ROSE TERRY COOKE. Pp. 264. $1.

Twenty-one articles in prose and verse, including the author's famous sketch, "The Deacon's Week."

Rose and Thorn. By KATHARINE LEE BATES. [Prize Series.] Pp. 361. $1.50. [This story took the first prize.]

This is a story at once dainty, strong, and touching. Its hero is a hunchback, and the heroine is his twin sister. One is charmed by the way the story is told, but more by the spirit of the story itself.

Round Top and Square Top; or, The Gates Twins. A sequel to "Dear Gates." By JOSEPHINE R. BAKER. Pp. 343. $1.25.

"A rollicking sort of a narrative for the children, not without its sober passages and even its spiritual teachings, but breezy and hearty to the last." — Congregationalist.

Royal Hunt, A. By MRS. E. C. WILSON. Pp. 394. $1.50.

A story of the Huguenots, of thrilling interest, with a peculiarly attractive picture of the child-life among these much-persecuted people.

Royal Service, The; or, The King's Seal. By KATE W. HAMILTON. Pp. 192. $1.

The story of a young boy who, while having a good time himself, endeavors to help others and stamp upon his actions the spirit of Christ, or the King's Seal.

Ruth Prentice. By MARION THORNE. Pp. 292. $1.25.

The story of what a young girl found to do at home and in the town where she lived. She was called to great sacrifices and had many trials of patience, but they all helped her and others, instead of hindering them.

Sabbath Hours. By AUSTIN PHELPS, D.D. Pp. 157. 50 cents.

A companion to the author's "Still Hour."

Service in the King's Guards. By TWO OF THEM. Pp. 344. $1.50.

A narrative of the personal experiences of two frontier missionaries, showing both the hardships and the joys of the work, from its beginnings in a sod house to the fully developed church life of a well-built town.

Seven Laws of Teaching, The. By JOHN M. GREGORY, LL.D., ex-President of the State University of Illinois. 65 cents, net.

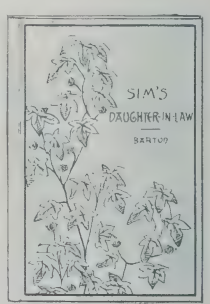
In a careful study of these Seven Laws, the discussion reaches every valuable principle in education and every practical rule which can be of use in the teacher's work.

Sewells, The. By MISS MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Pp. 358. $1.50.

The theme of this book is, "To every man his work."

Silver Cross, The, and Miss Marigold's Tithes. A book for the King's Daughters. By ALICE EDDY CURTISS. Pp. 328. $1.50.

These two stories make up a memorial volume worthy of perpetuating the name of one of the choicest writers for the young.

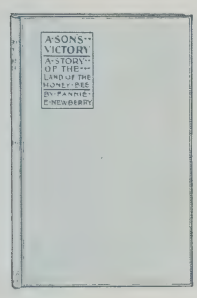


Sim Galloway's Daughter-in-Law. By W. E. BARTON, D.D. Fully illustrated. Pp. 112. 50 cents.

This is a Southern dialect story of great interest and power. The teaching is excellent, though it is not obtruded. The author is thoroughly familiar with the life and habits of the Southern mountaineers, and these graphic pictures are true to life. Sim's pretty adopted daughter is saved from a foolish elopement, his farm redeemed from a rapacious mortgagee, and his wandering son brought back home, all by the well-directed efforts and practical wisdom of his hitherto unknown daughter-in-law, who thus seeks to atone in some measure for her former wayward life.

Snowed In. By WILLIS BOYD ALLEN. Pp. 192. $1.

The hero is a city boy who is sent by the doctor to the woods just at the maple-sugar season. Of course he had a good time, both in doors and out.



Some Christian Endeavor Saints. By REV. FRANCIS E. CLARK, D.D. Pp. 247. $1.

A series of brief, spicy articles, many of which have already been printed, but all of which are of permanent value.

Son of Liberty, A. By WILLIS BOYD ALLEN. Pp. 262. $1.25.

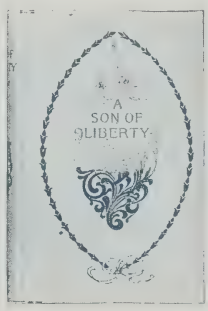
A capital story of the days preceding the American Revolution.

Son's Victory, A; A Story of the Land of the Honey Bee. By FANNIE E. NEWBERRY, author of "Brian's Home," "Wrestler of Philippi," "Comrades," "Transplanted," etc. Illustrated. Pp. 408. $1.50.

A story of life in Mormondom. Deseret is the land of the honey bee.

St. Peter and Tom. By BELLE S. CRAGIN. Pp. 196. $1.00.

Peter and Tom were unlikely heroes, particularly in the direction of Christian heroism, but the proper chord was touched in each of their lives, and through many trials and adventures they developed Christian principles and successful business traits.



St. Rockwells' Little Brother. By MRS. HARRIET A. CHEEVER. Pp. 400. $1.50.

A story which deals with the top and the bottom of society and the way in which the two strata were brought together.

Story Hour Series, The. By ALICE HAMILTON RICH. 6 vols. Pp. 38 to 44 each. $1.50.

For the children of the primary department. The stories are long enough to be interesting, but not so long as to be tiresome.

Story of the Pilgrims, The. By REV. MORTON DEXTER. Pp. 358. 75 cents.

A popular setting forth of the beliefs and sufferings of the early Independents in England, Holland, and America.

Story of a Pumpkin Pie, The. By W. E. BARTON, D.D. Illustrated by A. M. Willard. Pp. 56. 75 cents.

A genuinely humorous story in rhyme, of three children and a dog and their varied adventures in raising a pumpkin, and the culmination at Thanksgiving time. The 20 full-page drawings are a feature of the book, and not only children but their parents will have many a wholesome laugh over its pages.

Studies in the Old Testament. By PROF. AUSTIN PHELPS. Pp. 333. $1.

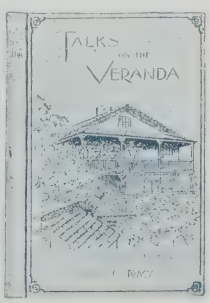
"The Publishing Society has done nothing better of late than the issue of this valuable book."—The Advance.

Summer Assembly Days; or, What Was Seen, Heard, and Felt at the Nebraska Chautauqua. By ANNA E. HAHN. With an introduction by A. E. Dunning, D.D. Pp. 245. $1.25.

The author gives us inviting glimpses into the Assembly, and causes her readers to see and hear what she herself saw and heard to such advantage.

Sunday-School Primary Teachers' Manual, The. By LOUISE ORDWAY TEAD. Pp. 83. Cloth, 35 cents, net; paper, 25 cents, net.

This manual places in compact form material for the use of the primary teacher and helps in the varied departments of her work. It includes a large variety of pretty exercises and songs.



Supernatural Revelation. By PROF. C. M. MEAD, of Hartford Theological Seminary. Pp. 469. $1.75.

A remarkably able discussion of the possibility and methods of the Christian revelation, viewed from the philosophical and psychological standpoint.

Talks on the Veranda in a Far-away Land. By REV. CHARLES C. TRACY. Pp. 293. $1.25.

The trials and blessings of foreign missionary work form the theme of this volume.

Titles

Tearless Land, The. Poems on heaven. Compiled by M. C. HAZARD, PH.D. Pp. 196. Gilt top. $1.50.

A choice collection of the best ancient and modern poems on heaven, with critical and historical notes.

Ten Years of Missionary Work Among the Indians at Skokomish. By Rev. M. ELLIS. Pp. 271. $1.25.

"A well-told narrative of an admirably conducted mission work; also of special ethnological interest."— The Christian Union.

Three Years at Glenwood. A sequel to "Katie Robertson." By MISS MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Pp. 362. $1.25.

The story of a young girl who undertook to do something and be something for herself and the rest of the world, and succeeded.

Titled Maiden, A. By MRS. CAROLINE ATWATER MASON. [Prize series.] Pp. 447. $1.50. [This story took the second prize.]

The heroine, to the great dismay of her friends, chooses the medical profession for her life work, and becomes a "Titled Maiden" by receiving the degree of M.D. In the victories that she attains in her struggle to a degree, and, later, to establish a practice, she not only becomes more noble and refined in character, but, in the best of ways, teaches the beauty of self-denial for others.

Transplanted. By FANNIE E. NEWBERRY. Pp. 391. $1.50.

A young girl of good parentage is forced by adverse circumstances to spend the early years of her life in the home of professional thieves. She is rescued from these surroundings, and under helpful influences develops a noble Christian character.

Truth About the Trouble at Roundstone, The. By REV. WILLIAM E. BARTON, D.D. Pp. 144. Fully illustrated. 50 cents.

This story is one of great pathos and charm. While vivid in its picturing of local conditions in the Roundstone Valley, and in its representation of the manner of life and the manner of speech of the people who live there, it touches a line which is of universal human interest. The way in which two lifelong friends who had loved each other and sacrificed for each other fell into bitter enmity, and how at last through deep suffering and the shadow of death they were brought closer together than they had ever been before, have seldom if ever been more powerfully pictured.

Twentieth Door, The. By CHARLES M. SHELDON. Pp. 365. 75 cents.

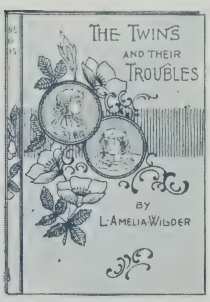
The Twentieth Door is the Twentieth Century. Farm and college life alternate. Young men especially will be interested and inspired by it.

Twin Heroes, The. By REV. F. A. REED. Pp. 413. $1.50.

A story of a family of the nobility at the court of Queen Elizabeth, showing the beginning of the movement which resulted in the Pilgrims coming to New England.

Twins and Their Texts, The. By L. AMELIA WILDER. Pp. 178. 75 cents.

This is an amusing and very delightful volume for the little ones. It is especially good in that it makes it plain how the Bible fits into the lives even of the smallest.



Twins and Their Troubles, The. By L. AMELIA WILDER. Pp. 225. 75 cents.

A sequel to "The Twins and Their Texts."

Two Volunteer Missionaries Among the Dakotas. By S. W. POND, JR. Pp. 278. $1.25.

This volume relates how two brothers, Samuel W. and Gideon H. Pond, went out from Connecticut at their own charges, to labor among the Indians of Minnesota before any Protestant missionary stations had been established among them.

Walker's Comprehensive Concordance to the Holy Scriptures. By REV. J. B. R. WALKER. 8vo. Pp. 980. Revised edition. Cloth, net $1.00; half leather, net $1.75.

A compact, comprehensive, clearly printed, and accurate text-finder, far superior to Cruden's as Cruden's has been to any other concordance. The work is simply arranged, a single alphabet being used for all words, including proper names. All matter not distinctly helpful to the searcher for a text has been rigidly excluded. Numerous small errors have been corrected in this edition making it probably the most nearly correct concordance ever published.

The Hymnal

FOR USE IN CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES.

A Pastor's Opinion of it.

Rev. J. E. Twitchell, New Haven, Conn., writes: I have examined the book with much care from beginning to end and find the hymns the choicest collection I have ever seen. They are wide in range and rich in the spirit of true devotion. The indexes are so complete as to meet every want of the minister.

Many of the tunes are new to most worshipers but will be easily learned. Besides, old tunes abound to which familiar hymns have been set, so that long cherished associations are preserved.

What Professors of Music say of it.

It is with pleasure that I say it is undoubtedly the best hymnal now on the market. By profession I am an Episcopalian, and you know how dear the hymnal of my own church is to me. When I tell you that I think that your work is superior to our late hymnal, I know that you will see the praise is sincere.— J. Emory Shaw, Director of Music, Wilson College for Women, Chambersburg, Pa.

It seems to me a most admirable collection on the whole, excelling especially in the large proportion of inspiring musician-like tunes it contains and in the general tone of its hymn collections.— Prof. B. C. Blodgett, School of Music, Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

An Organist's Testimony.

I have this to say for the Hymnal, that I have never seen or used a hymn book which suited me better. The more we use it the better we like it. We made no mistake in our selection.— Chas. K. Hinkley, Organist, First Congregational Church, Gorham, Me.

An Editor's Opinion.

Says the Congregationalist: Now comes this new Hymnal, in many respects in advance of all its predecessors and competitors. In its mechanical make-up and appearance it leaves nothing to be desired, while the good judgment of its editors is to be seen on every page. . . . For comprehensiveness, for poetic merit as well as religious feeling, for adaptation to all the moods and phases of Christian experience, and for practical use in the services of the church this book seems to us a decided success.

Haman is advanced, and ESTHER. III. IV. seeketh to destroy the Jews.

nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 ¶ And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's Manoah and his wife. JUDGES, 14. Samson killeth a lion.

10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day.
11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.
12 And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass. How shall we order the child, and how shall we do unto him?
13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware.
14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her let her observe.
15 ¶ And Manoah said unto the angel of

AND Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.
2 And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore get her for me to wife.
3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well.
4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

Christ healeth ST. MARK, 3. the withered hand.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.
21 No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.
22 And no man putteth new sabbath day; that they might accuse him.
3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.
4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Joab, by the wise woman of Tekoah, procureth the return of Absalom. 25 The beauty, 26 and children, of Absalom. 28 Absalom is reconciled to his father.

1 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom.

2 And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king.

5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I indeed am a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.

6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two fought together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the earth.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me,[1] and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whoso-

ADVANTAGES OF THE ART BIBLE.

Teachers of Children's Classes in Sunday School can instantly gain the attention of their scholars by showing these beautiful pictures and then relating the story illustrated.

A Real Work of Art speaks to the heart and the understanding of all. It almost seems as if Jesus, the Child, the Man, the Redeemer, stood before us. Angels announce His coming; wise men fall before Him: doctors wonder in the temple; the people crowd around Him; sick, dying and dead are won to life and health; prodigal men and women hear the blessed words: "Neither do I condemn you:" children cry, "Hozanna!" and scatter flowers and palm branches as He rides into Jerusalem: Pilate trembles before Him: He falls beneath the heavy cross; suffers and dies for man; then rises Conqueror for ever.

In this graphic way the leading events of the Old and New Testament are made more real and life-like, and young and old alike learn to love the Book of the world.

These little volumes are of special value in connection with Sunday School work, and members of the different Societies which give special attention to the study of the Bible find them exceedingly useful. To those of the Chautauqua Circles which read Prof. Moulton's "Literary Study of the Bible" they are of special interest.

Rev. Dr. LYMAN ABBOTT, Editor-in-Chief of the OUTLOOK, writes:—

"I had intended to write to Professor Moulton, congratulating him on this work. It may almost be said that he has inaugurated a new epoch in Bible study. The scholars have been telling us for some years that the Bible is literature. Particular passages of beauty in it have been pointed out, and some single books, such as Job and the Song of Songs, have been put in literary form and given a literary interpretation by special writers. But Professor Moulton is the first one, so far as I know, to deal with the whole Bible as a collection of literature, to discriminate between literary study and historicocritical study, and to present the result of the former in such a form as to render them available to the ordinary English reader. The low price of the little volume puts them within the reach of the great majority of American households, and I look for a large increase of interest in the Bible, for a much better understanding of its general spirit and teaching, and especially for an increased appreciation of its inspirational power, from the publication of the Modern Reader's Bible."

Presbyterian and Reformed Review :—

"Unquestionably here is a task worth carrying out: and it is to be said at once that Dr. Moulton has carried it out with great skill and helpfulness. Both the introduction and the notes are distinct contributions to the better understanding and higher appreciation of the literary character, features, and beauties of the Biblical books treated."

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown:
But the tent of the upright shall flourish.
12 There is a way which [1]seemeth right unto a man.
But the end thereof are the ways of death.
13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful;
And the end of mirth is heaviness.
14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways:
And a good man shall be satisfied from himself.
15 The simple believeth every word:
But the prudent man looketh well to his going.
16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil:
But the fool beareth himself insolently, and is confident.
17 He that is soon angry will deal foolishly:
But the righteous [10]hath hope in his death.
33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding:
[11]But that which is in the inward part of fools is made known.
34 Righteousness exalteth a nation:
But sin is a reproach to [12]any people.
35 The king's favour is toward a servant that dealeth wisely:
But his wrath shall be against him that [13]causeth shame.
15 A soft answer turneth away wrath:
But a grievous word stirreth up anger.
2 The tongue of the wise uttereth knowledge aright:
But the mouth of fools poureth out folly.
3 The eyes of the LORD are in every place,
Keeping watch upon the evil and the good.

2 Now when *Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,
2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.
3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.
5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,

In 1895 the University Presses undertook to meet the increasing demand, both at home and in America, for an edition of the complete Revised Version with marginal references. A committee was appointed to superintend the work, consisting of the Rev. Dr. Price, Master of Pembroke College, Oxford; the Ven. Dr. Palmer, Archdeacon of Oxford; Dr. W. Aldis Wright, Vice-Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, and the Rev. Dr. Kirkpatrick, Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Cambridge. On Archdeacon Palmer's death, in October, 1895, the Rev. Dr. Ince, Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Oxford, succeeded to his place on the committee.

The general editorship was entrusted to the Rev. Dr. Stokoe of Lincoln College, Oxford, and the following scholars were appointed to assist him in preparing the references for the Old Testament and Apocrypha: The Rev. Dr. Barnes, Fellow of Peterhouse, Cambridge; the Rev. A. W. Greenup, St. John's College, Cambridge; the Rev. E. R. Massey, Exeter College, Oxford, and the Rev. J. W. Nutt, late Fellow of All Souls' College, Oxford. In regard to the New Testament references, Dr. Stokoe was instructed to confer with Dr. Moulton, who undertook to adapt for this edition the fuller body of references upon which he had been engaged. Since Dr. Moulton's death this part of the work has been completed, under the editor's supervision, by the Rev. J. H. Moulton, late Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, and the Rev. A. W. Greenup, both of whom had already been assisting Dr. Moulton.

The marginal references given in the original edition of the Authorized Version of 1611 have been retained as far as possible, and the contributors have availed themselves largely of the references in Dr. Scrivener's Paragraph Bible, which they were instructed to make the basis of their work.

The references given may be arranged under the following heads:

1. Quotations, or exact verbal parallels.
2. Passages referred to for similarity of idea or expression.
3. Passages referred to by way of explanation or illustration.
4. Historical and Geographical references. names of persons, places, etc., which recur.
5. Passages referred to as illustrating differences of rendering between the Authorized and Revised Versions.

The following modes of indication have been used:

1. A simple index letter is employed when there is an exact or close parallel between the passages.
2. "Cited," or "Cited from," is prefixed to cases of actual quotation.
3. "Cp." (compare) is prefixed to references when the parallel is less exact.
4. "See" is prefixed:
   (A) When reference is made to a parallel passage on which a body of references has been collected.
   (B) In referring to longer passages, parallel or explanatory. When one longer passage is given as a parallel to another of similar length the mode of indication is "For, &c., see &c."
5. "Al." (alibi, elsewhere) is added to indicate that all the parallel passages are not given.
6. "(?)" is placed after a reference when its appropriateness is doubtful.
7. "(mg.)," "(&mg.)," "(for mg.)," "mg. for mg.)" are used when references relate solely or partly to the Revisers' marginal renderings.

When several references are given, with different modes of indication, they are arranged in this order:

1. References with simple index letter.
2. " which have "Cited" or "Cited from" prefixed.
3. " which have "Cp." prefixed.
4. " which have "See" prefixed.

When several references have the same mode of indication they are arranged as follows:

1. References to other verses in the same chapter.
2. " to other passages in the same book.
3. " to passages in other Books, according to the order of these Books in the Bible.

The Reviser's marginal renderings are transferred in this edition to the foot of the page, together with all other notes in the margin of the Revised Version, except:

(A) When simple references given by the Revisers have been incorporated in the new body of references
(B) When a marginal note refers to some different division or order in the original.

In previous editions of the Revised Version the numbers of the verses were placed on the inner margin of each page.

LORD said unto Moses, [g] How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws? 29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. 30 So the people [h] rested on the seventh day. 31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof [1 i] Manna: and it was [j] like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. 32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Let an omerful of it be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. 33 And Moses said unto Aaron, thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, [u] wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go. 6 [v] Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. 7 And he called the name of the place [3 w] Massah, and [4 x] Meribah, because of the striving of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

8 [y] Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. 9 And Moses said unto [z] Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to-morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with [a] the rod of God in mine hand. 10 So [z] Joshua

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.
51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.
52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.
53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.
54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, thority over all devils, and to cure diseases.
2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.
3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.
4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.
5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

O COME, let us sing unto the LORD : let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving : and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.
For the LORD is a great God : and a great King above all gods.
In his hand are all the corners of the earth : and the strength of the hills is his also.
The sea is his, and he made it : and his hands prepared the dry land.
O come, let us worship and fall down : and kneel before the LORD our Maker.
For he is the Lord our God : and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.
O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness : let the whole earth stand in awe of him.
For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth : and with righteousness to judge the world, and the people with his truth.

6 MORNING PRAYER.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Minister. Praise ye the Lord.

Answer. The Lord's Name be praised.

¶ Then shall be said or sung the following Anthem; except on those days for which other Anthems are appointed; and except also, when it is used in the course of the Psalms, on the nineteenth day of the month.

GOD, that madest earth and heaven,
Darkness and light;
Who the day for toil hast given,
For rest the night:
May Thine angel-guards defend us,
Slumber sweet Thy mercy send us,
Holy dreams and hopes attend us,
This livelong night.

2 Guard us waking, guard us sleeping,
And, when we die,
May we in Thy mighty keeping,
All peaceful lie:
When the last dread call shall wake us,
Do not Thou, our God, forsake us,
But to reign in glory take us
With Thee on high.

SING, with all the sons of glory,
Sing the resurrection-song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
To the "former days" belong.
Even now the dawn is breaking,
Soon the night of time shall cease,
And, in God's own likeness waking,
Man shall know eternal peace.

2 Oh, what glory, far exceeding
All that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts, for ages pleading.

My soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

6 Oh, when shall I, in endless day,
Forever chase dark sleep away,
And hymns divine with angels sing,
All praise to Thee, eternal King?

7 Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, angelic host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Walker Gwynn's "Bible Lessons for the Christian Year." New Testament Series. By the Rev. Walker Gwynne. Edited by the Right Rev. W. C. Doane, S.T.D., Bishop of Albany. One hundredth thousand This series is intended to supplement the "Manuals of Christian Doctrine". While different in form, the Bible Lessons follow the same subjects in the Church Catechism each Sunday as the earlier series, so that both books can be used simultaneously in one school without interfering with the general catechising. The "Picture Lessons," which form the primary or "Infant" grade, are beautifully illustrated. The other grades have finely drawn maps. Senior Grade for Teachers and the Oldest Scholars. Net..... .25

Walker Gwynne's Illustrated Old Testament Lessons. This new series of Mr. Gwynne's "Bible Lessons for the Christian Year," with pictures in every grade, will be published in time for Advent. The series is on Old Testament subjects and is framed on exactly the same plan as the "Manuals of Christian Doctrine" (sales over half a million in America and England) and the "Bible Lessons for the Christian Year (New Testament sales over one hundred thousand). Like its predecessors, the new series follows carefully the Christian Year and illustrates and enforces the teaching of the Church Catechism. Senior for Teachers and "Bible Classes". Net..... .25

Davidson. Small 4to, cloth, net.....2 50

HEBREW-ENGLISH LEXICON.

Containing all the Hebrew and Chaldee words in the Old Testament Scriptures, with their meaning in English. The arrangement of this Manual Lexicon combines two things: the etymological order of roots, and the alphabetical order of words. This arrangement tends to lead the learner onward; for, as he becomes more at home with roots and derivatives, he learns to turn at once to the root, without first searching for the particular word in its alphabetical order. 18mo, cloth, net....65

"This is the most beautiful, and, at the same time, the most correct and perfect Manual Hebrew Lexicon we have ever used."—Eclectic Review.

Practical Primary Plans. For Primary Teachers of the Sunday-school. By ISRAEL P. BLACK. 12mo. $1.00.

"Not only the long experience of the author has been drawn upon, but there is added that of many teachers in the same line of work, and the result is an exceedingly practical, suggestive, and useful little volume, just such a one as primary teachers everywhere will fully appreciate."—The Christian Advocate (N. Y.)

The Presbyterian Churches. Their power and place in modern Christendom. By the Rev. J. N. OGILVIE, M. A. Small 12mo. 25c.

An Explanation of the Epistle to the Hebrews. By the Rev. SAMUEL T. LOWRIE, D. D. The present edition is amended by correction of typographical errors, and, in a few instances, by modification of statements that appeared in the first edition. There is also added an introduction, which is chiefly a brief of the contents of the Epistle. 8vo. $1.50 net.

"This is one of the most thoughtful commentaries that the American Church has yet produced. The treatment of the opening verses of the Epistle may be adduced as a very noble specimen of the best and most thoroughly constructive exegesis."—The Presbyterian Review.

Prayer and the Healing of Disease. By W. S. PLUMER BRYAN, D. D. 16mo. Paper, 20c.

"A very clear statement of Scriptural teaching, showing with much force the folly and danger of those misguided men and women who misinterpret such teaching."—North and West.

What Christian Science Really Is. By Rev. JOHN GORDON, D. D. Small 16mo. Pp. 32, paper cover, 5c.

The Greatness and the Joy of Preaching. By Rev. E. D. MORRIS, D. D. Small 18mo. Pp. 12, paper cover, 3c.

Mormon "Articles of Faith" Explained. By Rev. D. J. MCMILLAN, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 16, 2c.

Missionary Exercises No. 4. For the use of Sunday-schools, Mission Bands, and Christian Endeavor Societies, consisting of Responsive Readings, Dialogues, Recitations, Games, arranged by the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church. 12mo. Pp. 224, 30c.

Worthies of Westminster. By Rev. JOHN S. MACINTOSH, D. D. 12mo. Pp. 23, paper cover, 5c.

Primary Catechism. By Rev. GEORGE S. CARSON. 32mo. 2c.

Hymns and Verses. By LOUIS F. BENSON. This dainty volume contains a very choice collection of lyrical poems, sonnets, and occasional verses, of a peculiarly refined and spiritual cast. Mr. Benson's poems, including a number of felicitous translations, have preëminently the note of sincerity, and display an easy command of the technique of metrical composition as well as the poetic temperament. Many of these hymns will be sure to find their way into future devotional collections. 16mo. $1.00.

The Twentieth Century Movement in Presbyterian Sabbath-Schools to Bring in Half a Million of New Scholars before April, 1901. Visitor's Books, $3.00 per hundred; Invitation Cards, 30c. per hundred; Acceptance Cards, 30c. per hundred.

Scripture Texts. With Expositions and Sentence Prayers from Calvin's Commentaries on the Minor Prophets. Compiled by the Rev. CHARLES E. EDWARDS. Small 16mo. Pp. 118, 50c.

This book is a compilation of brief extracts from a revised translation of the commentaries on the minor prophets, each extract being accompanied by the prayer spoken at the close of the lecture from which the extract is taken. The book is meant to bring to the Church's notice Calvin's great power in prayer, which the author believes has been overlooked.

A Heartening Word for Mr. Fearing; or, Cheer for Doubting Pilgrims. By the Rev. WILLIAM P. PATTERSON. Small 16mo. Pp. 70, 50c.

This is a message of cheer and comfort to those professing Christians who resemble Mr. Fearing in Pilgrim's Progress. The writer undertakes to show from God's word that every believer may joyfully experience the fullest confidence in the absolute certainty of his salvation, because of God's unfailing covenant and the omnipotence of his grace.

The Daughters of the Parsonage. By BELLE V. CHISHOLM. Large 12mo. Pp. 346, illustrated, $1.25.

A natural and attractive story for young people. It is a tale of young life in the household of a hard working and faithful minister. The four daughters are real, live girls, whose experiences in a home where love was abundant though money was so scarce that scrimping and self-denial were the rule of life, are well recounted. A bright and wholesome humor characterizes the book throughout.

American Presbyterianism, in its Development and Growth. By Rev. ROBERT M. PATTERSON, D. D., LL. D. 16mo. Pp. 132, 50c. net.

Dr. Patterson writes in a bright, incisive style, giving life and reality to the statistics he presents of the numerical growth of Presbyterianism in all its branches and in comparison with the other various Christian denominations. This little book is full of meat. Its interest and value are in inverse proportion to its size.

Alice and Her Two Friends. By Rev. CHARLES S. WOOD. 12mo. Pp. 290, illustrated, $1.25.

A wholesome story of girl-life in the family and at school. The heroine and her friends are real girls such as one meets with every day, while the mother of Alice is a strong and lovable character. The author portrays the home life in a manner to bring out strikingly the advantages of a sound Christian training, and the illustrations serve to impress the story deeply.

Compendium of Church History. By the Rev. ANDREW C. ZENOS, D. D., Professor of Biblical Theology in McCormick Theological Seminary, with an Introduction by the Rev. JOHN DEWITT, D. D., LL. D. 16mo. Pp. 344, $1.00.

"I know no better outline than this one. The author's knowledge of the sources and literature of the subject is exceptionally large. The conception of history which dominates his book is the true conception. He holds that the historical movement is vital and organic. His work merits a wide circulation and faithful study."—From the Introduction, by Dr. DeWitt.

"He is Not Here:" The Resurrection of Christ. By Rev. J. H. BROOKES, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 170, 75c.

A complete and satisfactory treatment of a question whose importance cannot be overestimated. The credibility and competency of the witnesses to our Lord's resurrection are fully established. Their testimony is minutely examined and shown to be conclusive. The cavils and counter-arguments of infidels and opposers are met and refuted.

Baptism Not Immersion. By Rev. D. W. POOR, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 20 and cover, 5c.

A Manual for Ruling Elders. Containing the Laws and Usages of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. in relation to Ruling Elders and other Church Officers, Church Sessions, and Congregations, with Introductory Matter, Notes, and Suggestions by the Rev. WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, D. D., LL. D. 16mo. Pp. 459, $1.00 net; postage, 10c.

"It is difficult to see how, in the compass given, a better book could possibly be written. It is at once a summary of the standards, a digest, and a condensation of laws and precedents. It is simply invaluable. We know personally that it will save many hours of painful searching during the year. The Index is complete, making it possible for one to turn to any point in a moment. It simply contains the very information that every intelligent Presbyterian must have."—The Michigan Presbyterian.

The Westminster Assembly, its History and Standards. By ALEXANDER F. MITCHELL, D. D., LL. D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History, St. Mary's College, St. Andrew's. Joint Editor of Minutes of the Westminster Assembly, Minutes of the Commission of the General Assembly, etc. Second Edition. Revised by the Author. 12mo. $2.00.

"No one living is more competent to give a history of the Westminster Assembly than the author of this book. Although the material is pressed into the form of lectures, it is in decided advance beyond anything that has thus far appeared on this neglected subject."—The Presbyterian Review.

Jesus and Children. By the Rev. CHARLES E. CRAVEN. 12mo. Paper, 15c.

"One who appreciates children, their needs, trials, and possibilities, presents in a simple and graphic way the relations of Christ to them. He shows that they were constantly near him among the throngs which followed him; that they trusted and loved him and were loved by him; that he knew the worth of their humility and faith; and that he drew great lessons from them for children of larger growth. An interesting and attractive booklet."—The Presbyterian.

Church Papers, No. 1—The Validity of Non-Prelatical Ordination. By the Rev. GEO. PARK FISHER, D. D., LL. D. Octavo. Pp. 28, 10c. net.

Church Papers, No. 2—The Anglican View of the Church. By J. Oswald Dykes, M. A., D. D., Principal of Theological College of the Presbyterian Church of England. Octavo. Pp. 15, 10c. net.

The object of this series of "Church Papers" is to set forth, and, where necessary, to defend the doctrine of the Church, the Ministry, and the Sacraments, which is embodied in the historic Standards of the Presbyterian Church.

The Sacred Tie. By Julia MacNair Wright. 18mo. Pp. 8, 1c.

A strong, vigorous paper on the subject of divorce. The subject is timely, as loose views of the marriage relation are held in too many places, and the thought of its sacredness is fading out of too many hearts and consciences.

The Pre-Existence of Spirits. (A Mormon Doctrine.) Refuted by the Bible. By the Rev. R. P. Boyd. 18mo. Pp. 32, 2c.

Pray for the Holy Spirit. By the Rev. William Scribner. Part I —Why Christians should earnestly seek this priceless gift for themselves. Part II—The Duty of Seeking the Holy Spirit for the Church of Christ, and for this Fallen World. One volume. 12mo. Cloth, 75c.

The Westminster Shorter Catechism. A very beautiful edition from new plates. 5c.

In commemoration of the Two Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the completion of the Shorter Catechism by the Westminster Divines, this elegant edition of the Catechism is issued.

The Westminster Shorter Catechism with Proof Texts. Revised Edition. 16mo. Pp. 48 and cover, 5c.

A Primary Graduating Exercise. Prepared by Israel P. Black and Miss E. E. Hewitt. To be used when pupils are promoted from the Primary to the Junior Department. 5c.

Primary Department Certificate. Beautifully engraved Certificates to be given to the Primary scholars when graduating into a higher department. 3c. each, 25c. a dozen.

Religion in the Home. By Julia MacNair Wright. 16mo. 25c.

This is not an essay which might appear dry to some good people, but a bright story —"What Aunt Sophronia has to say of family piety." What she has to say is interesting and extremely pertinent and relevant, and then she says it in a way that will compel any one who begins to read the booklet to go through it to the close.

A Summary of Christian Doctrine. By Francis L. Patton, D. D., LL. D., President of Princeton University. 1 vol. 12mo. 25c.

This brilliant and incisive exposition of the great truths and established doctrines of our religion was originally prepared for the volume Preparing to Teach, and was designed for use in the instruction of Sabbath-School Teachers and Bible Classes.

It is now published in separate form, and it is hoped that it will find large use among the churches of our faith. There is nothing else of the sort to be compared with this keen and satisfying Summary of the Essentials of Christian Doctrine.

GERMAN. The Eldership. By Rev. Louis Voss. 18mo. Pp. 40, 3c.

SWEDISH. Presbyterianism for the People. By Rev. Robert P. Kerr, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 90, 10c.

Memorials of Foreign Missionaries of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. By WILLIAM RANKIN, late Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions. 12mo. $1.00, net; postage, 14c.

These records form a most interesting and stimulating chapter in the history of American Presbyterianism. The roll of our missionaries and the record of their labors is something that the Presbyterian Church has a right to be proud of.

Addresses Delivered at the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Reunion of the Old and New School Presbyterian Churches, Pittsburg, Pa., May 23, 1895. By President F. L. PATTON, Rev. HENRY M. BOOTH, D. D., LL. D., and Rev. WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, D. D., LL. D. Published by order of the General Assembly. 12mo. 75c.

Medical Missions. By J. G. KERR, M. D., LL. D. 1 vol., 12mo. 25c.

This pamphlet sets forth clearly and forcibly the importance of medical practice in connection with missionary work, its scriptural authority and the pressing need of it.

The Presbyterian System: Its Characteristics, Authority, and Obligation. By Rev. WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, D. D., LL. D. 1 vol., 18mo. 50c.

A concise statement of the characteristics of the Presbyterian System. It also indicates the extent of the authority of the system over ministers and members of the system as contained in the Westminster Standards.

Life's Byways and Waysides. By Rev. J. R. MILLER, D. D. 1 vol., 12mo. $1.00.

This new book, by Dr. Miller, is full of cheer, encouragement, and hope, and will give the reader fresh glimpses of Christ and make plainer the way of duty and the possibilities of the Christian life.

The Messages to the Seven Churches of Asia, being the Inaugural of the Enthroned King; A Beacon on the Oriental Shores. By Rev. THOMAS MURPHY, D. D., LL. D. 1 vol., 8vo. With map. $3.00.

"Dr. Murphy's volume presents these epistles to a careful reader with singular fulness and clearness. We have the surroundings and the history of the churches vividly set forth. The meaning and the application of the inspired messages are presented in a way that indicates wide and careful research, and in a spirit that is eminently devout and reverent. I can recommend this work without qualification to ministers, students, church officers, and to members of our churches of any denomination."—Rev. JOHN HALL, D. D., Fifth Ave. Presbyterian Church, New York.

For a Busy Day. A morning prayer for a busy or a troubled week-day. By Rev. J. R. MILLER, D. D. 1 vol., small 12mo. 40c.

It is based upon four verses of the 143d Psalm, beginning, "Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning, for in thee do I trust."

The Johannean Problem. By Rev. GEORGE W. GILMORE, A. M. 1 vol., 12mo. $1.00.

The Story of Marcus Whitman, and the First Protestant Mission in Oregon. By Rev. J. G. CRAIGHEAD, D. D. 1 vol., 12mo. $1.00.

Whitman's career was one of romantic interest, and the history of Home Missions contains no more inspiring chapter.

Persia, Western Missions. By Rev. S. G. WILSON. 1 vol., 12mo. With map and illustrations. $1.25.

Some years ago the Board published a book containing an account of the Eastern Missions of our Church in Persia. The Rev. Mr. S. G. Wilson has written a companion volume concerning the Western Missions of Persia, which should interest all lovers of missions.

His Great Ambition. By ANNA F. HECKMAN. 1 vol., 12mo. Illustrated. $1.50.

A plain, wholesome story of young life in the family, the school, and the world of work and struggle.

As Queer as She Could Be. By JESSIE E. WRIGHT. 1 vol., 12mo. Illustrated. $1.25.

We commend the book to those among our young women who are earnestly seeking to be helpers of their kind, and who are not afraid to do a good thing simply because it is "queer."

New Testament Conversions; or, The Manifoldness of Conversions. By Rev. W. C. ROBERTS, D. D. 12mo. Pp. 176, 75c.

Dr. Roberts draws from the conversions recorded in the New Testament the lesson that there is no one special set of experiences which must characterize a conversion in order that it should be genuine.

Guidance in Prayer. By M. E. H. 50c.

This book contains a number of forms of prayer appropriate to different occasions, which may be used as models, or guides, being typical examples of appropriate prayer.

Presbyterian C. E. Manual for 1898. By WILLIAM T. ELLIS. Long 18mo, 15c., net.

It contains the topics for weekly prayer-meetings, with brief hints for talks and many suggestions concerning the work of committees and societies. Daily readings are furnished for the entire year.

GENERAL PUBLICATIONS.

Altar of Earth, The. By Mrs. T. S. CHILDS. 16mo. Pp. 207, 50c.

The object of this little volume is to teach the meaning of the Old Testament sacrifices and their typical relation to Christ as pictures of his one great sacrifice.

Amusements and the Christian Life. By Rev. L. C. VASS. 16mo. Pp. 91, 50c.; paper, 10c.

The author describes the relation sustained by the early Christians to the popular amusements of the day, and the rejection of them for Christ's sake.

Annals of the Poor. By Rev. LEGH RICHMOND, A. M., late Rector of Turvey, Bedfordshire. 12mo. Pp. 215, 50c.; paper, 15c.

Legh Richmond's "Annals of the Poor" has become so generally known as to need no recommendation. It constitutes a cluster of Christian narratives which have an enduring value.

Anxious Inquirer, The. By JOHN ANGELL JAMES. 18mo. Pp. 228, 40c.; paper, 15c.

A work, the merit of which has been well attested. It has been singularly useful to those whose attention has been awakened to the great concern of salvation.

Aonio Paleario and His Friends. With a Revised Edition of "The Benefit of Christ's Death." By Rev. WM. M. BLACKBURN, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 323, 75c.

Paleario was a learned and holy man, whose beautiful life and martyr death powerfully aided the cause of Christ at the dawn of the Reformation. "The Benefit of Christ's Death," his great work, has been read by hundreds of thousands with large spiritual profit.

Apostolic Church, The. An Inquiry into its Organization and Government, particularly with Reference to the Claims of Episcopacy. By Rev. ALBERT BARNES, D. D. 18mo. Pp. 252, 50 cents.

The characteristic of the volume is that it is an appeal to the Bible as the only authority in the case, and as a sufficient authority to settle the question. The discussion is conducted with a manly and charitable spirit, and the argument is clear and conclusive.

This volume contains seventeen lectures on such characters as John Wyclif, Savonarola, John Huss, Martin Luther, Zwingli, Calvin, Cranmer and John Knox. The lectures are popular and vivacious and will make most interesting reading for all who care to know the story of the men whose lives and character are portrayed in them. It is well that all Protestant Christians should know something of the cost of the precious heritage they enjoy in so much peace.

Bible Truth, A Brief Compend of. By Rev. ARCHIBALD ALEXANDER, D. D. With a likeness of the author. 12mo. Pp. 207, 50c.; paper, 15c.

An admirable system of theology, in which is condensed the substance of ponderous tomes. It is written in the simple and lucid style of which Dr. Alexander was a master.

Bible Verified, The. By Rev. ANDREW W. ARCHIBALD, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 252, 75c.

"It is a treatise on the evidences of Christianity, but one might read on for many pages without the suggestion of a rigid argument. The easy way in which the reader is led from point to point, hardly sensible of the movement of thought, is quite admirable, and gives a freshness and attractiveness to the book, and should gain for it many readers Another thing very perceptible in this volume is that the author has read up to the times. The latest objections to the biblical records are considered. The doubts and denials which saturate the literature of our day are in the author's mind, and when not directly mentioned are indirectly answered. The defences of the faith are oftentimes brief, but they are always satisfactory."—Presbyterian, Phila.

FOR THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LIBRARY.

About Mexico, Past and Present. By HANNAH MORE JOHNSON. Fully Illustrated. 12mo. Pp. 410, $1 50.

This book goes back to the time of the ancient Toltecs and Aztecs, and then comes down through the bloody days of the Spanish conquest and the later history of the struggling republic to the present. The work of missions receives due notice. The narrative is based upon the most recent authorities.

Across the Desert. A Life of Moses, with Maps and Illustrations. By Rev. S M. CAMPBELL, D D. 12mo. Pp. 342, 75c.

It is thoroughly readable, sprightly, vivacious and suggestive. Thirty-two engravings and maps add much to the beauty and value of the book.

African Preacher, The. An authentic narrative By Rev. WILLIAM S. WHITE, D.D. 18mo. With two engravings. Pp. 139, 30c.; paper, 10c.

Africaner; or Missionary Trials. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 36, 25c.

Africaner, a savage African chief, was Moffat's first convert. Dr. A. T. Pierson says of his change of character: "It may be doubted whether, since Saul of Tarsus was converted, any one transformation has more effectually silenced the clamors of the skeptic and the infidel."

After the Failure; or, A Loss and a Gain. By ANNETTE LUCILLE NOBLE. 16mo. Illustrated. Pp. 336, $1.00.

It was a bad failure, which involved others besides the family of Mr. Barton. Doris was suddenly thrown out of a home of luxury and compelled to think and to act for herself. Her misfortune was the making of her. She met it calmly, with common sense and with readiness for hard work, and she grew in it into rich beauty and strength.

Alaskans, Among the. By Mrs. JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 352, 75c.

This book gives a great deal of most interesting matter relative to the wonderful country of Alaska, and also tells the thrilling story of the missionary work among its people.

Alaska, Life in. Letters of Mrs. EUGENE S WILLARD. Edited by her sister, Mrs. Eva McClintock. Fully Illustrated. 16mo Pp 384, 75c.

Mrs. Willard, the wife of one of our missionaries in Alaska, gives in her letters, a journal of the missionary's life, with its sacrifices, hardships and difficulties. The book will be read with pleasure by all who are interested in Alaska.

Allan's Fault. By MARTHA FARQUHARSON. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 412, 75c.

Allan's fault was heedless forgetfulness. How he and others suffered in consequence of it, and how he was enabled by the grace of God to conquer it, Martha Farquharson tells in her best style.

Almost a Nun. By Mrs. JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 398, 75c.

The wily efforts and subtle intrigues of Jesuits and papal relatives to win a young Protestant girl over to the papal faith, and with her her fortune, are laid open, together with the blessed results flowing from the consistent walk of one earnest-hearted, devout Christian.

Alypius of Tagaste. By Mrs. WEBB. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 379, 75c.

This volume presents to the reader, in a well-connected and most attractive narrative, views of the persecutions and struggles of the Christians in an early age of the Church, and exhibits the power of Christian faith to triumph over all opposition.

Among the Cannibals of New Guinea. Being the story of the New Guinea Mission of the London Missionary Society. By Rev. S. McFARLANE, LL. D. Illustrated. 12mo. Pp. 208, 75c.

Among the Trees at Elmridge. By ELLA RODMAN CHURCH. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 412, 75c.

In this delightful book Mrs. Church has done the same for trees that in her previous volumes she has done for birds, insects and flowers. All the common and many rare trees are discussed, and much interesting and valuable information is given concerning them, with many bright bits of story and many a pleasant fancy.

Amy Hall Books. A series of six volumes of stories by Mrs. MARY J. HILDEBURN, forming a miniature library for children. Illustrated. 18mo. $1.50. They are:

1. Amy Hall; or, Pleasing One's Self.
2. Carrie's Peaches; or, Forgive Your Enemies.
3. Daisy Delafield; or, The Lost Lamb.
4. Fannie's Rule; or, Better than Gold.
5. Miss Clare's Party; or, The Pattern Child.
6. Three Cents; or, Lettie's Way of Doing Good.

This is a dainty little library. Uniform in size and style, each book is complete in itself. The stories inculcate good lessons suitable for young children, the groundwork of which is based upon sound Bible teaching. They are just the thing for a holiday present.

Ancient Cities and Empires. Their Prophetic Doom Read in the Light of History and Modern Research. By Rev. E. H. GILLETT, D. D. Illustrated. 12mo. Pp. 302, $1.00.

Egypt, Nineveh and the Assyrian Empire, Babylon, Petra, Bashan, Moab and Ammon, Philistia and its Five Cities, Tyre, Sidon, Samaria, Damascus, Jerusalem and the Cities of Galilee, together with the Seven Churches of Asia, are all arrayed as witnesses for the divine authority of the sacred Scriptures. The work is well done, and brings the new facts presented by the discoveries of Layard, Robinson, Stanley, Porter and other recent travelers to bear on the elucidation of prophecy.

Anna Clayton; or, The Inquirer After Truth. By Rev. F. M. DIMMICK. 12mo. Pp. 427, 75c.

A popular treatise on the subject of baptism. It is well fitted to serve as a guide to the inquirer after the truth in regard to the nature, mode and proper subject of the baptismal ordinance, and will be read and appreciated where a more didactic treatise, however ably written, would not be read at all.

Annie's Gold Cross and its Mysterious Motto. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 267, 75 cents.

A well-told story of a family consisting of a father, mother and three children. Each child has a besetting sin, the struggles against which are faithfully described.

Arnold Family, The. By MARY C MILLER. Illustrated. 16mo Pp. 352, 75c.

They are books for the home circle as well as for the Sabbath-school library. Each book of the series is an independent volume, although the same characters run through all. In this first volume India is the mission field selected.

Archie and Pussy Stories. By Mrs. MARY J. HILDEBURN. Six volumes. 18mo. Twelve Illustrations. $1.50. The volumes of the series are:

1. Archie and Pussy.
2. Little Mischief.
3. The New Sled.
4. Mrs. Lee and Bertie.
5. Uncle Hugh's Horse.
6. Polly and her Friends.

Aspenridge. By JULIA CARRIE THOMPSON. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 368, 75c.

All the incidents are skillfully woven together, and the whole volume inculcates the nature and value of youthful consecration to God and his service.

At Edgeware. By E. W. C. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 352, $1.00.

This book is true to nature and to common experience. Much of it has to do with school-life and with the associations of pupils in their school days. Its scope widens, however, and takes in many scenes and characters. The teaching is strongly toward whatsoever things are true, just, honest, pure and lovely and toward quiet trust in God.

Aunt Betsy's Rule and How It Worked. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 396, 75c.

Full of clear, shrewd, practical wisdom. Showing the great importance of early and careful parental training in the way of securing a development of the moral powers.

Aunt Fanny's Home, and her Talks about God's Works. By Rev. WM. E. SCHENCK, D. D. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 252, 60c

"It is seldom we have seen the beautiful phenomena of common objects set forth with such clearness and ease as in the pages of 'Aunt Fanny's Home,' and we do not recollect ever to have seen these teachings of nature linked to the teachings of Revelation more happily than here."—S. S. Times.

Beggars of Holland and Grandees of Spain. A History of the Reformation in the Netherlands from A. D 1200 to 1578. By J. W. MEARS, D. D. Illustrated. 16mo Pp 477, 75c.

This valuable work gives a deeply-interesting account of the early struggles against Romanism, commencing before the time of Luther, following all along down through the reigns of Charles V. and Philip II., and ending with the thrilling narrative of the hardships and battles of the "Beggars of Holland" against the "Grandees of Spain."

Beginning and the End, The. By NELLIE GRAHAME. Illustrated. 16 mo. Pp 288, 60c.

This book depicts the beginning of an interesting career in unsettled principles and indulgence of pride and passion, and its end in humiliation and misery.

Bessie and I. By LILIAN F. WELLS. With Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 304, 75c.

The story of two girls in somewhat different circumstances who formed for one another a strong attachment.

Bessie Lane's Mistake; or, Wealth is not Happiness. By Mrs. MARY J HILDEBURN. Illustrated. 16mo Pp. 330, 75c.

Bessie's mistake consists in a desire to appropriate to herself all of the pleasures and gratifications which she sees or imagines. Her experiences are given at some length and the lesson is applicable to adults as well as youth, and is enforced in a practicable, sensible manner which will carry weight.

Bible Work in Bible Lands; or, Events in the History of the Syria Mission. By Rev. ISAAC BIRD. With Map and many Illustrations. 12mo. Pp. 432, 75c.

Blakes and the Blooms, The; or, What Can Be Done by Earnest Hands and Willing Hearts. By ERNEST GILMORE. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 288, 75c.

A bright, interesting story, containing many admirable suggestions for the beautifying of a home.

Both Sides; or, Jonathan and Absalom. By Rev. RUFUS S. GREEN, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 304, 75c.

There are parts of the Old Testament which are well-nigh unexplored territory even to many Bible-readers; in a certain sense this is true of the stories of Jonathan and Absalom. The title of his book explains the author's aim, which is to show one noble life and one ruined by its own folly.

Boys at Eastwick. By M. E. GRIFFITH. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 255, 75c.

In an attractive style this volume brings into strong relief the hatefulness of deceit in a boy, its tendency to draw the deceiver deeper and deeper into the meshes of sin, and to involve him in trouble and ruin at last unless it be forsaken and repented.

Boys of Riverton, The. By EMILY GILMORE. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 270, 75c.

A story of the way the minister's young wife helped in the church work by gathering the boys whom no one was caring for, and organizing them into a little society of their own for self-improvement.

Brighter Days; or, The Story of Katharine Jahns. By HELEN C. CHAPMAN. 16mo Illustrated. Pp. 288, 75c.

This book continues the story told in "Those Dark Days" and shows how the persecuted people of the Netherlands withstood their Spanish oppressors and secured religious as well as civil liberty.

Choh Lin, the Chinese Boy who became a Preacher. By Rev. J. A. DAVIS. Illustrated. 16mo Pp. 320, $1 00.

The book is really a biography; it contains much information concerning the home-life of the Chinese.

Chumbo's Hut; or, The Laguna School. By Mrs. MARGARET HOSMER. With Illustrations. 16mo Pp 232, 75c.

"Miss Herbert" gives in this book the story of her connection with the Laguna School in the neighborhood of San Francisco, the difficulties and discouragements which she had to meet and the success that rewarded her persevering efforts.

College Days of Calvin. By Rev. WILLIAM M. BLACKBURN, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 156, 60c

A pleasing presentation of the early student-life of the great reformer and profound theologian, John Calvin, in the colleges of Paris, Orleans and Bourges, between the years 1519 and 1530, including his conversion and religious experience.

Conrad and the House-Wolf. By JOY ALLISON. With illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 352, 75c.

The "house-wolf" was an old jug. The book is one of the best of temperance stories for boys and girls, showing the influence of faithful Christian character and the power of grace to save and to lift up. It is quite out of the ordinary line of temperance tales, and yet it is true to life.

Consecrated Anew. A Story of Christian Endeavor Work. By BELLE V. CHISHOLM. 16mo. Pp. 296, $1.00.

A delightful story of Christian Endeavor Work, weaving in the best methods of work in this society of young people.

Consequences; or, A Bowl of Punch and What Came of It. By Mrs A. K. DUNNING. With Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 392, 75c.

An effective temperance tale, by one of our most popular writers for the young. It paints in vivid colors the mischief that flowed from opening the way to a taste for intoxicating drinks.

Corea, Without and Within. By WILLIAM ELLIOTT GRIFFIS. Fully illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 314, $1.00.

The little peninsula-country is full of interest, and this book tells its story and describes its life and customs in a very delightful way. The work of the missionaries there has been greatly blessed.

See also, Korea from its Capital.

David Strong's Errand. By Mrs. NATHANIEL CONKLIN. 12mo. Pp. 378, $1.00.

The errand of David reminds us all the way through of another Son whom the Father sent to seek and find and bring back his lost children.

Deacon Gibbs' Enemy. By MRS. A. K. DUNNING. With Illustrations. 16mo. Pp 335, 75c.

This is a well-conceived, well-written temperance tale. Honest Deacon Gibbs has a subtle foe—a foe not recognized in his insidious movements. The deacon's boys, lacking their father's powers of resistance, fall before the treacherous enemy. The source of the sorrows that come upon the family is revealed at length, but too late to arrest the evils already inflicted.

Destruction of Jerusalem. The destruction of Jerusalem an irresistible proof of the divine origin of Christianity. 18mo. Pp. 108, 25c.

It is impossible to read this treatise without being struck by the proof which it affords of the truth of Christianity. The predictions of Christ in relation to the overthrow and final destruction of Jerusalem were so minutely fulfilled, that the conviction cannot be resisted that he was the Great Prophet.

Diamond Cross; or, The Story of Florence Clifton. By Miss H. B. McKeever "Charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly." Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 222, 50c.

Dorothy Dorchester. By Helen B. Williams. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 396, 75c.

It follows the fortune of two girls, first at home, then at boarding-school.

Dr. Grantley's Neighbors. By Ella Beckwith Keeney and Annette Lucille Noble. Illustrated 16mo. Pp. 320, 75c.

In a tale of more than ordinary power the influence of consistent Christian bearing, to break down the bitter prejudices of the infidel, "Dr. Grantley" is skillfully portrayed.

Dr. Trent's Cousin. By Helen B. Williams. 12mo. Pp. 384, $1.25.

The purpose of this story is to show the growth of Christian character along the line of Paul's wonderful picture of love in the thirteenth of First Corinthians. The characters are very real, not too saintly, and the struggle toward the ideal Christian life is very much like that which most of us have to make.

Drew Drake and His Nets. 12mo. Pp. 384, $1.25.

This is an intensely interesting story for boys and young men. It shows what an earnest young life may accomplish if truly consecrated to Christ and to His service. The motto of the book, "God's providence is my inheritance," is well illustrated in its pages.

Dutch Tiles; or, Loving Words about the Saviour. By Emma S. Babcock. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 171, 40c.

Written in a style perfectly adapted for reading to very young children, who will look with interest at its numerous pictures.

Early Watermelons; or, Alick never Afraid of the Truth. By Rev Wm. M. Blackburn, D D. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 144, 30c.

A tale showing the power and value of early training. The sketches are taken from incidents of real life, and are full of instruction to both young and old.

Early Western Life. By Mrs. J. B. Rideout. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 20 , 75c.

An unvarnished story of frontier-life. The scenes are graphically portrayed, and we learn much of the hardships to which early Western settlers were exposed.

Earthly Watchers at Heavenly Gates. By Rev. John Chester, D. D 16mo. Pp. 320, $1.00.

Dr Chester's book is in the form of a popular narrative. While showing the absurdity of the vulgar Spiritualism of our day, it also aims to show the nobleness of true Bible Spiritualism.

Elsie Gray. A Story of Every Day. By BELLE S. CRAGIN. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 384, $1.25.

The object of this book is to illustrate the discipline of life. The young people of the story have quite the average faults as we first meet them. As we go on we trace their growth and improvement in character. The book deals with real life in plain circumstances.

Eyes and Ears; or, How to See and Hear. By AUNT YEWROWNCKIE, Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 320, 75c.

Fairfax Girls, The. By Mrs. NATHANIEL CONKLIN. 12mo. Pp. 365, $1 25.

The story gives the lives of four women. It teaches the value of purpose in life and of true character, and suggests many ways of quiet usefulness and helpfulness.

Faithful to the End. A Story of Emile Cook's Life. Adapted from the French by LOUISE SEYMOUR HOUGHTON. 16mo. Pp. 279, 75c.

Mr. Cook was one of those rare spirits of whom but a few appear in any generation, whose lives are like a flame of heavenly fire in this world. His story reads like a romance, and as told in these pages cannot but enchain every reader to its close.

Farmer Tompkins and His Bibles. By Rev. WILLIS J. BEECHER, D.D. With illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 320, 75c.

Under the garb of a pleasing narrative, it discusses questions of vital importance with regard to the Bible, and meets prevailing forms of doubt and skepticism as to the inspiration, credibility and authenticity of the Scriptures.

Far Out on the Prairies. By Miss MARY BACKUS. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 320, $1.00.

"This is a Sunday-school library book of the very best kind. It is the story of two South Dakota children whose mother is a poor widow. The boy is full of pluck and manliness and his sister is sweetly helpful.

Fate of the Innocents, The. A Romance of the Crusades. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. 12mo. Pp 336, $1.25.

One of the most thrilling stories of middle-age history is that of the Crusade of the Children. In the present delightful volume the author has gathered all the available legends and traditions of this pathetic episode, and has wrought them into one connected account. A thread of romance runs through the whole and binds it together, giving it a tender and sustained interest.

First Khedive, The. Lessons in the Life of Joseph. By Rev. DANIEL MARCH, D. D. 12mo. Pp. 432, $1.25.

The wonderful story of Joseph is here told in graphic style, with the practical lessons to be learned from it. The book in passing gives much information about old Egypt, and is profusely illustrated with pictures from ancient Egyptian monuments.

From Dawn to Dark in Italy. A Tale of the Reformation in the Sixteenth Century. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 538, 75c.

Until lately we have known little about the Italian Reformers, their labors and their sufferings. This admirable volume will help us to know them and to appreciate them.

From Exile to Overthrow. A History of the Jews from the Babylonian Captivity to the Destruction of the Second Temple. By Rev. JOHN W MEARS, D D Illustrations 16mo Pp 470, 75c.

A much-needed and valuable work, bringing within the compass of a moderately sized volume the results of scholarly research. We know of no other book that so attractively and satisfactorily covers the ground.

Full Surrender, A. The Story of Kennedy Raymond. By ANNA S. REED. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 304, $1 00.

The story shows the influence and value of a true life in a home and in a community. The book is particularly good for older boys and young men.

Gathered In. By MRS. A. K. DUNNING. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 300, 75c.

This book completes the "Letting-Down-the-Bars Series." In it the clouds that hung over some of the children of godly parents are dispelled, and we see them safely "Gathered In" to the kingdom. The series is composed of

1. Letting Down the Bars.
2. Scattered.
3. In the Enemy's Country.
4. Through the Desert.
5. Gathered In.

Good Catch, A; or, Mrs. Emerson's Whaling-Cruise. By HELEN E. BROWN. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 300, 75c.

This pleasant little story is really a narrative of facts—based upon an actual journal kept by the wife of a whaling-captain.

Good Name a Goodly Heritage, A. By Mrs. MARY D. R. BOYD. With Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 240, 75c.

A capital book for young men.

Grace Westervelt; or, The Children of the Covenant. A Sequel to Theodore. 16mo. With Illustrations. Pp. 311, 75c.

In "Theodore" the author gave a masterly reply to the Baptist novel "Theodosia Ernest," as to the mode of baptism. In the present volume the same characters will be found, and infant baptism is discussed—its author, benefits and office in the church. It is a strong book, and full of interest. It should be in every Presbyterian family.

Graham's Laddie. By JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. 12mo. Pp. 334, $1.25.

An intensely interesting story of a child found on a wreck on the coast of Scotland and cared for by poor fisher-folk. After many experiences this "child of the good God," as he was called, is recognized by his own mother and restored to his old home.

Grandmother Morris's Bundle. Stories of the Reformation in Denmark, Scotland and Spain. By MARY C. MILLER. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 320, $1.00.

The stories about Denmark and Spain will be new to many who know something of the Reformation in other lands.

Greys, The. By ABBY ELDREDGE. 16mo. Illustrated. Pp. 216, 75c.

A temperance tale directed rather against those insidious effects of moderate drinking which often escape notice outside of the home than against drunkenness in its grosser forms. Told with effective quietness.

Griffin Alley Folk; or, Pearls from the Slums. By ERNEST GILMORE. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 256, $1 00.

This story leads us down into the wretched life of the lowest strata of society, but only to show us that there are "pearls" even in the "slums," and that the grace of Christ has such saving, transforming power that it can take human lives even from such ruin and despair and lift them up into beauty. The characters are well drawn.

Hand With the Keys, The. By KATE W. HAMILTON. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 304, $1.00.

A temperance story, in a sense, and yet not in a way to cover up its other teachings. It is a book for girls full of inspiration towards better life. It is intensely interesting from its beginning to its close.

Hastings, The; or, Finding the Shining Path. By HELEN B. WILLIAMS. 12mo Pp. 416, $1.25.

The line between worldly pleasures and faithfulness to the commands of Christ is clearly and vividly drawn.

Heir of Athole, The. A Story. By JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 320. $1.00.

Heroes of Bohemia; Huss, Jerome and Zisca. By Rev. JOHN W. MEARS, D. D With Map. 16mo. Pp. 350, 75c.

Dr. Mears is well known by his former works on kindred subjects, and this volume fully sustains his reputation. We know no other work that gives within so short a compass so much that is really valuable in the lives of the three heroes whose names stand on the title-page.

Hidden Sunbeams. Real Incidents in Frontier Life in Western New York. By Rev. S. R SCOFIELD. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 304, $1.00.

We have in these pages vivid pictures of the life of the early settlers in the State of New York. The aim of the book is not, however, to give us mere historical sketches: the incidents form but the frame-work of an intensely interesting soul-history.

Hints to Young Men. By Rev. JOHN LEYBURN, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 184, 50c.

History of the Covenanters in Scotland. 2 vols. 18mo. $1.00.

Presbyterians should make themselves acquainted with the prelatic persecutions of their Scottish forefathers during the reigns of Charles I. and Charles II., who were alike tyrants of the worst grade. These two volumes embrace the material facts and narratives of much larger histories.

Holy War, The. By JOHN BUNYAN. 12mo Pp. 319, 75c.

Lord Macaulay has told us that if there were no Pilgrim's Progress, The Holy War would be the best allegory that ever was written.

Home-Animals. By MRS. ELLA RODMAN CHURCH. Fully illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 344, $1.00.

In this volume of the "Elmridge Series" we learn many interesting things about some very familiar animals, such as horses, dogs, cows, chickens, geese, ducks, etc.

Honest Jim Series. By MARTHA FARQUHARSON. Six volumes. 32mo. Twelve illustrations. $1.50.

Little volumes, in very simple style, and for very young readers, from a practiced pen. The titles of the books are:

1. Honest Jim.
2. Contented Jim.
3. How Jim did it.
4. Th Twin Babies.
5. Noll, the Beggar Boy.
6. Noll in the Country.

House That Jack Built, The. By KATE W HAMILTON. Four illustrations. 16mo Pp. 3?8, 75c.

A wisely-told temperance tale, in which an orphaned family, by adding liquor-selling to the business of a country store, increases its business, but at a fearful cost to seller and buyer.

How It Came About. By Mrs. A. K. DUNNING. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 204, 60c.

In this book we learn what a helpless invalid child can do. Among other good points from the child's life and work was the founding of a "home for incurables." The story will prove an inspiration to many a hidden life.

Hungry Little Lamb, A. By HELEN E. BROWN. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 336, $1.00.

This is a simple story simply told, which will interest quite young children, as its story is natural and true to life. At the same time, it is a book which will prove helpful and very suggestive to older people, especially to teachers and to those who are interested in work among the children and among the poor in the mission fields of our thickly populated cities.

Illustrations of the Shorter Catechism for Children and Youth. By Rev. JONATHAN CROSS. Two volumes. 18mo. $1 00.

In these volumes the author gives first the question and answer of the Catechism, then proof-texts, then a short expositiou, then practical remarks and illustrations, anecdotes and incidents adapted to impress the truth.

Influence. By F. J. P. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 372, 75c.

Tracing the power, seen only in its effects, exerted by brothers and sisters, parents and children and friends over each other, the author seeks to deepen the sense of accountability to man and to God in the minds of those who read the story of the Clevelands and Sherwins.

In Geneva, England and France. By MARY C. MILLER. Illustrated. 16mo Pp. 352, 75c.

This volume tells the story of the Reformation in Geneva, England and France. Here we learn of the Waldensians, of John Wickliffe, of Tyndale, of Cranmer, and much of the interesting narrative of the life of John Calvin, whose memory Presbyterians honor so highly. Our young people should study such books that they may know the origin of their own Church.

In the Enemy's Country. By Mrs. A. K. DUNNING. Illustrations. 16mo. Pp 256, 75c.

In the Hospital at Elmridge. By Mrs ELLA RODMAN CHURCH. Fully Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 288, 75c.

Inquisition, History of the, from its Establishment to the Present Time. By WILLIAM SIME. With two engravings. 16mo. Pp. 233, 50c.

The present volume is derived from the most authentic sources, and may be relied on for its general accuracy.

Jacob's Heiress. By ANNETTE L NOBLE. 16mo. Pp 310, $1.25.

A story of Holland in the latter part of the sixteenth century. It is full of lively interest, as the materials for it were gathered by the author chiefly on the ground.

Jessica's First Prayer and Jessica's Mother. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 180, 30c.

A charming narrative relating the history of a poor little outcast girl of London, the child of a drunken beggar woman, who was reclaimed and converted under kindly Christian influences. It is a most pathetic tale, and should teach Christian people that none are beyond the power of the gospel to elevate and save.

Judge Greene's Note-Book. By MARY C. MILLER. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 312, $1.00.

A lively narrative of scenes abroad, thrilling tales of the sufferings of the witnesses for the truth in England and France, reminiscences of Geneva, Zurich and Basle, descriptions of the sights of modern Rome and of the places in Germany where Protestantism was born and grew to be a power in Europe.

Kenneth Forbes; or, Fourteen Ways of Studying the Bible. 16mo. Pp. 336, 75c.

Knox, John, Life of, the Scottish Reformer. 18mo. Pp. 224, 40c.

An abridgment of the larger work of McCrie.

Korea From Its Capital; with a Chapter on Missions. By Rev. GEORGE W. GILMORE, A. M. Twenty-five illustrations. 12mo. Pp. 328, $1.25.

Mr. Gilmore had exceptional opportunities for becoming acquainted with the people and their life, as he dwelt among them in a way which enabled him to mingle freely with all classes and to see what was to be seen. The illustrations are reproduced from photographs, and are helpful to a comprehension of the descriptions. This book and Mr. Griffis' Corea are unsurpassed as popular descriptions of this little known land, now one of the most interesting of our mission fields.

Learn to Say No; or, The City Apprentice. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 122, 30c.

A record of the actual experiences, temptations, difficulties and dangers of an apprentice in an Eastern city, now a Presbyterian minister. This book would be invaluable as a gift to any lad away from his parents' roof.

Leaves and Fruit. By M. E. GRIFFITH. 16mo. With Illustrations. Pp. 368, 75c.

It contrasts the steady progress of a conscientious boy, who perseveres in all that he undertakes, with the failures of a friend, brilliantly gifted but unstable.

Letting Down the Bars. By Mrs. A. K. DUNNING. Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 272, 75c.

Lenchen's Brother and The Platzbacker of Plauen. Translated from the German of Gustave Nieritz by MARY E. IRELAND. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 314, $1.00.

Leng Tso, the Chinese Bible-Woman. A Sequel to "The Chinese Slave-Girl." By Rev. J. A. DAVIS. 16mo. Illustrations. Pp. 416, $1.25.

This volume tells the story of a Chinese Bible-woman who went about the country carrying Christ's gospel into the homes of the people. A thread of romance runs through the book, linking it with "The Chinese Slave-Girl," whose heroine is also the heroine of this story.

Life by the Ganges; or, Faith and Victory. By Mrs. MULLENS. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 288, 75c.

A tale of thrilling interest, in which the author lifts the veil from a heathen household, and shows the reader the terrible conflicts through which the Hindoo must pass to the light of Christianity. Mrs. Mullens opened the way for the "Zenana Missions," and wrote as only one can who is admitted to the privacy of Hindoo homes.

Life of John Howard, the Philanthropist. Embracing an account of his great and successful labors in ameliorating the condition of affairs in European jails. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp 156, 30c.

Humanity owes a debt of gratitude to this good man; and his memoir can scarcely be read by any one without imbibing some of his spirit.

Little Books for Little Readers. Large 32mo. Illustrations. $1.00.

A library of six true stories for the youngest readers, from the pen of Martha Farquharson. Their titles are:

1. The White Dress.
2. The Broken Basket.
3. Jamie by the Lake.
4. Bertie Page.
5. Amy and Her Kitten.
6. Jane Hart.

Little Hans and His Bible-Leaf. Translated from the German of Franz Hoffman by Louise Seymour Houghton. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 252, 75c.

This interesting story from the German is designed to show the power of God's word—a single Bible-leaf in this case—in changing character. The incidents are thrilling and the lessons well worth learning. It is particularly a book for boys.

Little Neighbors at Elmridge. By ELLA RODMAN CHURCH. Fully illustrated. 16mo. Pp 352, 75c.

Loving Jesus Early. A True Life. 18mo. Pp. 164, 30c.

A sweet narrative of a little girl's life which was early devoted to Jesus. The story is told by the mother, with the ever-recurring memories of the child's loving words and ways.

Mabel's Summer in the Himalayas. By Mrs. HELEN H. HOLCOMB. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 192, 60c.

This pleasant little book takes us through a child's experiences for a summer in the Himalayas, and gives us many glimpses into the life and customs of India from the childhood side.

Man with Two Shadows, The. By ERNEST HOVEN. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 203, 60c.

The shadows cast were shadows of unbelief and soul-darkness. But the shadows were dispelled by the hand of God leading to a closer scrutiny of their sources and opening the doubter's eyes to discern spiritual things.

Manuscript Man, The. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 246, 75c.

A picture of life in the western part of Ireland. A few rays of gospel light are introduced, into the midst of a community plunged into papal darkness, superstition and bigotry. It is an excellent book to circulate among Romanists.

Margaret Gordon; or, Can I Forgive? By Mrs. S. A. MYERS. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 479, 75c.

The book is founded upon facts drawn carefully from personal experience, and is full of important suggestions in regard to the Christian life.

Marion's Temptation; or, Abiding in Christ. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 154, 60c.

Marion's temptation was to be drawn away from a close walk with Christ by the attractions of worldliness. She is brought back, but at a frightful cost, and her after-life shows a lovely picture of a true Christian girl.

Martyrs of the Mutiny; or, Trials and Triumphs of Christians in the Sepoy Rebellion in India. 18mo. Pp. 234, 50c.

Evidence is here furnished that Christianity has not lost its power, and that it can make even the timid Hindoo a bold confessor of Christ at the cost of life itself.

Martyrs of the Reformation. D'Aubigné's Martyrs of the Reformation. With an introduction. By Rev. C. H. A. BULKLEY, D. D. 12mo. Pp. 512, $1.00.

The personal sketches contained in this volume have been culled by Dr. Bulkley from D'Aubigné's "History of the Reformation." They constitute a notable gallery of religious portraits, which for vivid coloring and personal verisimilitude are unsurpassed. Their reading should give nerve and fire to our too cool religious emotions.

Maurizio's Boyhood; or, All for Christ. A Tale of Modern Martyrdom. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. 16mo. Pp. 272, 75c.

All the incidents of this story are real occurrences. The book is an account of missionary work in Italy in most recent days. We learn much of the intolerant spirit of the church of Rome, and we see the power of the truth of Christ's gospel.

May Castleton's Mission. "Charity suffereth long and is kind." By Miss H. B. MCKEEVER. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 228, 60c.

A companion to the "Diamond Cross," and by the same author.

Michal Ellis's Text. A Story for Girls. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Illustrated. 16mo Pp. 320, 75c.

Michal's "Text" was, "Even Christ pleased not himself." This was the copy at the top of the page which all her life she was trying to write. The story is very interesting and full of help and inspiration for all who really want to attain the Christlike life.

Missionary Enterprises in the South Sea Islands. By JOHN WILLIAMS. With an Introduction by Rev. WILLIAM P. BREED, D. D. Illustrations. 12mo. Pp. 416, $1.25.

This narrative of the missionary work of John Williams reads like a new Acts of the Apostles. It is full of thrilling heroisms and wonderful successes. It is well in these days of missionary enthusiasm to go back and read again the record of such experiences.

Miss Kitty. By HELEN B WILLIAMS. 12mo Pp. 365, $1.25.

The book is the story of a young girl, from the age of sixteen onward, through the experiences of home life and school life. Miss Kitty is a quite ordinary girl. She is not brilliant. She is not over saintly. She is not so fine as to discourage other girls, even commonplace girls, who may read her story. They will find her very much like themselves.

Miss Ruth and Miss Susan; or, The Story of the Spruce Ledge. By HELEN E. CHAPMAN. 10mo. Illustrated. Pp. 287, 75 cents

Two old maiden-ladies give name to the book, which aims to illustrate the blessedness of a good and true life, though it be plain and lowly, in contrast with the false hollowness of a life of wrong-doing and deceit, though for a time it may seem to be very successful.

Mr. Arnold's Stories. Talks about the Reformation in Germany By MARY C. MILLER. Illustrated. 12mo. Pp. 342, 75c.

In this book Miss Miller notes the first glimmerings of Reformation-light in the British Islands, and then takes up the youth and conversion of Martin Luther and follows the story of the life and work of this great apostle of the gospel in Germany, ending with the closing scenes in his life and peaceful death.

Mr. Darwing's Daughter.. By HELEN B. WILLIAMS. 12mo. Pp. 365, $1.25.

The lesson of the book is not how a girl may live a brilliant life, but how a girl in the hard conditions in which Bertha lived can make something of her life and grow continually in spiritual beauty and in moral strength and stature, emerging at last from her long discipline a noble woman.

Mr. John and His Boys. By M. L. WILDER. 12mo. Pp. 444, $1.25.

It is the narrative of an experiment with a party of neglected boys, and tells first of their condition of homeles ness and friendlessness, and then describes the effort that was made for their rescue. The pictures are not overdrawn, and the results are not beyond those which might reasonably be expected from the methods of training and elevation adopted.

Mrs. Winchester's Kitchen; or, the One Talent Improved. By Mrs. HELEN E. BROWN. Illustrated, 16mo. Pp. 272, 75c.

It is a book Christian mothers may read with real profit, as they will be sure to get from it many suggestions as to homely yet effective ways of doing good.

Mr. Wallingford's Mistake. By Mrs. A. K. DUNNING. 16mo. Pp. 246, 75c.

A temperance tale that does not shock by extravagance nor disgust by vulgarity.

Mysie's Work and How She Did It. By MARTHA FARQUHARSON. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 360, 75c.

An interesting and instructive record of patient and self denying perseverance in duty. Mysie's work, though trying, was well and cheerfully done, and her example is worthy of imitation.

New York Bible-Woman, The. By Mrs. JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 279, 75c.

It takes us to the homes of the poor and degraded in our commercial metropolis, and, whilst painting their sorrows, their sins and their woes, suggests what may be done to sooth their sorrows and reform them. The bitter streams that flow from intemperance are brought vividly to light.

New York Needle-Woman, The; or, Elsie's Stars. By Mrs. JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 254, 75c.

A beautiful picture of Christian work where such work is most needed. By the daily efforts of one poor needle-woman several families are reclaimed from their degraded and vicious associations, and ignorant children are taught and helped upward in paths of knowledge and respectability.

Not Exactly So. By ZELL. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 240, 60c.

The little girl who figures in this story brought many sorrows upon herself and others by a habit of exaggeration, but she was at last led to see its sinfulness, and through divine aid was enabled to overcome it.

Oak-Mot. By Rev. WILLIAM M. BAKER. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 224, 60c.

A book for young readers which they will find very attractive. It takes us to the prairies of Texas, and introduces us to a variety of strange scenes and characters drawn from nature and from real occurrences in that State.

Old Portmanteau. By KATE W. HAMILTON. With Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 277, 75c.

A well-told temperance tale. The author impressively shows the efficacy of the religion of the cross in conquering the vice of intemperance and thoroughly reforming the inebriate.

Olympia Morata. From the French of M. Jules Bonnet. Translated by Grace Patterson. 16mo Pp 284, 75c.

The name of Olympia Morata is one that is well worth being revived. She lived in the sixteenth century, and her story takes us back to the time of two great movements, the Renaissance and the Reformation, with both of which the life of this young woman was closely connected.

Our George; or, How to Grow Wise. By Mrs HELEN E. BROWN. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 208, 75c.

George is quite a small boy, and we have some very bright and interesting chapters about his early experiences and the processes of his education. The most interesting book in the world is the opening life of a little child.

Our Girls at Castlewood. By Mrs. C. N. WILDER. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 334, $1.00.

This is the story of a party of bright young city-girls spending their summer vacation in a quiet country place. They become possessed of a desire to be helpful, and in the little church they find abundant opportunity to do good. Certain poor families also are the better for their stay. The girls themselves are interesting as character studies.

Outside the Gate. By Miss MARY C. MILLER. 16mo. Four Illustrations. Pp. 336, 75c.

A well-written book, clear and sprightly in style, showing by the story of the experiences of a bright colored boy how to enter in at the gate.

Palissy the Potter. A True Tale. By C. L. BRIGHTWELL. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 167, 75c.

The story of the life, the struggles, the devotion, the success, the persecution and the death of this noble man cannot be read without emotion. The facts are drawn from records left by himself and by contemporary writers.

Paul Morris. By MARY C. MILLER. 16mo. Illustrated. Pp. 320, 75c.

Persia: Eastern Mission. By Rev. JAMES BASSETT, author of "Persia: Land of the Imams." Illustrated. 12mo. Pp. 353, $1.25.

This is a narrative of the founding and fortunes of the Eastern Persian Mission, with a sketch of the versions of the Bible and Christian Literature in the Persian and Persian-Turkish languages. All interested in missions will specially enjoy the book. It is illustrated by twenty-five photographs of persons and places.

11 Harry at Aunt Jane's.
12 Harry and his Cousins.

Philip St. John. By Mrs. MARY E. METHENY. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 300, $1.00.

This is an interesting story of a worldly young man who in illness in India fell into the care of a missionary's family and became thoroughly converted to a most unworldly Christian life, and then, returning devoted himself to good work in the great city of his home.

Pilgrim's Progress, The. By JOHN BUNYAN. 12mo. Pp. 345, 75c.

This new edition of Bunyan's immortal work is one of the most attractive that has ever been issued.

Plain Woman's Story, A. By JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. 16mo. Pp. 320, $1.00.

This story of Joan Hazzard's project and how it worked out will prove not only intensely interesting reading, but full of suggestions of a most practical kind. While adapted for library and home reading, the book has also its wise hints for philanthropists. All interested in Christian work in our great cities will profit through the reading of its chapters.

Poacher's Daughter, The. Translated from the French by ANNE H. GILES. 16mo. Illustrated. Pp. 288, 75c.

This charming story illustrates the power of simple and genuine truth in the life of a child. The book is invaluable as showing that it is possible in the midst of the most adverse influences for the soul to grow up beautiful and unmarred.

Professor's Girls, The. By ANNETTE LUCILLE NOBLE. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 384, $1.25.

Pomponia; or, The Gospel in Cæsar's Household. By Mrs. WEBB. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 480, 75c.

The scene is laid partly in Britain and partly in the city of Rome while the Apostle Paul was still living. The author depicts in vivid colors the difficulties and the triumphs of early Christianity in the courts of Tiberius Cæsar and of Nero.

Poor Nicholas; or, The Man in the Blue Coat. By Mrs. SARAH A. MYERS. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 316, 60c.

The narrative of a little boy and his pious mother, residing at Munich, in Bavaria, who passed through severe trials and straits, and were ultimately befriended by the good king, Maximilian Joseph.

Rag Fair and May Fair. The Story of Me and Benje. By JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. 16mo. Pp. 302, $1.00.

The pictures are realistic, the writer having studied on the spot the scenes in East London amid which her story is laid and the life it depicts. The author shows throughout her story the better side of humanity—the people who make something of themselves in spite of their tremendous disadvantages.

Ragweed. A west-world story. By JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. 16mo. Pp. 318, $1.25.

This is a story of plain, simple people, of common ways and common things, but these are the ways and the people that make up the bulk of the world and its life.

Ralph Weston's Secret; or, Unto the Fourth Generation. By C. S. M. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 248, 75c.

The reading of this narrative will solemnly warn the young—girls not less than boys—against yielding to the temptation to begin the course that ends in the degrading sin of intemperance.

Rambles Among Insects. By Rev. SAMUEL FINDLEY, D. D. Seventy Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 278, 75c.

The author introduces his readers to near neighbors, of whose wonderful lives and deeds they now have little idea. Whilst popularizing his theme so as to interest the young, he has sought scientific accuracy in every statement Lessons of thrift, courage, forethought and piety are ingeniously drawn from the habits of insects and applied with pertinency.

Rescued from the Street. A story for Boys. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 280, 75c.

One of the most serious problems of modern Christian work is city evangelization—how to reach the neglected poor. Here we have a book in the line of the solution of this problem.

Rhoda Armorer. The Story of a Girl who Became a Missionary. By C. J. G. 16mo. Pp. 302, $1.00.

Richard Rogers, Christian. By ALICE BARBER MCCONNELL. 16mo. Pp. 264, $1.00.

An interesting story of real home mission work on the frontier. The home missionaries whose work is described, are not those sent out by the Board, but Christian men and women living and doing their daily work in the midst of ungodly influences which they leaven with their sweet life.

Ride Through Palestine, The. Illustrated by one hundred and eighty-four Maps and Engravings. By Rev. JOHN W DULLES, D.D. 12mo. Pp 528, $1.25.

A book for popular reading, in which the narrative of a personal tour through Palestine is made to throw light upon the Bible and to give reality to its history and teachings. Numerous truthful illustrations aid the text in bringing the Holy Land as it is in a life-like manner to the reader's apprehension.

Roderick Granger; The Best Fellow in the World. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 285, 75c.

This is a story of a bright lad whose generosity, making him "the best fellow in the world," was his bane and well-nigh became his ruin. The power of family love—a sister's love in particular—appears in restraining and saving the brother from his peril.

Roland's Daughter. A Nineteenth Century Maiden. By Mrs. JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. 12mo. Pp. 316, $1.25.

We meet her at the age of thirteen, and at once she exhibits the marks of a strong character. First in a school, and later in her own father's home, we find the same fine traits brought out into more beauty by hardship and suffering and care.

Rosa. Translated from the French of Madame de Pressensé. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 366, 75c.

The narrative of the life of a little French girl who was committed to an aunt in the country, and through a series of happy providences was led to a saving knowledge of Christ. She then in turn became the means of leading her aunt to the feet of the blessed Saviour.

Rose Delaney's Secret; or, "Charity Envieth Not." By Miss H. B MCKEEVER. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 216. 60c.

Ruthie's Story. By CHARLES STEDMAN NEWHALL. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 187, 75c.

This little book is the story of Jesus told by one child to other children. It contains more than forty illustrations, which will help to make the story real to the children. It is particularly suitable as a gift to a child at Christmas time.

Ruth Irving, M. D. By ALICE A. BARBER. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 336, $1.00.

The scene is laid in the West—Omaha—and we have vivid pictures of the life in that city in days a little earlier than the present. It is a story of woman's struggles with adversity, sorrow, temptation and care.

Ryhoves of Antwerp, The. By ANNETTE LUCILLE NOBLE. 16mo. Pp 312, $1.00

A historical tale, the scenes of which are laid chiefly at Nürnberg and Antwerp, and the characters illustrate the persecutions suffered by Lutherans in Germany and Holland during the 16th century.

Sara Jane, A Girl of One Talent. By JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 320, $1.00.

Mrs. Wright has taught her lesson well in this book. Her "girl of one talent" certainly makes full use of her talent, and the result shows how much can be done in this world with a single talent and that a plain and very commonplace one, if it is used wisely, energetically and cheerfully.

Scattered. By Mrs. A. K. DUNNING. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 272, 75c.

Shoe-Binders of New York; or, Fields White to the Harvest. By Mrs J. MCNAIR WRIGHT Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 237, 75c.

A picture of life in New York among some of its most wretched scenes, and the good that may be done by earnest Christian sympathy and effort. The whole book most affectingly shows how much may be accomplished where there is a true heart set, Jesus like, upon going about and doing good.

Siam and Laos, as Seen by our American Missionaries. Fully Illustrated 12mo Pp 552, $1 50

It is a handbook of the country, a guide-book, a missionary report and a book of travels combined. All who take any interest in these people will be delighted to have such an admirable and stimulating treatise. It is profusely illustrated with engravings.

Silas Gower's Daughters. By ANNETTE LUCILLE NOBLE. 16mo. Four Illustrations. Pp. 320, 75c.

We have in this volume an illustration of the little leaven leavening the lump. Into a rough, selfish home comes the influence of the gospel, first touching a sensitive girl, and then reaching, one after another, every member of the household.

Silent Man's Legacy, The. By ANNETTE L. NOBLE. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 379, $1.00.

The book is specially adapted to young girls during and after the school-age. Its lessons are healthful and stimulating.

Single Strand, A; or, A Year at Mount Holyoke Seminary. By ANNA S. REED. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 315, $1.00.

The lessons of this book are toward the deepening of the earnestness and the intensifying of the consecration of Christian young people.

Six Years on the Border; or, Sketches on Frontier Life. By Mrs. J. B. RIDEOUT. Illustrated. 1 mo. Pp. 221, 75c.

This is a series of vivid pictures of home-missionary work on our Western frontier, showing some of the hardships and discouragments of home missionaries in those fields. It will open the eyes of some of our comfortable Christian people at home to read these unvarnished sketches.

Soldier's Ward, The; or, Saved for Martyrdom. Translated from the Dutch of E. Gerdes By Rev. DANIEL VAN PELT. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 410, $1.00.

It introduces us to some of the practices and machinations of the Jesuits, and gives us glimpses of the sufferings caused by this order. The interest centres in Antoine Moreau, whose character is not wholly fictitious. After suffering under the power of the Inquisition, Antoine is finally released from prison by his friends, but only to die in their hands shortly after.

Some Useful Animals. By ELLA RODMAN CHURCH. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 300, $1.00.

Spensers, The; or, Chronicles of a Country Hamlet. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp 396, 75c.

Its object is to show what may be done in an unpretending way by unambitious and untalented persons, in the common course of every-day life, to win souls to Christ.

Stepmother's Recompense, The; or, Mrs. Ellerton's Trials and Rewards. By NELLIE GRAHAME. 16mo. Pp. 283, 75c.

The trials and rewards of an accomplished Christian lady who nobly and successfully discharged her whole duty in one of the most delicate and difficult relations of life are here portrayed most beautifully and graphically.

Stories about Africa. A Farewell Address to Sunday-scholars. By Rev. ROBERT MOFFAT. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 72, 25c.

In this farewell talk the author tells many interesting tales of personal adventure, and describes in a graphic style the manners and habits of the people among whom he so long labored.

Stories for the Little Ones. By NELLIE GRAHAME. Illustrated. 18mo. $ .50.

1 Home Missionary.
2 Contrast.
3 The Lion's Den.
4 The Golden Rule.
5 Stray Lambs.
6 The Watchful Eye.
7 Carrie's Hard Lesson.
8 Alice Townsend's Garden.
9 Shining Light.
10 The Casket of Gems.

Ten small books, charmingly written and very instructive. They are put up in a small box, and are just the thing for young children.

Story of a Dedicated Life, The. By Rev. JAMES C. MOFFAT, D. D. 12mo. Pp. 272, 75c.

The subject of the story is Dr. Joseph Owen, one of the earlier missionaries of the Presbyterian Board in Northern India. For twenty-eight years, from 1841 to 1869, he was in charge of the mission centering in Allahabad. A very interesting portion of the book is the description of the Sepoy mutiny by one who passed through it.

Story of Madagascar. By Rev. JOHN W. MEARS, D. D. Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 313,. 75c.

The "Story of Madagascar," with all the interest of a romance, is but the narrative of the facts of God's wonderful work in that imperial island. The developments of the spread of Christianity there form a splendid contrast to the dark days in which its power was shown in the faithfulness unto fetters and death of its early martyrs.

Story of a Pocket Bible. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 472, 75c.

A work in which the history and adventures of a pocket Bible are given in such a way as to illustrate the power of revelation to affect and govern the consciences and lives of men.

Sundays at the Dobsons', Pen Pictures of; or, The Command and the Blessing. By Mrs. A. K. DUNNING. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 320, $1.00.

This is a book on the Sabbath. In the first chapter we have a picture of the Puritan Sabbath—the Sabbath as it was kept in earlier New England; in the second we are shown the secret of rest in action; the third and fourth illustrate the necessity of rest for the mind and for the body; in the closing chapters we have the ideal Sabbath pictured.

Sunday Evenings at Elmridge. By Mrs. ELLA RODMAN CHURCH. Fully illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 304, 75c.

Sunday Evenings at Northcourt. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 248, 75c.

A very instructive volume, containing a narrative of Sabbath evening conversations on religious experience, many of them illustrated by narratives from real life.

Sunrise Kingdom, The; or, Life and Scenes in Japan, and Woman's Work for Woman there. By Mrs. D. CARROTHERS. With illustrations. 12mo. Pp. 408, $1.00.

A picture of seven years of missionary life in Japan. The author had unusual opportunities of gaining access to the homes and hearts of this interesting people, and diligently improved them.

Sunshine Mary. By ALIDA W. GRAVES. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 300, 75 cents.

This book pictures the life of a bright young girl, who has been taught of God to rest in him and be at peace, so that her life is full of sunshine. It is an attractive picture, and will incite and help others to walk in the joy of the Lord.

Superintendent's Addresses. A Superintendent's Addresses to the Children of his Sabbath school. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 156, 30c.

Take Care of the Boys. By ZELL. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 396, 75c.

An ingenious and skillful story, showing how social influences, particularly the influence of educated and attractive young women, may be used in preventing boys from being led astray by evil companions.

Talk to Little Children. By Rev. DANIEL BAKER, D. D., of Texas. 18mo. With three engravings. Pp. 68, 25c.

Tangles and Corners in the Life of Kezzie Driscoll. By KATE W. HAMILTON. Illustrated 16mo. Pp. 335, 75c.

Kezzie Driscoll is the Christian daughter of a Christian man, but there is little of the light and strength of godliness in her home. She desires to do right, but she finds moral "tangles" which she cannot unravel. In the progress of her life God leads her to a clear resting in him for wisdom, and her path grows clear and her footsteps firm.

Talks by the Seashore. By ELLA RODMAN CHURCH. Fully Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 384, 75c.

Tennesseean in Persia. Being Scenes and Incidents in the Life of Samuel Audley Rhea. By Rev. DWIGHT W. MARSH, for Ten Years Missionary in Mosul. Illustrated. 12mo. Pp. 381, $1.00.

Mr. Rhea labored as a missionary in some of the most interesting, because least known, portions of Asia. A man of fine culture, large ability and eminent piety, the story of his life is one of unusual interest as well as unusual profitableness. His letters and journals from which this volume is made up, are replete with valuable information concerning the strange countries in which the young Tennesseean sojourned.

Terence O'Dowd; or, Romanism To-Day. An Irish Story founded on Facts. By TOM O'SHAUGHNESSY. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 350, $1.00.

The story carries us right into the heart of the Irish Roman Catholic home-life and church-life, and we see in vivid pictures the actual facts as they are occurring to-day in that strange, sad land. The author announces his purpose to be to instruct and awaken the people of the Protestant churches to a clearer conception of nineteenth-century Romanism in countries where its power is uncontrolled.

Their Married Lives; or, The Realities of Domestic Life. Translated and adapted from the French. By LOUISE SEYMOUR HOUGHTON. 12mo. Pp. 368, 75c.

In the form of narrative the writer gives suggestions with regard to marriage and married life that are wise, tender and truly Christian. It bears closely upon many of the questions of woman's sphere and relations, and shows much insight into character and depths of religious experience. The fear of the Lord, Christ in the house, all devoted to Christ are the watchwords of the story.

Theodore. A Story About Baptism. By a True Baptist. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 374, 75c.

A book which clothes with all the interest of a romance the most thorough discussion of the mode of baptism. It takes up the characters of a popular Baptist tale and gives a sequel to their history, which throws light upon the teachings of the Bible with regard to this much mooted subject. The aim of the author is bold, but fully sustained.

Those Dark Days; or, The Diaries of Two Netherland Girls. By HELEN C. CHAPMAN. Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 288, 75c.

A story of the times of Prince William of Orange, depicting the sufferings of the Protestants from the bitter persecutions of the Spaniards under Alva. The story is given in the form of the diaries of two girls, yet is based upon historic facts.

Three Girls in Italy; or, Gesu Basta. A Story for Girls. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. With illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 304, 75c.

Three girls go to Italy, and we have interesting incidents of foreign travel which will prove instructive.

Through the Desert. By Mrs. A. K. DUNNING. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 272, 75c.

The fruits of wandering in the deserts of trial and disappointment.

Through the Wilderness. By MARY E. WILLARD. Four illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 207, 60c.

"Through the wilderness of sorrow and trouble lies the way to the Canaan of love, peace, joy and eternal rest," is the motto and the key to the book. It is the history of a minister's widow and children. Though giving scenes in time of civil war, its spirit is kindly and Christian.

Tom Bard, and Other Nortonville Boys. By Rev. J. A. DAVIS. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 408, 75c.

It shows that boys can live Christian lives and yet be real boys, and that in boy-life simple acts of kindness and Christian charity may bring results far beyond our highest expectations.

Too Big for Sunday-School. A Story for Boys. By Rev. J. J. DANA. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 139, 30c.

A story contrasting the career of two lads, one of whom loves the Sunday-school and is not too proud to work, the other feeling himself too big to go to the Sunday-school and to do the humbler duties of a store and errand-boy. The result shows which was right.

Traditions of the Covenanters; or Gleanings among the Mountains. By Rev. ROBERT SIMPSON. First Series. 18mo. Pp. 216, 50c. Second Series. 18mo. Pp. 281, 50c. Third Series. 18mo. Pp. 224, 50c. Illustrated.

These volumes contain an interesting record of the sufferings of the Presbyterians of Scotland, in former times, for conscience' sake. Everybody knows enough of their faith, patience and persecutions to make him anxious to know more. The love of incident and heroism which is so strong a passion in the human mind will also find its gratification in these narratives.

Transformed Island. A Story of the South Seas. Illustrated. 18mo. Pp. 721, 25c.

This little book records events of a most remarkable character—the settlement of the uninhabited island of Pitcairn by a band of mutineers, and the wonderful change wrought by the reading of a copy of the Bible.

True-Story Library. No. 1. A series of twelve original books for little children by Mrs. JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Illustrated. 32mo. $2.00. They are as follows:

1 Brave Max: The Story of Captain Hammond.
2 Good Louise: The Helper of Oberlin.
3 Henry Martyn: The Missionary.
4 Indians' Friend: David Brainerd.
5 Lizzie, the Girl Soldier: Mrs. Lizzie Calderwood.
6 Little King: King Joash.
7 Our Class: The Author's Class in Sabbath-school.
8 Richard Knill: Missionary to India and Russia.
9 Story of a Prophet: Elisha.
10 Story of a Tinker: John Bunyan.
11 Three Seats Full: In an Infant Class.
12 Tom Scott: The Commentator.

True-Story Library, No. 2. More true stories for little ones. By Mrs. JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Large 32mo. Illustrated. $2.00.

The subjects of these stories are the distinguished men and women of the Reformation. Many adults will find in these brief histories information with regard to the heroes of the Reformation which they will be glad to get in so small a compass. The titles are:

1 George Wishart.
2 John Knox.
3 William Tyndale.
4 John Huss.
5 Martin Luther.
6 Philip Melanchthon.
7 Queen Margaret.
8 Renee of Ferrara.
9 John Calvin.
10 William Farel.
11 Admiral Coligni.
12 Richard Baxter.

Twelve Noble Men. By Mrs. JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. With Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 270, 75c.

In this volume, intended for the younger class of Sabbath-school scholars, Mrs. Wright gives bright sketches of twelve men bearing themselves nobly in very different stations and callings in life.

Ulrich Zwingli, the Patriotic Reformer. A History. By Rev. WILLIAM M. BLACKBURN, D. D. 12 mo. Pp. 324, 75c.

The life of the great Swiss reformer is portrayed in a vivid and characteristic manner. The author has succeeded admirably in his attempt, as announced in the preface, "to set forth the man and his friends as they grew in piety and labored in the studying of God, teaching and preaching the truth and restoring the Church to the foundation of Christ and his apostles."

Uncle Gilbert. By MARY C. MILLER. Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 288, 75c.

In this closing volume of the series much interesting information concerning Japan is presented in the conversations of the family, and the familiar household talks on the Shorter Cathechism are continued.

Uncle Seth's Will. By Mrs. NATHANIEL CONKLIN. 12mo. Pp. 408, $1.25.

Under the Pruning Knife. A story of Southern life. By MARY TUCKER MAGILL. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 332, $1.00.

Unity Dodge, and her Patterns. By KATE W. HAMILTON. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 336, 75c.

Unity, when we first meet her, is about as queer a specimen of a girl as one will be apt to find in a long experience, but under good influences she grows into a woman of character and worth. The story illustrates the power of the gospel to ennoble and refine.

Vagabond and Victor. The Story of David Sheldon. By KATE W. HAMILTON. With Illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 232, 75c.

This tale faithfully illustrates the steps by which intemperance drags a man down physically, mentally and morally, yet shows also that there is hope for those far gone in the downward road.

Walter Harmsen. A Tale of Reformation Times in Holland. Translated from the Dutch of E. Gerdes by Rev. DANIEL VAN PELT. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 368, $1.00.

A thrilling story of the Reformation days in the Netherlands. The incidents are not mere creations of the imagination, but are substantially historical. The book gives the reader a clear view of the inner story of those times of sore trial and persecution.

Wat Adams, the Young Machinist, and his Proverbs. By Mrs. MARY D. R. BOYD. 16mo. With Illustrations. Pp. 247, 75c.

A book for boys. Wat is a wise little fellow, always quoting proverbs and getting the sobriquet of "Old Proverbs" from his companions. But his proverbs stand him in good stead. He fears God, works hard and gains success.

Water Animals. By ELLA RODMAN CHURCH. Pp. 352, $1.00.

Way of Salvation. The Way of Salvation familiarly explained in a conversation between a father and his children. By Rev. A. ALEXANDER, D. D. 32mo. Pp. 64, 20c.

An excellent little work for young persons.

West Beach Boys, The. A Seaside Story. By Mrs. MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 344, $1.00.

The book narrates the experiences of some boys, who organized themselves into a league and spent a profitable summer. Very much valuable information was given to the boys on various subjects by Rev. Mr. Martin, the father of two of them. Boys will relish it, and boys' parents will be helped by it.

Westward. A Tale of American Emigrant Life. By Mrs. JULIA MCNAIR WRIGHT. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 272, 75c.

Its lesson is that Christian men and women, when they migrate Westward, should feel themselves to be missionaries; and it shows how even plain people may carry out this idea and prove of immense service in their new homes.

We Three. By KATE W. HAMILTON. With illustrations. 16mo. Pp. 270, 75c.

In this book the fortunes of three brothers are graphically sketched. Perseverance, patience, industry and courage are made conspicuous as elements of success, and God's love in the heart as the source of these good traits.

Whatsoever. By CHARLOTTE ARNOLD. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 320, $1.00.

The incidents and experiences of the heroine of the book during the period of her education are very interesting and yet not exaggerations. The story is particularly adapted to young ladies and the older girls.

Who Is My Neighbor? or, The Two Great Commandments. By Mrs. M. D. R. BOYD. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 216, 60c.

An admirable little volume, commending practical benevolence by Christian example.

Who Wins? A Story for Boys. By BELLE V. CHISHOLM. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 314, $1.00.

The book is intended to show the value of sturdy moral right in a boy and the blessings to which it leads, and the course and end of the opposite character.

Widening Circles. By MINNIE E. KENNEY. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 268, 75c.

A young girl comes home from school with a purpose in her heart to make her life useful. She begins on about as hopeless a set of objects as one ordinarily finds. There are a family of neighbors who, through drink and indolence, have gotten down almost as low as possible; our young friend takes hold first of a ragged boy belonging to this household, and through him she reaches his father and mother, both drunkards, and by her influence they are all lifted up and they and their home are completely transformed.

Wildwood: By Mrs. NATHANIEL CONKLIN. 12mo. Pp. 363, 75c.

The object of this story is to illustrate the power of the grace of Christ in transforming life and character.

William Farel, and the Story of the Swiss Reform. By Rev. Wm. M. BLACKBURN, D. D. 12mo. Pp. 357, 75c.

In this volume we have a narrative of the life and times of William Farel, the forerunner of Calvin. The great Genevan Reformer owed much to this learned, earnest and holy minister of Christ, and repaid the debt by a lifelong friendship.

Wood, Hay, Stubble. By KATE W. HAMILTON. 12mo. Pp. 336, $1.25.

The question of this book is, "How are you building? Wood? Hay? Stubble? Or gold and precious stones?" Especially is the lesson taught of the wretchedness of a life of shams, of the attempt to keep up appearances, whether in the household or in the religious life.

Word Pictures. By E. B. M. 6 vols. Illustrated. 18mo. $1.50.

No. 1 Lou Benton's Thanksgiving.
No. 2 Uncle Jed's Experiment.
No. 3 The Golden Cluster.
No. 4 Grandmamma's Story-Book.
No. 5 Building Blocks.
No. 6 Lou's Neighbor.

Pleasant narratives for readers of the younger class—say those from seven to ten years of age.

Y's and Their Work, The. By MARGARET E. WINSLOW. Illustrated. 16mo. Pp. 316, $1.00.

The work of the "Y's"—that is, of the Young Women's Christian Temperance Union—is well delineated. The book ought to do good, in inspiring Christian young women everywhere to more earnest interest and effort in behalf of the cause of temperance, which is the cause of salvation for thousands.

Young Calvin in Paris, and the Little Flock that he Fed. By Rev. WILLIAM M. BLACKBURN, D. D. 16mo. Pp. 166, 60c.

A sequel to "College Days of Calvin," exhibiting the young and growing professor and ripening scholar in the new aspect of the earnest missionary and gospel preacher by his faithful labors fostering and advancing the incipient Reformation.

TRACTS AND BOOKS IN PAPER.

Abrahamic Covenant, The; and The New Testament Church. By Joseph C. Stiles, D. D. 12mo. Pp. 60, 6c.

This tract first establishes the doctrine that the Church under the Abrahamic Covenant and the New Testament Dispensation is substantially one and the same institution, and then draws the inference that Christian parents are bound to present their children for baptism.

Adam and Christ; or, The Doctrine of Representation Stated and Explained. By E. C. Wines, D. D. 18mo. Pp. 71, 6c.

This little work explains and defends, in the most lucid and convincing manner, the doctrine of vicarious obedience and suffering.

Catechism for Young Children. 32mo. Pp. 36, 2c.

Katechismus für junge Kinder. Eine Einleitung zu dem kleinen Katechismus. This admirable little catechism, of which the Board has issued more than three millions, and which is used in some four or five languages, is also issued in the German. As a first catechism for very young children, to be used either in the family or in the Sabbath-School, we know of nothing at all comparable to it.

Catechism, Larger. 18mo. Pp. 108, 7c.

Der Grosse Katechismus der Westminster-Versammlung, mit Beweisstellen aus der Heiligen Schrift.

Catechism, Shorter. 18mo. Pp. 52, 3c.

Der Kleine Katechismus der Presbyterischen Kirche. (The Shorter Catechism, with Scripture Proofs.) A translation accurately expressing the minute shades of doctrine, and at the same time giving correctly the German idioms.

Children's Harp. 18mo. 30c.

Evangelische Kinder-Harfe für Christliche Schulen. This book contains one hundred and ninety-seven hymns, with music on each page. It is issued jointly by the Boards of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church and of the Presbyterian Church. It is admirably adapted to the use of Sabbath-Schools.

Announcement!

The New Westminster Bible Dictionary

For SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS and Bible students generally,

THOROUGHLY UP-TO-DATE in the various fields of biblical research, is now being put through the press by the

PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PUBLICATION

And will be ready for issue in October, 1898.

The book will be combined in one volume of about 750 pages, copiously illustrated, and will contain many valuable maps carefully and specially prepared for it, from the latest surveys.

The purpose of this Dictionary is to provide a complete repository of Bible facts in as compact a form as possible. But little attention is paid to mere speculation, and matter which does not really illustrate the Bible is excluded. The sole aim has been to gather from all available sources whatever will throw light upon the Scriptures. All works on Bible geography, history, and archæology have been laid under contribution. The records of the latest explorations and researches have been carefully examined. In the preparation of the volume the needs of Sabbath-school teachers have been kept specially in mind, and the effort has been to give them a book which will be really helpful, and which will answer all questions that may arise concerning any person or place mentioned in the Bible.

This Dictionary will bear comparison with any of the large, elaborate, and expensive dictionaries of the Bible.

The editor and principal contributor is PROF. JOHN D. DAVIS, Ph. D., of Princeton Theological Seminary. Dr. Davis has had the aid, however, of many excellent biblical scholars, who have furnished many of the articles.

Campbellism Not of God. By Rev. J. S. Smith. 8vo. Pamphlet..... 10

Can It Be False? By J. F. House. 12mo. Paper, 30 cents..... 1 00

In Part I. the author, a distinguished lawyer and statesman, discusses the life of Christ, and in Parts II. and III. the lives of his apostles, Peter and Paul. From the phenomena of these lives and their influence upon the world the authenticity of their claim of a divine mission is successfully argued. "No thoughtful person, with skeptical tendencies, could read this volume without finding clear light, and feeling compelled to accept the truth as it is in Jesus."—Zion's Herald. "It is a powerful argument addressed to those the foundation of whose faith has been shaken by the assaults of modern thought and criticism. The style is interesting, vivid, and very powerful."—Justice Lamar, Supreme Court, United States. "It is a great honor, from any point of view, to be the author of such a book. If the author had remained in Congress, and become the Speaker of the House, he could not have done as much good for his fellow-men as will be done by the circulation of this book."—Judge Harlan, Supreme Court, United States.

Dictionary, Biblical and Theological: Explanatory of the History, Manners, and Customs of the Jews and Neighboring Nations. With an Account of the Most Remarkable Places and Persons Mentioned in Sacred Scripture, an Exposition of the Principal Doctrines of Christianity, and Notices of Jewish and Christian Sects and Heresies. By Richard Watson. Revised and enlarged by T. O. Summers, D.D. 8vo. Sheep.. 4 00
In this edition multitudes of errors have been corrected, additions have been made, and hundreds of original articles have been added. The new matter, which is distinguished by brackets, consists of Biblical, theological, and ecclesiastical articles, embodying accounts of the sects which have originated since Mr. Watson's day, and of others overlooked by him. A vast amount of labor has been expended upon the work, which makes a magnificent octavo of 1,113 pages.

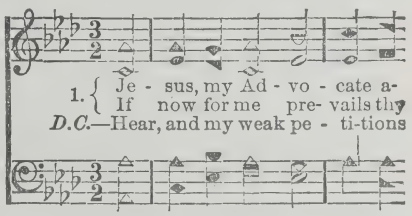
CHARACTER NOTES.



In Many Lands. By Mrs. Fanny Osborne. Illustrated 40
Young readers who love to learn things worth remembering will find a fascination in these voyages of the Wilton family, on the good ship "Research." They visit every quarter of the globe, hearing and seeing marvelous things. The book should be read in connection with its sequel, "On Many Seas."

Ina's Visit to Virginia. By Sara Keables Hunt. 16mo. Illustrated.... 50
This delightful story is bound to be immensely popular. After reading it one need hardly be told that the principal characters are real persons; that the visit to Virginia was a real visit; and that the things related really occurred.

Indians, Manners and Customs of. By Old Humphrey. 18mo. Illus... 40

Initial Life; or, The Lost Principle Restored. By L. Rosser, D.D. 12mo. 1 00
The doctrines of total depravity, regeneration, and their cognates, philosophically considered in the light of reason and of revelation.

Immersionists against the Bible; or, The Babel-builders Confounded, in an Exposition of the Origin, Design, Tactics, and Progress of the New Version Movement of Campbellites and Other Baptists. By Rev. N. H. Lee, of the Louisville Conference. 18mo. Paper, 20 cents..... 50

Ingelow, Jean. The Clouded Intellect $0 60
The Cumberers 60

Inquisition, The. 18mo. Illustrated. Paper, 15 cents 40
A concise and reliable account of the rise, progress, and decline of this diabolical institution, through which popery sought to terrify men's consciences and bring them under subjection to the "man of sin."

Institutes, Theological; or, A View of the Evidences, Doctrines, Morals, and Institutions of Christianity. By Richard Watson. Edited by T. O. Summers, D.D. 8vo. Sheep 4 00
In this edition numerous errors have been corrected; a complete Scriptural Index has been added, also a very copious Analytical Index, and an Index of Greek Terms.

Theology, Systematic: A Complete Body of Wesleyan Arminian Divinity, Consisting of Lectures on the Twenty-five Articles of Religion, by the late Rev. Thomas O. Summers, D.D. LL.D., Professor of Systematic Theology in Vanderbilt University. The Whole Arranged and Revised, with Introductions, Copious Notes, Explanatory and Supplemental, and a Theological Glossary. By Rev. John J. Tigert, M.A., S.T.B., Professor in Vanderbilt University. In two volumes. Royal 8vo. Each 2 00

Volume I. includes 1. Theology Proper. 2. The Person and Work of Christ. 3. Eschatology: the Doctrine of the Last Things. 4. The Person and Offices of the Holy Ghost. 5. The Doctrine of the Holy Scriptures. Volume II. includes: 6. Anthropology: the Doctrine of Man. 7. Ecclesiology: the Doctrine of the Church. 8. Christian Ethics. 9. A Theological Glossary. "No Methodist writer, not excepting Watson, Pope, Raymond, or any other Methodist author, has ever more clearly and forcibly set forth and unanswerably vindicated Wesleyan Methodist Arminianism than has Dr. Summers. As a text-book, on which a student is to stand an examination, it has qualities that must give it the precedence over Watson or Pope."—Dr. John E. Edwards. "Dr. Summers was evidently a man of profound convictions, of wide reading, cautiously conservative, but ready to learn, able to defend his positions. His ultraconservative views of textual criticism interfere with the accuracy of his citation of proof text; but his editor has been careful to annotate in the interest of a more correct attitude to the real word of God. Indeed, Prof. Tigert has supplemented the volume so as to bring it 'down to date' in all the departments of Biblical learning upon which it seemed to require such enlargement. The doctrinal views are precisely what might be expected from the claims of the title. They are carefully and fully stated, objections are candidly weighed; but the author remains a Wesleyan Arminian."—Sunday School Times.

Wesley, John, Life of. By Rev. B. W. Bond. 16mo 75

As Bishop Wilson truly says in his Introduction, "The error and fault of the present generation of Methodists are that they know too little of John Wesley and the men who wrought with him in his great struggle for human souls. . . . For our young people this knowledge is indispensable. No man can know Methodism who does not know John Wesley." In this work will be found a brief, popular, correct, and adequate resume of all that is most important for young people to know on this subject.

Southern Writers.

Biographical and Critical Studies.

By William Malone Baskervill.

IN a series of twelve papers the writer proposes to give a tolerably complete survey of that literary movement which, beginning about 1870, has spread over the entire South. Since that time Southern writers have been conspicuous among the chief contributors to the nation's literature. There will be no attempt to place a final estimate upon this contribution, though some critical opinions will now and then be offered. The effort will be rather to present biographical data and literary appreciations—to stimulate the desire for a more intimate acquaintance with this literature which is so fresh, original, and racy of the soil. The series will appear as follows:

1. Joel Chandler Harris.
2. Maurice Thompson.
3. Sidney Lanier.
4. Irwin Russell.
5. Mrs. Margaret J. Preston.
6. George Washington Cable.
7. Charles Egbert Craddock.
8. Richard Malcolm Johnston.
9. Thomas Nelson Page.
10. James Lane Allen.
11. Miss Grace King.
12. Samuel Minturn Peck.

These writers may not unfairly be considered typical and representative of the best that has been produced in this new era.

Southern Writers: Published Monthly. Subscription price, $1 a year. Single copies, 10 cents, postage paid.

Send orders for the whole series or for separate numbers.

Eminent Methodists.

THIS is a series of booklets to be issued monthly through this year by our Epworth League Department. The series will include biographical sketches of Lovick Pierce.

Landon C. Garland.
Moses Brock.
Holland N. McTyeire.
Robert A. Smith.
Robert Alexander.
James A. Duncan.
Susanna Wesley.
Hubbard H. Kavanaugh.
George F. Pierce.
Jefferson Hamilton.
William Winans.

The writing of these sketches has been undertaken by Bishops Galloway and Fitzgerald. It would be superfluous to add a word to such an announcement to recommend the booklets to the attention of the readers of our Church literature. The subscription price of the whole series is 50 cents. Single numbers will be sent postpaid for 5 cents.

OUR SUNDAY-SCHOOL PERIODICALS.

EDITED BY REV. JAMES ATKINS, D.D.

Our Sunday-school periodicals should be used in all our schools. They are authorized by the General Conference, prepared by our editor, published by our House for the especial use and benefit of our people. They are adapted to our wants, and should not be substituted by any other.

Preachers, Sunday-school officers, and all others interested in the furtherance of Southern Methodism, see to it that no undenominational or impure literature is used in our schools! In matter and style our literature is equal to the best, and is cheaper than any other of equal grade. All the moral and religious reasons that call for Methodist preachers in Methodist pulpits call for Methodist literature in Methodist schools. Write for specimen copies.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL MAGAZINE. A seventy-two-page monthly of acknowledged excellence, for the use of officers, teachers, and older scholars. With full exposition of the International Lesson texts, every number contains valuable hints as to the facts, principles, objects, methods, and capabilities of Sunday-school work, blackboard illustrations, and colored map. No publication of equal merit is furnished at a less price. 864 pages yearly, post-paid, for the small sum of 50 cents.

THE SENIOR QUARTERLY. A thirty-two-page pamphlet devoted to lesson helps for scholars in advanced classes. Its value is enhanced by the introduction of appropriate forms for opening and closing exercises, hymns and tunes, maps, dictionary of proper names, etc.

Five or more, to one address, per annum, each.....15 cents.
Five or more, to one address, per quarter, each..... 4 cents.
Single subscription, in separate wrapper, per annum.....25 cents.

THE HOME DEPARTMENT QUARTERLY is the same as the Senior Quarterly, except that the editorials are especially adapted to the home work. Same price as Senior Quarterly.

THE INTERMEDIATE QUARTERLY. Similar to the Senior, but with such necessary changes as adapt it to the wants of scholars in the main school. It is marvelously cheap.

Five or more, to one address, per annum, each..... 7½ cents.
Five or more, to one address, per quarter, each..... 2 cents.
Single subscription, in separate wrapper, per annum.....15 cents.

THE ILLUSTRATED LESSON PAPER is a four-page weekly, designed for younger scholars who have outgrown the infant class, but who retain their fondness for pictures and simple stories. 208 pages a year.

Five or more, to one address, per annum, each.....10 cents.
Single subscription, in separate wrapper, per annum.....20 cents.

OUR LITTLE PEOPLE is a beautiful lesson sheet, four pages, handsomely illustrated and printed on tinted paper; for primary or infant scholars.

Five or more, to one address, per annum, each..... 6 cents.
Single subscription, in separate wrapper, per annum.....10 cents.

THE OLIVET PICTURE CARDS for infant classes. Being a series of cards (size, 2¾x4 inches) containing questions and answers on the Sunday-school lesson on one side, with a bright lithographed colored picture on the other. The picture illustrates the lesson. A different card for each Sunday. Sold in sets of 13 cards, covering lessons for one quarter, for only 3 cents, or for a year for 12 cents. The lessons on these cards are prepared by our own Sunday-school editors. This series of cards has become so very popular that it was necessary to print more than two and a half times as many as we used for the first quarter.

THE BIBLE LESSON PICTURES are enlarged reproductions of the pictures on the Olivet Picture Cards in colors. Size, 2 feet 2 inches, by 3 feet 1 inch. Arranged for hanging on the wall and to be used in connection with the Olivet Picture Cards. The SUNDAY-SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT, an eight-page lesson-teaching paper, accompanies each set of Bible Lesson Pictures. Price, per quarter, $1; per year, $4.

THE CHILDREN'S VISITOR, an excellent eight-page paper for the Sunday-school or the fireside, beautifully illustrated, published in both weekly and monthly editions.

Weekly edition. Single copies, per annum.....60 cents.
Clubs—All in one package, to one address, per annum, each.....40 cents.
When sent to individual subscribers, either in clubs or single subscriptions, the price is, per annum, each.....60 cents.
Club rates are only given where all are sent to one address in one package.
Monthly edition. In clubs to one address, per annum, each.....20 cents.
Single copies, per annum, each.....30 cents.
The same rule applies to clubs as in the weekly editions. To get club rates all must be sent to one address.

A MODERN PUBLISHING HOUSE . . .

Rand, McNally & Co.,

CHICAGO AND NEW YORK.

The well-known printing and publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co. was established over forty years ago (in 1856). Its business has grown steadily and rapidly, necessitating several removals and enlargements of quarters, until the present magnificent structure was erected in 1889. The building has a frontage of 150 feet on Adams Street, and extends 165 feet through to Quincy Street. It is ten stories high, a model of convenience, and one of the few really fire-proof buildings in the city. It was the first all-steel structure erected in Chicago. In the center is an open court 60 x 66 feet, with its outer walls faced with English white enameled brick. Thus ample air and light are furnished for all the inner offices. The building cost over $1,000,000.

Here is the home of one of the largest printing plants in the world, and the greatest of railway ticket and time table manufactories. The company does a very large general printing and publishing business, but is chiefly known as publishers of maps, atlases, globes, and guide-books. Their capacity for this line of work is unexcelled, and their name on any such publication stamps it as a standard work.

The New York Branch of Rand, McNally & Co. is at 61 East Ninth Street (near Broadway), in the new Educational Building. The location is central, easily reached by cable and elevated roads, and is near the large publishers, booksellers and school-supply houses.

Teachers and school officers are cordially invited to call at either of our offices and examine our large stock of maps, globes, and atlases.

SPECIAL.—Dominion of Canada, Canadian Northwest, and Alaska. Three Maps on one sheet. Size of sheet, 21 x 28 inches. Pocket form, cloth covers. Price, 50 cents.

These maps are similar to those in the vest pocket series, but folded to ordinary pocket size. An indexed book accompanying each map shows location of towns, populations, county seats, express companies, post offices (if town is not a post office where mail goes to), money order offices, telegraph stations, railroads (and branches of same) on which points are located, etc.

These are our Best Indexed Maps, and have been used by business houses and travelers for a score of years.

For the above maps mounted on tarboard for office use, see page 11.

The maps are the same as used in our 25 cent editions. Towns and population figures are printed on back of maps, which are folded to vest pocket size and inserted in manilla covers. Numerals printed in red on the face of maps refer to a marginal index, which shows at a glance what railroads and express companies operate to the point so numbered.

This is the first time this feature has Been used on any Map.

Large Scale Maps of the States and Territories in the United States.

NOTE.—The paper maps mounted on roller and moulding are commonly called half mounted, and those with cloth back, full mounted. The width east and west is given first in our description of maps.

Maps mounted, and all kinds of work pertaining to the business promptly attended to, and well executed.

Dissected maps, in book form, prepared to order. Prices (if without covers) the same as for full mounted. Cloth or leather covers extra.

New Official Railroad Map of the United States.

Size, 90 x 65 inches; approximate scale, 37 miles to one inch. Embracing the entire United States and the greater and most important portions of Canada, Mexico, and the West Indies. This is an ideal business map. Compiled from the latest surveys, both governmental and private. Handsomely colored by States. No counties are shown.

Wall map (cloth back), $15.00 Wall map, in Diamond Case, $20.00

General Map of the United States, with Portions of Canada and Mexico.

Size (one sheet), 66 x 46 inches; scale, 45 miles to one inch. Compiled and drawn from the latest records of the United States Land Office and from the records of the Surveyor General for the different States and Territories. It shows all State and County boundary lines, Indian reservations, mountain ranges, peaks, lakes, and rivers; all lines of railroad are carefully located, and the cities and towns thereon shown in large, plain type. The States are contrasted in colors by our celebrated patent process. Embraces the territory between Maine and California east and west, and from the southern shore of James Bay on the north to Monterey, Mexico, on the south.

Vest Pocket form ..... $ .15
On tarboard (for desk use) 75

Globe Map of United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Size, 41 x 58 inches; scale, 75 miles to one inch. The United States and its immediate neighbors on the north and south form, commercially and geographically, a single country, irrespective of their political separateness. It is for this reason that this map of the United States was made to include not only Canada and Mexico, but the Central American States, Cuba, Jamaica, and the Bahamas — a territory extending from the equator to the 55th degree of latitude north.

The details are full, without being crowded, and the plan of coloring contrasts distinctly the boundaries of adjacent States. The relative importance of cities is indicated by the graded sizes of type used for their names, while capitals, etc., are further distinguished by the signs used for locating them. An inset map, $8\frac{1}{2}$ x $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches, shows Alaska on a scale of 187 miles to the inch. No Railroads are shown, the idea being to make a map on which important towns and their relative positions will be seen at a glance.

Cloth back (wall map)	$5.00
Cloth back in cloth cover, folded, 5 x 10 inches	6.50
In Diamond Case (see sixth page)	6.50

Columbia Series Map of United States.

Size, 66 x 46 inches; scale, 53 miles to one inch. This is not a railroad map, consequently it is very distinct in other respects. It includes the territory between 25° and 55° North Latitude, thus showing the United States entire, and quite a large portion of the Provinces of Canada and the States of Mexico. All boundaries of States and Territories are very plain, and the new States distinctly outlined; separate contrasting shades of color indicate the different political divisions; mountainous regions are more satisfactorily shown than upon other maps, and this feature will at once secure approval; not only the mountain peaks and ranges, but the foot-hills and scattering portions are so represented as to give the most correct impression of location and extent. The heights of the more important mountains and the lengths of rivers are given. The relative importance of cities and towns is indicated by black dots of various sizes. Their average annual temperature is also noted. In the borders of the map parallel places in other countries are named.

A Geographical Game.

A TRIP THROUGH THE UNITED STATES.

A most amusing and instructive geographical game for young and old. On a map of the United States are printed red and black numbered stars at the location of principal cities. The play is with dice and begins at Boston, which is No. 1. From that point the player works his way to San Francisco, progressing the number of points he throws. To some numbers a penalty is attached, and to others an advantage, so that the fun of the game is in its uncertainty. For instance, if a throw of the dice lands a player on Death Valley, Cal., he must begin over again at Boston. In substantial cloth case, $1.00.

Rand, McNally & Co.'s
New Large Physical Maps.

Each Map Measures 66 x 46 inches.

This series of physical maps contains all the good qualities of the German and French maps, besides adding many important features not contained in any of the foreign publications.

The system of coloring employed to indicate the elevations is superior to that adopted by the European cartographers. The shadings of brown are so carefully blended that the valleys appear depressed and the mountain systems to stand out in bold relief.

Ocean Currents, which are of primary importance in determining climate, are shown in the most appropriate colors — the warm currents being represented by a warm brown and the cold currents by a cold blue color.

Isothermal lines for July and January are traced in solid red lines, degrees of heat and cold being distinctly marked on the sides of the map.

Plant Distribution in North America, Europe, and Asia is plainly shown by heavy broken red lines. No other physical maps or text books on this subject correctly show plant distribution in North America.

The happy blending of all the colors used in this series of maps, is artistic, the effect pleasing, and the result a comprehensive object lesson that a child can understand.

In the preparation of this series of physical maps, old landmarks have been discarded, and for the first time the results of recent exploration and research are given to the world.

The trend of the most successful teaching of the kindred subjects — geography and history — is all toward the use of the physical maps.

Commendations of the Physical Maps.

From among the many commendations we have received from successful and eminent teachers, we select the following as indicating how this new series of physical maps is being received by the leaders in educational work.

Superintendent D. K. Goss, of the Indianapolis schools, who ordered Rand, McNally & Co.'s physical maps for all the schools under his charge, writes as follows:

The way of advancement for the American public schools in the matter of geography and history is to teach these two subjects in close relation and always with the best physical maps, unincumbered with detail, before the pupils. I believe these maps are the best material anywhere to be had for better instruction along this line of study of the earth and man and their relations.

Respectfully,

DAVID K. GOSS,
Superintendent Schools.

Rand, McNally & Co.'s physical maps are very fine, and give the pupil a most thorough lesson on the relief features of the earth. I have used the map of North America, and teachers are much pleased with both plan and material presented.

C. C. MILLER,
Ex-State Commissioner of Ohio Public Schools.

Allow me to express my hearty thanks that an American publisher has at last met the pressing needs of genuine geographical teaching by publishing such excellent wall maps. There have been no maps of the kind published in America since the time of Guyot, and his maps are not only out of print but also out of date.

"As far as I can see, your physical (orographical) map of North America is equal to the best work done in Germany. It contains all the late discoveries in our great mountain regions. It is seldom that I have an opportunity to indorse so emphatically a means of teaching true geography. I trust this map of North America will make its appearance in every school room in North America. I should prefer it in grammar and high schools to any text book upon North America ever yet printed.

FRANCIS W. PARKER,
Principal Cook County Normal School,
Englewood (Chicago).

We are using your series of physical maps and regard them as the very best now in the market. CHARLES R. DRYER, Terre Haute, Indiana. Professor of Geography, State Normal School.

After a careful examination of the Rand, McNally & Co.'s excellent physical maps, I feel that I can unreservedly recommend them for use in our district schools. They should be considered as necessary a part of the school-room furniture as the desks. No school board can make a mistake in buying one or all of these maps.

KATE L. SABIN,
Wisconsin. County Superintendent, Dane County.

Armstrong's Palestine.—This map embraces the whole of Palestine. It extends from Beirut on the north to 'Ain Kadis on the south. On the east it embraces Trachonitis. Topographical and geographical terms are given in both English and Arabic. The map is intended to cover both the Old and New Testament periods. Physical features are shown clearly, the detail is very full. The map is revised by Sir Charles W. Wilson, K. C. B. F. R. S., and Major C. R. Conder, B. C. L. R. E. Scale, 2¾ miles to an inch. Size, 80 x 102 inches.

Cloth back, on common rollers, $25.00; in "Diamond" Case, $35.00.

Voyages and Travels of St. Paul.—The journeys of St. Paul are plainly marked with the numerals 1, 2, 3, 4. Arrows indicate the direction. All details are clearly shown. Size, 50 x 42 inches.

Cloth back, on common rollers, $5.00; in "Diamond" Case, $6.50.

Countries of the Bible.—This map illustrates both Old and New Testament history. Old Testament names are indicated in black, New Testament in red. Upon the same sheet are sub-maps of Arabia, Ethiopia, with supplementary maps of the wilderness of Mount Sinai, Garden of Eden, Ancient Jerusalem, Modern Jerusalem, etc. Size, 50 x 42 inches.

Cloth back, on common rollers, $5.00; in "Diamond" Case, $6.50.

The Exodus.—This map shows the entire desert country through which the children of Israel passed in their journey from Egypt to Canaan. The principal places are shown. The map is very full in detail. Size, 42 x 50 inches.

Cloth back, on common rollers, $5.00; in "Diamond" Case, $6.50.

Canaan and Palestine.—The Holy Land is shown by two maps on one sheet, illustrating the Old Testament and the New Testament periods. Old Testament, New Testament, and modern names are given. Ancient Jerusalem and the environs of Jerusalem are shown by insert maps. Size, 50 x 42 inches.

Cloth back, on common rollers, $5.00; in "Diamond" Case, $6.50.

Manual of Bible Geography and History.—By Rev. J. L. Hurlbut, D. D., with introduction by Bishop J. H. Vincent, D. D. This work is very fully illustrated, and contains many excellent maps. A complete index at the end of the work contains the name of every place in the Bible. Size, 10 x 12½ inches. 158 pages.

Cloth cover, $2.75.

Kampen's Classical Maps.

A new series of four maps, especially suited to class-room work on account of the large, distinct lettering, and the well-defined boundary lines. The maps are colored in dull shades of gray, showing physical features. Rivers are boldly traced in black.

This series of eight maps is the latest edition, carefully revised by the great cartographer, and designed to supersede his earlier works, for which he no longer accepts responsibility. They are of large size, very clear, richly colored, and are lithographed maps. Though abounding in detail, the work is not confused. Physical features receive full attention. All names are in Latin. This set of maps is needed in every high-school, academy, and college.

High Grade, Extra Finish Globes

With Rand, McNally & Co.'s New Maps.

It would be impossible to place too much emphasis upon the fact that the covers used upon the Rand, McNally & Co. Globes, all sizes, are from new plates. Every improvement in engraving, printing, coloring, and mounting the maps has received critical attention, and the latest geographical changes are correctly shown.

A copy of the Globe Manual is furnished with each High Grade Globe. The manual gives explanations of the terms used in geography and astronomy, and the phenomena of mathematical geography, including temperature and ocean currents, and forty-five problems on the use of globes, with rules and illustrative examples; also several valuable tables.

New Bronze Stand Globes.

This new line of 8 and 12-inch globes is made for the purpose of furnishing a line of substantial globes having maps correct to date, that may be sold at the lowest possible price to schools. The maps and globe balls are practically the same as the preceding high grade. The stands are similar in style. The finish of this line is not quite equal to our line of high grade globes but we can recommend them to any school desiring a good globe at a low price. A copy of the globe manual is furnished with each bronze stand globe.

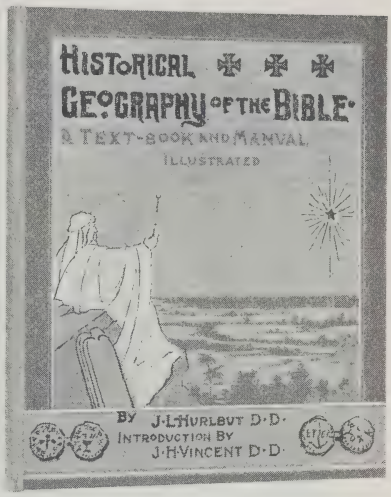
Manual of Biblical Geography

A TEXT-BOOK ON BIBLE HISTORY.



Especially prepared for the use of students and teachers of the Bible, and for Sunday-school instruction, containing maps, plans, review charts, colored diagrams, and illustrated with accurate views of the principal cities and localities known to Bible history. By Rev. J. L. Hurlbut, D. D., associate editor International Sunday-school Lesson Commentary, superintendent of normal department Chautauqua Assembly, etc., with an introduction by Rev. J. H. Vincent, D. D., superintendent of instruction Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, etc.

The chronological arrangement of the maps is an original and valuable feature. Fourteen separate maps of Palestine: Physical map, Palestine before the conquest, the conquest of Canaan, Palestine among the twelve tribes, Palestine under the judges, the kingdom of Saul, the empire of David and Solomon, the division of Solomon's empire, the Syrian period, the restoration of Israel under Jeroboam II, B. C. 800; Palestine under the Maccabees, the kingdom of Herod the Great, Palestine during the ministry of Jesus, Palestine as divided into the Two Provinces just before the final destruction of Jerusalem.

A valuable feature of the work is its maps illustrating the great empires of the ancient world: The world and the Bible lands, the Old Testament world, the empire of Chedorlaomer, the empire of Rameses II, the oriental world in the age of David, the Assyrian Empire, the empire of Nebuchadnezzar and its surroundings, the Persian Empire, B. C. 536–330; the division of Alexander's empire, the New Testament world. 160 pages.

Rand, McNally & Co.'s
New Universal Atlas of the World.

The work contains 64 pages of highly colored diagrams, about 185 pages of colored maps, 98 pages of illustrated history and biography, and 125 portraits and biographies of eminent statesmen, inventors, soldiers and writers.

The atlas also contains the latest and most accurate list of the cities, towns, villages, post offices, railway and express offices in the United States. This list contains 40,000 more names than any similar list published. It gives the population, county, and location of each town in the United States. County seats are printed in bold-face type. The railroads and express offices in each town are also marked. It will be official until the census of 1900 is compiled. Size when closed, 11½ x 14½ inches.

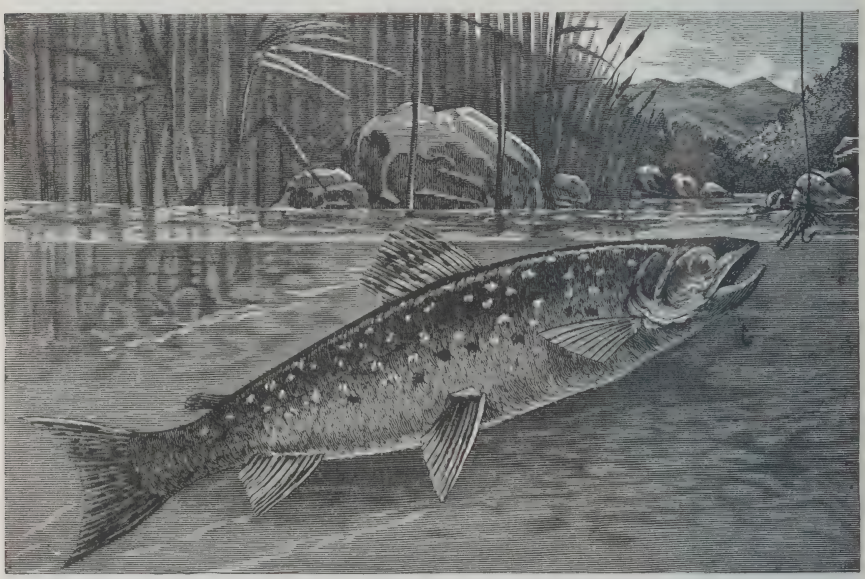
American Game Fishes.

Their Habits, Habitat, and Peculiarities; How, When, and Where to Angle for Them.

EDITED BY G. O. SHIELDS.

By combining experience with the contents of text-books, a fair but superficial knowledge may be gathered of the fishes of the Atlantic, Pacific, and Gulf States, and coast; but it can not be a complete record of their life and habits, such as would be acquired by a score of anglers, widely separated, each treating of one or two fishes that he has studied closely in all their relations, because they are his favorites, and because such a study is necessary in order to be successful in their capture; for, let it be understood, there are angling specialists as well as other specialists.



THE RISE.

CONTENTS: The Salmon; the Pacific Salmon; the Land-Locked Salmon; the Tarpon; the Striped Bass; the Black Bass; the Bluefish; the Mascalonge; the Mascalonge in Wisconsin Waters; the Brook Trout; Trouting on the Nipigon; the Lake Trout; the Rocky Mountain Trout; Sea Bass, Sea Trout, Spanish Mackerel, Grouper, Mangrove Snapper, Sheepshead, and other Southern Fishes; the Grayling; the Pike; the Wall-Eyed Pike; the Pickerel; the White Perch; the Yellow Bass, White Bass, Strawberry Bass, Rock Bass, Crappie, Sunfish, Yellow Perch, and Minor Perch and Sunfishes; the Senses of Fishes; Fishing-Tackle, and How to Make It; Reels, Their Use and Abuse; the Angler's Camp Outfit.

Large 8vo; 155 illustrations and two colored plates.
Cloth, $1.50; half morocco, $4.00; full morocco, gilt edged, $5.50.

A book that will delight the heart of the angler.—San Francisco Chronicle.

No angler's library is complete without this work.—Outing, New York.

A volume which will make the nerves of the disciples of old Isaak Walton tingle to even glance through the pages. . . . . Both the art and the written text are excellent.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The Big Game of North America.

A Book for the Sportsman and Naturalist, as well as every Youth and Adult fond of Adventures with the Big Game.

EDITED BY G. O. SHIELDS ("COQUINA").

Author of "Cruisings in the Cascades," "Battle of Big Hole," "Camping and Camp Outfits," etc.

THE SULTAN OF CHOPACA.

Not a mere compilation of anecdotes and stories, but consisting of articles by well-known and recognized authorities on the proper mode of pursuit and capture of those quadrupeds considered legitimate game for the adventurous nimrods of this continent. Twenty-six species are exhaustively considered by as many writers.

Copiously illustrated; 8vo; 600 pages; eighty illustrations.

Cloth, $3.50; half morocco, gilt top, $5.00; full morocco, all gilt edges, $6.50.

The Honorable John Dean Caton, the eminent naturalist and jurist, author of "The Antelope and Deer of America," etc., says of this work: "Any one of the names on Mr. Shields' list of contributors should insure the sale of an entire edition of his book, and when we multiply this possibility by twenty-six, the whole number of names on his title-page, the result obtained indicates the magnitude of the success that should, and that we hope will, crown his labors and those of his collaborateurs. The editor of this work has not overlooked the fact that this is preëminently a practical age—an age of object-teaching. He has, therefore, illustrated his book in a way that he and his contributors may justly feel proud of."

A BOOK FOR EVERY NATURALIST AND LOVER OF OUTDOOR SPORT WITH THE SHOTGUN.

Shooting on Upland, Marsh, and Stream.

EDITED BY WILLIAM BRUCE LEFFINGWELL,
Author of "Wild Fowl Shooting."

A series of articles written by prominent sportsmen descriptive of hunting the upland birds of America, exposing their flights, habits, resorts, and treating of the scientific methods of shooting ducks, prairie-chickens, grouse, wild turkeys, wild geese, wild pigeons, snipe, quail, woodcock, plover, etc.

Profusely illustrated; 8vo; 473 pages.

Cloth, $3.50; half morocco, gilt edges, $4.50; full morocco, gilt edges, $6.50.

SNIPE SHOOTING.

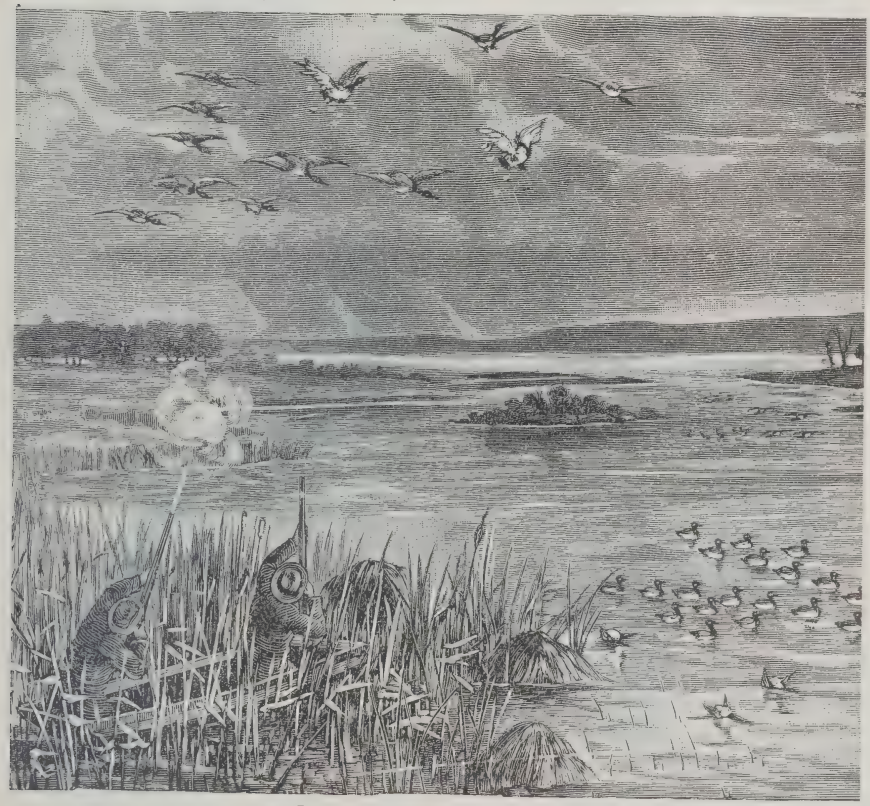
This handsome octavo . . . is a composite book, there being twenty authors, each of whom writes on the bird which he prefers to bag. . . . Ducks, prairie-chickens, grouse, wild turkeys, geese, pigeons, snipe, quail, woodcock, and plover are among the birds named. The habits of all are minutely described; so are the most effective methods of securing them. The pictures are very good.—New York Herald, May 18, 1890.

NO BOOK ON FIELD SPORTS HAS EVER BEEN MORE FAVORABLY RECEIVED.

Wild Fowl Shooting.

By William Bruce Leffingwell,

Author of "Shooting on Upland, Marsh, and Stream." Containing scientific and practical descriptions of wild fowl, their resorts, habits, and the most successful methods of hunting them. Treating of guns, decoys, blinds, boats, retrievers, etc.



In the Marsh, over Decoys.

Handsomely illustrated; 8vo; 373 pages.
Cloth cover, $2.50; half morocco, $3.50; full morocco, gilt edges, $5.50.

Outing, in course of its review, says: "For a writer of books on sporting subjects one qualification is absolutely indispensable if the result is to be a success, and that is that the author shall have his heart thoroughly in his work. In no other class of literature is the lack of such a qualification made so palpable to the reader. In 'Wild Fowl Shooting' Mr. William Bruce Leffingwell shows his love and knowledge of sport in a way which will give his work a high place in sporting literature. From the first to the last chapter the book is nothing if not practical, and the information is pleasantly interspersed with anecdotes and stories in such a way that the veteran will read with amusement and interest and the tyro will gather instruction at the same time."

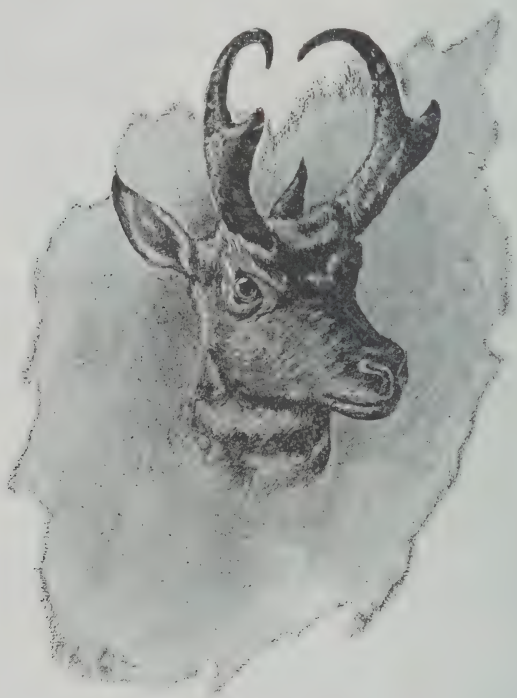
Cruisings in the Cascades and Other Hunting Adventures.

By G. O. Shields ("Coquina").

A narrative of travel, exploration, amateur photography, hunting, and fishing, with special chapters on hunting the grizzly bear, the buffalo, elk, antelope, Rocky Mountain goat, and deer; also on trouting in the Rocky Mountains; on a Montana round-up; life among the cowboys, etc.

Profusely illustrated; 12mo; 300 pages.

Cloth, $2.00; half morocco, $3.00.



A Portrait.

Men who enjoy jaunts in the woods in search of big game will find this book extremely interesting.—New York Herald.

"Cruisings in the Cascades" is by far the best thing "Coquina" has ever written.—American Field.

It is by all odds the most fascinating book on big game hunting ever published. —The Journalist.

The author's style of writing would make even a dull subject enjoyable. . . . There are enchanting sketches of scenery, pleasing stories of mountain climbing, of hunting and fishing; excellent estimates and delineations of Indian character, drawn from personal contact; a fine description of salmon and their habits, and such accounts of bear, elk, deer, and goat hunting as to make the blood of the hunter tingle in every vein.—Public Opinion.

A BOOK FOR THE LOVERS AND OWNERS OF DOGS.

The American Book of the Dog.

The Origin, Development, Special Characteristics, Utility, Breeding, Training, Diseases, and Kennel Management of all Important Breeds of Sporting and Pet Dogs.

EDITED BY G. O. SHIELDS ("COQUINA").

MEXICAN HAIRLESS DOG—"ME TOO." Owned by Elroy Foote, New York City.

A most valuable and interesting series of articles by the best authorities in this country on the origin, development, characteristics, breeding, training, judging, kennel management, and diseases of all breeds of dogs.

Profusely and handsomely illustrated; 8vo; 700 pages; eighty-five illustrations.

Plain edges, cloth, $3.50; half morocco, gilt top, $5.00; full morocco, gilt edges, $6.50.

Having spent a number of pleasant evenings in close communion with the work in question, we can not refrain from saying: "And to you, also, Mr. Shields, the great body of American sportsmen should be profoundly grateful for the good judgment, the painstaking fairness, and the excellent taste with which you have guided the course of this laudable undertaking."

This new work is one that has long been needed. It is a large and beautifully illustrated volume of 700 pages, and may be said to cover the subject of which it treats from alpha to omega. Its list of contributors embraces the names of some two dozen gentlemen who are preëminently authorities on the subjects of which they write.—Sports Afield

Constitutional History of France.

By Henry C. Lockwood,

Author of "Abolition of the Presidency," etc. Supplemented by full and precise translations of the text of the various constitutions and constitutional laws in operation at different times, from 1789 to 1889.

Napoleon Bonaparte as First Consul. From a Drawing by L. C. David.

Illustrated with thirty-two portraits and a map of Paris. 424 pages. Cloth, $2.50; half morocco, gilt top, $3.50.

It is comprehensive, orderly, and generally compact.—New York Sun.

The author of this essay has made a successful attempt briefly to outline the intellectual, social, and political causes which led to the changes in the form of government of France, and at the same time to sketch the salient features of her organic law.—New Orleans Picayune.

Sweden and the Swedes.

By William Widgery Thomas, Jr.,

Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Sweden and Norway.

English edition: One volume, cloth, $3.75, two volumes, $5.00; one volume, half morocco, $5.00, two volumes, $7.00; one volume, full morocco, $7.50, two volumes, $10.00.

Swedish edition: One volume, cloth, $3.75, one volume, half morocco, $5.00; one volume, full morocco, $7.50.

Large 8vo; 750 pages; 328 illustrations. Pronounced by leading authorities the most reliable exposition of the habits and customs of the Swedish race.

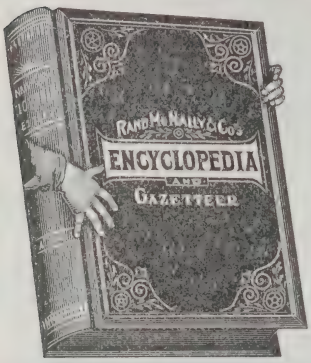
Fisher's Cottage in the Stockholm Skärgård. From a Painting by J. P. Södermark.

Says the Svenska Kuriren of Chicago: "There is nothing new to us in reading the foreigner's impression of Sweden. We have already seen too many of them lately. But seldom, if ever before, has a work been issued by a foreigner who has had occasion to know Sweden so thoroughly, and still more seldom has the judgment been so favorable as in this case. His picturing of the middle class and the peasantry is matchless. It is with a feeling of regret that one finishes reading the book, as one wants to read more by the same author on the same subject. Pictures of persons, landscape, etc., are very finely executed, and will no doubt increase its circulation. The well-known firm of Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago, are the publishers, another recommendation for the work."

The Philadelphia Public Ledger says: "For real knowledge of the people, soil, institutions, and traditions of Sweden one must consult such a book as this of our Minister's, which is closely packed with useful information, with shrewd but kindly observations, and vivid descriptions. Mr. Thomas' energy and versatility are well attested by this book, which may be read with profit, as it must be read with pleasure."

Standard and Miscellaneous Publications.

Rand, McNally & Co.'s Encyclopedia and Gazetteer. A condensation of the Encyclopedia Britannica, Chambers' Encyclopedia, etc., with the addition of much original matter treating of American subjects, forming a superb compendium of information on matters of daily value and interest to every intelligent person. This grand work is no rehashed, forty-year-old affair. It is fresh from the press, and contains 800 pages of the latest and most authentic information on every subject mentioned. One of the most important features is the gazetteer of the world, embracing towns of 100 population and upward. A succinct account of the location, industries, population, or particular characteristics of each place is given; the proper pronunciation of names is diacritically indicated, and 1890 population figures are given for important places in the United States, thus forming a complete atlas of the world when taken in connection with the eighty full-page colored maps of every section of the globe, together with a large number of astronomical, ethnological, and other charts, which will be found appropriately arranged. Interspersed throughout this grand volume are nearly two thousand engravings, illustrating and embellishing the various articles at every point. So much intrinsic value has never before been put in such convenient form, or offered at such a moderate price. 720 pages; size of page, 7¾ x 10 inches. Handsomely bound in cloth, with gold title and side stamp, $5.00; elegantly bound in half russia, leather back and corners, gold title and side stamp, marbled edges, special library style, $6.50.



Proceedings of the World's Congress of Bankers and Financiers. At the Congress of Bankers and Financiers held in the Art Palace at Chicago, June 19th to 24th, under the auspices of the World's Congress Auxiliary of the World's Columbian Exposition, interesting and valuable addresses were presented covering every phase of financial opinion. Speeches were delivered upon the existing financial conditions by such eminent authorities as Lyman J. Gage, Hon. C. C. Bonney, Charles Parsons, J. J. P. Odell, and others, which are replete with suggestive ideas. All this valuable matter is embraced in the volume which we now offer.

Among the addresses and papers are the following: The Gold Standard, by Horace White of New York; The World's Experience in Banking, by Bradford Rhodes of New York; Banking and Currency, by Hon. Joseph H. Walker; The Free Coinage of Silver, by Hon. D. H. Waite; The International Monetary Conference of 1892, by Hon. Henry W. Cannon; Universal Bimetallism, by Richard P. Rothwell of New York; Necessity for the Use of Silver as Money in the United States, by Hon. James H. Platt; Woman and Investments, by Mrs. Charles Henrotin of Chicago; Banking in Canada, by B. E. Walker of Toronto; Elements of a Monetary System, by R. M. Widney of Los Angeles; Usury Laws, by W. A. Paulsen of Chicago; An Improved Clearing House System, by Walter Werner of Louisville; Measures of Municipal and Industrial Credits, by H. S. Ballou of Boston.

615 pages. Bound in half morocco, with gilt top, price $5.00; bound in cloth, price $3.00.

Review of the World's Religious Congresses. By Rev. L. P. Mercer, member of the General Committee. This descriptive and critical review of the great Parliament of Religions is published to meet the demand for a scholarly work which will be suitable for popular reading, and at the same time serve as a treatise for the use of the earnest student. Never before in the history of the world has there been such an interchange of ideas, comparison of opinions, and analysis of doctrines as took place at this great Congress. This book places in the hands of the public an epitome, simple yet deep, of this grand climax of nineteenth-century liberalism. The volume is profusely illustrated with portraits of eminent delegates and others. 334 pages. Price, bound in cloth, $1.00.

Illustrated Sketches of Death Valley and other borax deserts of the Pacific Coast. By John R. Spears. A story of apparent paradoxes and wonders. Nature, if unkind in a way, has been lavish in her gifts to this desert pit. Well has this valley been named, and yet for more than half of the year it is one of the healthiest spots of the Pacific Coast. It is a place where rainstorms are well-nigh unknown, and yet one where the effects of cloudbursts are almost unparalleled. It is the hottest spot on earth, and yet ice often forms there. It is a region where the beds of lakes are found on the pointed peaks of mountains. It is a region where a mountain system of the most gorgeously colored rocks is known as the Funeral Range. It is a rent in the earth, the bottom of which, in spite of the washings of centuries, is probably deeper below the level of the sea than that of any other valley of the world. Handsomely illustrated; 226 pages. Cloth, $1.00.

The Pacific Coast Guide-Book. Embracing California, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois. This guide-book embraces a journey from Chicago to the Pacific Coast by way of the Santa Fé Route, and covers a similar journey from St. Louis as well. It aims to furnish general information regarding the regions traversed, and specific data concerning particular points of interest by the way. By C. A. Higgins, author of "The Land of Sunshine," "To California and Back," etc. 8vo; 282 pages. Cloth, $1.00; paper, 50c.

Memoirs of an Artist. An Autobiography. By CHARLES GOUNOD. Composer of the opera "Faust," etc. Gounod's narrative of his struggle to fame, and his illuminating comments on music, painting, and persons are of intense interest. Unique and artistic cloth binding. Retail, $1.25.

A delight to all lovers of pure and vital literature; in short a classic, throbbing with warm human feeling, elevated by an exalted art and iridescent with fresh, wise, and sparkling aphorisms.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Gounod's charming memoirs can not fail to be of wide and permanent value. —Review of Reviews.

Young Greer of Kentucky. A story of modern Kentucky. By ELEANOR TALBOT KINKEAD. Author of "'Gainst Wind and Tide." Artistic cloth binding. Retail, $1.25.

Irresistibly artistic. . . . absorbing in the extreme. . . . A tenderly exquisite story. . . . infinitely, thrillingly true to an extent rarely accomplished by a novelist.—Boston Ideas.

A fine piece of art. The book is full of exquisite touches and flashes of drollery. The power of the book is accumulative.—Louisville Journal.

Journal of Marie Bashkirtseff. The only unabridged translation published. 825 pages. Artistically bound in cloth, with portrait, $1.00. half morocco, $1.50.

A book without a parallel.—Hon. W. E. Gladstone.

Pure Saxon English; or, Americans to the Front. By ELIAS MOLEE. A plea for a homogeneous, self-defining language of the world. 12mo; 167 pages. Cloth, $1.00.

Mr. Elias Molee is one of those enthusiasts who think it possible to carry linguistic reform by revolutionary methods. His "Pure Saxon English" is a vigorous recapitulation of the now familiar arguments on behalf of phonetic spelling, reform in the chartered clumsiness of the English language, and so forth.—Tribune, New York.

The author of this book is a language and spelling reformer. Many of his suggestions are excellent. . . . We believe the tendency among our writers is toward the simpler terms. . . . Mr. Molee's plan has many strong points, and to the student of language the book can not help being instructive.—The School Journal, New York.

The Republic of Costa Rica. By JOAQUIN BERNARDO CALVO. Translated from the Spanish, and edited by L. DE T. Introduction, additions, and extensions by the editor. With maps and numerous illustrations. 8vo; 292 pages. Price, $2.00.

Dr. Calvo's work enjoys high local reputation, having been adopted by the Government of Costa Rica as a reference and guide book. It is arranged compactly, in the form of paragraphic notes, and treats briefly but clearly of the resources, industries, institutions, flora, fauna, geology, etc., of the Republic. . . . The volume contains photographs of distinguished Costaricans, and views of picturesque scenery, scenes of cultivation, and public buildings. . . . Dr. Calvo's book will be found of great value to capitalists, intending investors, and projectors, travelers, and such as are in search of new countries to visit.—New York Tribune.

Honduras. The land of great depth. By CECIL CHARLES. Cloth, with map and portraits, $1.50.

One reading the book sees photographed both country and people, which could hardly be better done in the same space.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

One of the best books of its species.—Boston Herald.

Modern Art Creations

IMPERIAL QUARTO (13X15 INCHES).

A volume of 239 exquisite Artotype Engravings of the noted modern paintings of every land, selected with the purpose of illustrating the work of all schools and every phase of the art of to-day. Interleaved with 239 pages of descriptive, critical, and biographical text, by MICHAEL STRAUS, lately Royal Art Commissioner for the Kingdom of Belgium.

The broad scope and beauty of this sumptuous volume is quite unparalleled. In its production expense has not been spared — perfection at any cost having been the governing principle.

The selection of subjects for reproduction, the text, the engraving, the specially manufactured paper, and the binding, are all the work of men of the highest eminence in their respective spheres.

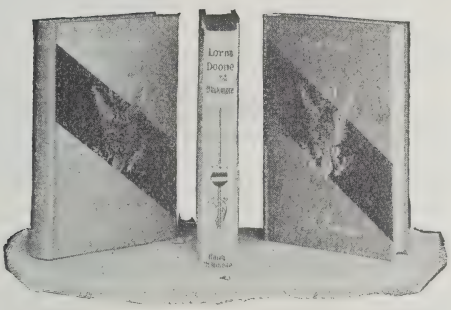
The Rand - McNally

AMERICAN LIBRARY



Every Selection for this Series Is an Acknowledged Classic.

ENTIRELY new decorative features have been introduced, which are sure to please the taste of all cultivated Americans. The National emblems are artistically blended with other chaste and elegant designs on title-page and cover. Nothing approaching the novel and charming effects produced has ever been offered to the reading public of America.

These volumes are made uniform in size and style. They are printed in large type from new plates, on extra wove paper, with deckle edges, having all the appearance of hand work. They are exquisitely bound in a new style of English art-linen, with an insertion of rich moire silk ribbon made solid with the binding, crossing the front cover diagonally. The tops, side stamps, and back titles are in gold.

The present is an opportune time for placing on the market this latest and greatest triumph of American bookmaking art.

No. 6.

GILGAL,

Stepping-Stones in the Pathway to Success.

A New Book. Proverbs Marking the Shortest Route to Fame and Fortune.

By MRS. CALVIN KRYDER REIFSNIDER.

Author of "Unforgiven," "How She Earned It," "True Memory," "Between Two Worlds," etc.

A Small Special Size, Soft Cloth 25 Cents; Regular Cloth 50 Cents.

The Item—Philadelphia, Pa.

This is the fourth edition of a little work which fairly overflows with curt little sayings. I am almost about to say the Wisdom of Solomon. Mrs. Reifsnider has modernized her sayings, however, and they are adjusted to the conditions of to-day. Through its pages here and there we find snapshots at vice, prejudice, conceit, pride, and all the peccadilloes added together which make the latter day man.

Pearls—New York.

This pretty little book of aphorism is full of good suggestions,—"Little Mirrors" the Author calls them. * * * They are wisdom set in jewels.

The Literary Review—Boston, Mass.

It differs from all other epigrammatic statements of facts in maxim, adage or axiom, some of the popular old-time sayings being torn to pieces, revised and rebuilt. The book is in line with the helpful advice and suggestions given to situation seekers in Mrs. Reifsnider's earlier economic work, "How She Earned It, or $25,000 In Eleven Years," which sprung into popularity five years ago, and has since been regarded as the faithful monitor to honest, faithful workers.

The Courier—Boston.

The work, like Mrs. Reifsnider's other books, ought to receive instant popularity. It is full of maxims, tiny in compass many of them, but great in meaning and purpose—maxims that ought to be well worth anybody's effort to memorize and to adapt for daily use.

Times—Kansas City, Mo.

In her new book of aphorisms Mrs. Reifsnider seems to inculcate the theory that a bad memory is the result of untruthfulness.

Sacred Heart Review—Boston, Mass.

The maxims and sayings contained in this volume will no doubt plant good seed in the minds of other readers, and they should produce good fruit if the soil is at all receptive.

Cycler-Ensign—Indianapolis, Ind.

Just the thing for a busy man.

Philosophical Journal—San Francisco, Cal.

It is an exhaustive compendium of maxims.

Advance—Chetopa, Kan.

It is made up from first to last of pithy, sententious paragraphs, chiefly on moral ethics on the aphorism and proverb order.

Blade—Toledo, O.

It is made up of short, pithy sayings embodying some truth that deserves attention.

The Book Buyer—New York.

Not since the publication of the Proverbs of King Solomon has such an exhaustive compendium of maxims been issued.

Wetsern Christian Union—Boonville, Mo.

We often carry this book with us on the railway trains. It is just the thing for busy, thinking people.

Book Seller, News Dealer and Stationer—New York.

The observations are not only wise, but practical, and stated with admirable terseness and force.

The Book Seller—Chicago.

The old-time popular sayings and maxims are rebuilt, as it were, to suit the advanced stage of human thought.

The New Time—Chicago, Ill.

It is one of the most suggestive little works I have read in months. No one can fail to be benefited by its perusal. Every page is rich in truths stated in a bright and taking manner.

Canadian Book Seller.

It differs from all other epigrammatic statements of facts in maxim, adage, or axiom, some of the popular, old-time sayings being torn to pieces, revised and rebuilt.

The Journal—Toledo, O.

The book is a casket of axioms, original with the Author, and many of them are stimulating and beautiful.

The American—Nashville, Tenn.

The book shows a sincere striving toward the development of character.

The Times—Chattanooga, Tenn.

It is a compendium of bon mots, up-to-date adages, and curt but decided reflections of every-day life.

Tribune—Chicago, Ill.

It contains a large fund of what might be called three-line sermons.

No. 5.

BETWEEN TWO WORLDS.

A VIVID PICTURE.

Showing the Relation Between the Natural and the "Spiritual Worlds." How those who go to the "Other Side" leaving work undone "Come Back" and finish it through others here.

Originally Published as a "Serial" in the Arena during the year 1896.

By MRS. CALVIN KRYDER REIFSNIDER.

Author of "Unforgiven," "How She Earned It," "True Memory," "Gilgal," etc.

Handsomely Illustrated. Elegantly Bound, Blue and Gold. Price $1.00.

Tribune—Chicago, Ill.

The story deals with the psychological development of two contrasted young women and becomes, before its triumphant close, a narrative of more than common interest.

The Item—Philadelphia, Pa.

There is a tender and sympathetic, yet with all, religious vein running through the work, which is sure to commend it to the average reader. When one has finished and laid aside the book it is with regret. It will be widely read, particularly by those who believe in open visions.

The Literary Review—Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Reifsnider takes us into the realms of the mystical and psychical and leads us into trains of thought that our minds find unusual while she gives us columns of profound truths that sink deep into the heart. * * It is an impressive work replete with deep philosophy, full of the spirit of life, and entertains with high religious fervor. It is a book for the times, it meets the spirit of the age and its mission is for good.

Banner of Light—Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Reifsnider has endeavored to swing wide open the door between this and the Spiritual world, that the angels born of "Celestial Love" may be seen and known and invited to the hearts of mankind. She may be termed a Christian Spiritualist, but her's is a loving God from whom only purity and goodness emanate.

Tribune—Utica, N. Y.

The story is lofty in its ideals and spirit and is free from much of the irrationality of most writings of the kind. To anyone interested in psychical and metaphysical thought it ought to prove very suggestive.

Herald—Boston, Mass.

The book is founded on the idea of communication between the souls of the departed and their closest friends on earth.

Post-Dispatch—St. Louis, Mo,

It contains many striking incidents and inspiring thoughts.

Courier—Boston, Mass.

It is a story of wonderfully spiritual significance to all who shall come in contact with it,—a story of high spiritual meanings, and with a purpose that is most touching, sincere and beautiful. This book has no need to be brought among the so-called Spiritualistic books that have been written under a so-called inspiration. Its concept is far superior to such ethereal works, and its author has certainly received a true inspiration. The work is easily comprehended by those who will to do so.

Hawkeye—Burlington, Ia.

We are made to see the other life as the author conceives it and feel for the time at least that the veil is but a thin one that separates the life here from the one beyond.

Canadian Bookseller—Toronto, Can.

We recommend it to those who are interested in this class of reading.

The Progressive Thinker—Chicago, Ill.

The story forms the thread to which are attached instructive and entertaining lessons pertaining to the physical, mental, moral and spiritual being of man, and the unfoldment of the finer and spiritual-esthetic nature. The book is remarkable for showing exquisitely fine power in the working out of the author's ideal.

Medical Argus—Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. Reifsnider goes straight to the heart of her subject and the reader lives in the lives of her character. The book is a grand one and there is an uplift in it for every person who will read it carefully and intelligently. It teaches true life after death. It teaches true christianity as opposed to creeds and formalism. It teaches a higher and better life and it impresses the thought that our friends who have passed beyond help us and guide us in the completion of our work here.

Herald—Columbia, Mo.

It is a remarkable story dealing with the higher pyschical and metaphysical concepts of our age. No man, woman or child can read this story of "Two Worlds," or rather, the interblending of "Two Worlds," without being made better and nobler thereby.

Reporter—Logansport, Ind.

It is a book that must be read to be appreciated. It is a great psychic work and appeals to reason. It illustrates clearly what the spirit body is, where and how it lives and how it returns and works through those left behind.

Bookseller and Stationer—Toroton, Canada.

For those who like a certain degree of mysticism, of the direct spiritual influences that are often vaguely drawn from the Christian belief, and who appreciate discussions of this kind in the shape of a story, the volume will prove attractive.

The Blade—Toledo, O.

It is an effort to show the process of spiritual development in the different characters presented, some of them reaching a high plane, not through obedience of the laws as laid down by the ordinary religious teacher, but through following in every action in daily life what his inner monitor tells him was right.

Universal Truth—New York.

It deals with the higher psychical and metaphysical thought of the age. It is strangely written and full of dramatic power.

The Banner—Nashville, Tenn.

The object of the book is to show that spiritual development is possible in the flesh, and that where this is devoutly sought it will be found and will be rewarded with visible manifestations in this life.

The Ohio State Journal—Columbus, O.

The book is interesting to begin with and grows even fascinating as the reader progresses; its spirit and ideals are elevating, and while it is written after the manner of a romance it contains as much truth as some more profound didactic treatises on soul life.

The Star—St. Louis, Mo.

Of all St. Louis authors Mrs. Reifsnider is perhaps the best known. She has written several good things and all who have read them will be interested in her new story.

The Budget—Boston, Mass.

It is a profoundly interesting story which the author has made the medium for dealing with the higher psychical and metaphysical thought of the age and for giving an answer to the question whether or not human souls return again to earth after completing their own earthly pilgrimage to lend inspiratiou and light to those who have yet to reach the threshhold of eternity.

Chronicle—San Francisco, Cal.

The thread of a dramatic little love story runs through it.

The Journal—Detroit, Mich.

The second edition of Mrs. Reifsnider's new work, "Between Two Worlds," made its appearance to the trade on the 13th, fully sixty days earlier than expected at the issue of the first edition two months ago.

The Call—San Francisco, Cal.

The book was written with a good purpose.

Standard Union—Brooklyn, N. Y.

A queer, yet by no means dull tale.

Freemason's Repository—Providence, R. I.

It is a book that will attract attention and arouse interest.

No. 4.

TRUE MEMORY,

THE PHILOSOPHER'S STONE.

Its Loss Through Adam, Its Recovery Through Christ.

A New Presentation Concerning the Creation of the World, the Fall of Man, the Life and Mission of Christ, the Present Condition of the Earth and the Future of the Race.

"The Greatest Book of the Century Just Closing."—The Arena.

Elegantly Cloth Bound. Blue and Silver, Richly Illustrated, $1.00.

By MRS. CALVIN KRYDER REIFSNIDER,

Author of "Between Two Worlds," "How She Earned It," "Gilgal," etc.

The Item—Philadelphia, Pa.

There are books and books. This is one of those astounding ones that will be read and talked about. It will stimulate thought and inspire ardent admiration on the one hand, bitter opposition on the other. Many may be unable to read it, but it will richly pay those who can, and will inspire all sincere seekers after truth and its unselfish life to reach out and compass the end for which in the Divine Providence the book was given.

The Budget—Boston, Mass.

It is a book with a mission of helpfulness to the doubter or the one whose mind is drifting hither and thither as the Will-o'-the-Wisp of this or that "ism" may suggest, while to those who simply fail to withstand alike the exacting material burdens of the time and the disintegrating forces set at work by would-be iconoclasts, its fervid spirituality will be devoutly appreciated.

The New Christianity—Philadelphia.

It is a most wonderful book. As a story it is entrancing, while underneath is a philosophy and revelation that could have been retained only by that preparation that the author claims was hers under the direction of an inner voice from infancy. * * It opens to fearful view the present spiritual condition of our civilized world and of our Christendom, and enables the reader to realize the vanity and transitoriness of earthly things, while it appeals with mighty power to the sense-bound spirit to break its fetters and go forth into the heavenly manhood.

The Tribune—Salt Lake City, Utah.

A metaphysical abstraction born of dreams and the mystical study of the Scriptures.

The Journal—Milwaukee, Wis.

A religious book, but the Christian revelation is interpreted in a way taught by no church or creed.

The Dispatch—Columbus, O.

A thoughtful little book.

The Sentinel—Indianapolis, Ind.

This book elucidates a line of thought regarding the philosophy of life here and hereafter. * * The subject matter is presented as a dream, a scroll being unrolled upon which the scheme of life here and hereafter was outlined.

The Banner—Nashville, Tenn.

It deals not with man's natural memory, his storehouse of inductive knowledge, but with the spiritual memory, especially as to the true knowledge and acknowledgment of God, how that knowledge was lost, what man was before the loss of "True Memory" and what he will become after its restoration, also what the earth and its furnishings will become under the reign of "True Memory" regained.

The Chronicle—San Francisco, Cal.

In the beginning all life was pure and spiritual and it so remained until Adam debased it by cultivating a taste for the things of earth. Christ came to restore the original spiritual condition by endowing man with the "True Memory," which wholly rejects all that is remembered which is not from God.

The New Church Messenger—New York

A striking feature of the teachings of the book before us is the intimate connection which it represents as obtaining between the natural and the spiritual worlds. This is shown both in its representation of the creation of the things of nature and in the changes in nature to be accomplished by man's spiritual redemption.

Free Press—Detroit, Mich.

"True Memory" is an interpretation of the significance and real meaning of the creation and the fall of man, as related in the opening chapters of the Bible. It is the Philosopher's Stone that turns man's thoughts into spiritual truth and leads him to celestial good.

State Journal—Columbus, O.

Like most of the Arena publications, it is a book with a purpose, and the author dedicates the "message" to all who can receive it and live by its teachings.

Plain Dealer—Cleveland, O.

The entire book seems to have been conceived and written by a person in a state of remarkable religious exaltation and cannot fail to deeply impress all who read it.

No. 3.

HOW SHE EARNED IT;

Or $25,000 In Eleven Years.

By THE WOMAN WHO DID IT.

Author of "Unforgiven," "True Memory," "Between Two Worlds," "Gilgal," Etc.

Fourth Edition. Illustrated. Cloth $1.00.

Record—Philadelphia, Pa.

The book is valuable because of the shrewd and kindly advice which the author gives to young men and women as to their dress, their pursuits and their companionships, and as to the dignity which attaches to all kinds of labor.

North American—Philadelphia, Pa.

A book which proves the importance of a practical education for young Americans and offers useful advice and observations of value upon the relative merits of the occupations open to men and women.

The Post—Boston, Mass.

The book tells how the author kept house, took care of her babies and found time to write books.

Telegraph—Philadelphia, Pa.

Full of practical suggestions and written in a bright and cheery manner.

Evening Herald—Philadelphia, Pa.

There is room for other such publications and this little book should meet with a wide sale.

The Evening Item—Philadelphia, Pa.

A work which might be placed with advantage in the hands of every young woman who is compelled to depend on her own exertions for a living. * * It is to be hoped that the work will receive a large circulation among the self-dependent young women of the United States.

Commercial Gazette—Pittsburg, Pa.

It was written and published to show other willing but unguided mortals how to get into paths of peace and prosperity.

Rocky Mountain News—Denver, Col.

It is written in a kindly spirit and certainly does contain many helpful hints and much useful advice.

Daily Traveler—Boston, Mass.

A remarkable book.

Telegram—New York City.

A worthy literary undertaking.

Florida Times-Union — Jacksonville, Fla.

To an ambitious girl or woman this book can hardly fail to be an inspiration. It is written for the encouragement of women who are—from necessity or choice—bread-winners. * * * Her advice is sound and sensible, and every girl, and boy, too, for that matter, should make it a point to learn her views.

Times—Kansas City, Mo.

It is a work that should be carefully read by every young man, and particularly by every young woman, who wishes to succeed in making a living. * * The book appeals to all classes of readers, not only from its literary merit, which is unquestionably great, but from the fact that it is a record of woman's ability to achieve success when urged to the effort by the combined forces of ambition and maternal affection.

Times-Star—Cincinnati, O.

An interesting and helpful little book.

Republican—Denver, Col.

She aims to encourage women who, like herself, are suddenly thrown upon their own resources, and it is plain, practical and earnest.

Dispatch—Columbus, O.

In every way the story, if such the plain recital can be called, is worthy of attention.

Appeal-Avalanche—Memphis, Tenn,

There has not been written a book containing more good advice or more encouragement to the wage-earning public than this little volume.

Bee—Omaha, Neb.

It is an earnest appeal to all working women to be earnest and conscientious in their work and to never be satisfied short of the top round in the ladder.

Chronicle—San Francisco, Cal.

The book is full of encouragement for ambitious workers.

Post—San Francisco, Cal.

The book is full of good, practical advice.

The World—Cleveland, O.

Contains any amount of good advice to young men and young women.

Herald—Utica, N. Y.

It is filled with practical suggestions for all who would learn the way to business success.

Evening Star—Washington, D. C.

Worth a woman's while to read.

Record—Chicago, Ill.

It is filled with wholesome advice.

Times—Pittsburg, Pa.

A book which women ought to read. If they are strong and hopeful it will make them stronger and more hopeful. If they are despairing in the struggle of life it will give them courage and cheer.

Times-Union—Albany, N. Y.

A story of how an energetic woman, thrown upon her own resources, with others depending on her, took up the battle and fought her own way to victory and a competency.

New Christianity—Philadelphia, Pa.

At a time when many doors to remunerative employment seemed closed, but yet when much work is poorly and discouragingly performed, this little book comes as a God-send to many people, especially to the young.

Republic—St. Louis, Mo.

It is full of sound, wholesome advice to girls and boys, and in truth anyone is benefited by the truths presented in succinct yet very interesting style.

Tribune—Milwaukee, Wis.

Her story is instructive and helpful.

Times-Star—Cincinnati, O.

Would it were in the hands of every woman.

Post-Intelligencer—Seattle, Wash.

She tells how and why some people succeed and others fail, and points out the stumbling blocks.

Philosophical Journal—San Francisco.

This volume contains earnest words of advice and instruction to those who want to "get on in the world." It will pay for a careful reading and study.

Sunday Tribune—Minneapolis, Minn.

To read her story is instructive and helpful. She gives some good advice and appears to know what she is talking about.

Morning News—Savannah, Ga.

This is a very readable story and possesses unusual interest for those who are seeking to make their way in the world.

Daily Post—Houston, Tex.

The book teaches courage, resolution and perseverance.

Daily Sun—Chicago, Ill.

A bright narrative of facts culled from experience and observation, showing why some succeed and others fail.

New Church Messenger—Newark, N. J.

A sensible book, written by a sensible woman, whose purpose is use, and whose practical insight into the fields of labor open to women will make the book profitable reading for many who are beginning the heavier problems of vital mathematics.

Times—Minneapolis, Minn.

It is published * * * as a guide to wavering wanderers who now grope their way through the darkness and doubt of inexperience.

Record-Union—Sacramento, Cal.

It is a readable, sensible narrative, and contains much wisdom and excellent views. It will do all wage-earning women good to read it.

The Sunday Oregonian—Portland, Ore.

It is interesting since it is the story of a plucky fight against adversity and the chances of self-maintenance.

Evening Post—Albany, N. Y.

We heartily endorse it.

Morning Journal—Brooklyn, N. Y.

A big advance over most persons who teach household economy from a safe distance.

Ohio State Journal—Columbus, O.

A book that will give aid and strength to many thousands.

Commercial—Toledo, O.

Her secret is soon told and will apply to any other business. It is simply thoroughness and system.

Commercial Advertiser—Detroit, Mich

Her task seems to have been a herculean one; yet she accomplished it.

Daily Gazette—Delaware, O.

A book, remarkable in the great practical value it holds, especially to young women ambitious to win an honest success in life.

Public Ledger—Philadelphia, Pa.

A novel which upholds a high ideal of womanhood.

Sentinel—Indianapolis, Ind.

It points the pathway to success to women who, like the writer, are thrown upon their own resources and compelled to be the mathematics of their own fortunes.

No. 2.

SAVED BY A DREAM.

A WONDERFUL STORY.

By CONSUELO.

Third Edition. Illustrated. Cloth $1.00.

The Sunday Item—Philadelphia, Pa.

"Saved by a Dream." This is a strange story, indeed, and, while rather improbable, still that does not make it any the less interesting.

The heroine is an enthusiastic Christian, and throughout the book the reader is everywhere impressed with her faith in Providence, and with her belief that under all circumstances God will take care of her. The book will please all those who like stories with a tinge of the supernatural.

Inter-Ocean—Chicago, Ill.

"Saved by a Dream" is a well told and thoroughly satisfactory story. It is sensational, and barely escapes being tragic, and the interest increases to the end—the villains are of the meanest class and the good barely escape being over good to be natural and belong to the earth. There is nothing unreasonable in the announcement that a human soul is guided and directed by influences unfelt and by voices unheard by others. It is in keeping with the teachings of inspiration and in harmony with Christian thought and belief. Not only that, but every Christian man and woman listens for that voice and seldom goes wrong when it is heard. The man that feels himself cut off from the direct supervision of unseen and Divine power has robbed himself of the grandest incentive that enters into life. This Divine power and influence every day shapes the lives of millions of people during their waking hours, and there is nothing strange if the heavenly messengers should sometimes come to us in dreams. The author, who is a well-known St. Louis lady, has no occasion to hide behind a non de plume in "Saved by a Dream.' The story as a story is ingenious and well worded, and the teachings sweet and fresh and pure.

Commercial Bulletin—Minneapolis.

"Saved by a Dream," by Consuelo. To the critical reader of the book, it will hardly be accounted strange that one who had all her life been guided by dreams, so-called, should feel that all other human beings are similarly favored, as she says in her introduction, did they but know it. Perhaps if all human beings realized and recognized and were loyal to the source of their good promptings, there would be more peace and prosperity, such as has come to "Consuelo' through her invisible friends. The story is interesting in itself, but the dream phenomena that surrounds it is more so. The book will undoubtedly have a very large sale.

Picayune—New Orleans, La.

"Saved by a Dream," by Consuelo. A weird tale, and one of consuming interest. Some might call it improbable, impossible. Some of the incidents are certainly unusual, but no one who admits that a higher power "shapes our ends" can say that these things might not have happened just as they are here related. The heroine, Grace, has a remarkable dream, which warns her of some good that she shall do. Visiting next day an insane asylum she meets her brother-in-law's wife, whom he has imprisoned there that he might possess her fortune. He finds out his danger of exposure, kidnaps Grace and endeavors to make way with her, but guided by a higher power, she frustrates his plans, delivers his miserable wife from her living tomb, and he, in the frenzy of fear and disappointment, goes mad himself. The tale is distinctly religious, though not sermonistic. It is clean and pure, and asserts the eternal victory of right over wrong.

Commercial Advertiser—New York.

"Saved by a Dream." Here we have one of the wildest romances of the season. A lady has a dream and recounts it in a mixed company. Very soon after she is seized, carried away and put into a position of imminent peril, from which, however, she escapes with other results than those which had been hoped for when she was kidnapped. It incidentally reflects on the egregious possibilities of insanity law, by means of which it is possible to commit sane persons to an asylum, keep them there in defiance of facts, justice or humanity.

The Morning Call—San Francisco, Cal.

"Saved by a Dream." A remarkable contribution to current literature is this new book by Consuelo. It is the story of a woman who is a firm believer in dreams, who is inspired by them, and by some unseen power which controls her every action in life. The heroine in a dream sees an apparition, a woman in distress, and in after life finds the counterpart of the vision in the person of a woman detained in an asylum for the insane, ascertains that she is not out of her mind, but placed in the keeper's care for the purpose of accommodating a husband who is anxious to be rid of her in order that he may control her fortune. The book is made up of a great many sensational divisions and impossible situations, but the purpose of the author seems to be to prove that dreams are the true guides, if properly interpreted, to what is to happen. As a book showing to what ends the imagination can be drawn upon to construct a plot it is remarkable.

Rev. Dr. H. W. Thomas—Chicago, Ill.

It is a great mistake to suppose that this form of literature must necessarily be light; a good novel is the best of books; it may deal with the greatest questions, and have the highest thoughts, expressional and emotional values.

Judged by these essentials of literary excellence, "Saved by a Dream" is far above the average book. It has something to say; says it well; and with the evident purpose of reaching and influencing other minds and hearts. Nor is it a new doctrine, that of this book; that there is ever near and over open-visioned, willing and trusting souls the guiding and sustaining presence of God through the agency of dreams and visions and the ministry of angels. It runs through almost every part of the Old and New Testament; it was the belief and experience of Socrates; and millions of illumined minds in all ages have been conscious of some unseen presence in the great hours of life.

Why should minds and hearts dwell in isolation? Why should distance or prison walls and iron bars separate souls and shut off the cry of the needy? Surely they cannot come between the soul and God, nor block the pathway of the angel world. And the noble and helpful object of "Saved by a Dream" is to quicken the faith and consciousness of mankind in the nearness and reality of the unseen; and its safety is in the fact that it teaches a perfect consecration to God, and an abiding trust in His wisdom and power and goodness, and a glad and confident submission to His will; that the innocent and the wronged can wait for vindication, but that there is no escape for the wicked from the consequences of their deeds. Were these great truths realized by all, this would be a different world.

News—Denver, Colo.

"Saved by a Dream," by Consuelo. A weird story in which the heroine is led by dreams and spirit voices to do those things she ought and shun hidden dangers. The plot, which is an improbable one, is carried forward to a dramatic denouement. The author seems to desire to impress the idea that certain faculties possessed by a few gifted persons, which bring them into nearer relations with the spiritual world, are susceptible of development in others.

UNFORGIVEN.

By MRS. CALVIN KRYDER REIFSNIDER.

Author of "How She Earned It," "True Memory," "Between Two Worlds," "Gilgal," etc.

Fourth Edition. Elegantly Cloth Bound. Illustrated. $1.00.

The Item—Philadelphia, Pa.

"Unforgiven," the gloomy title of this book, is not borne out by the contents. The novel was the first fruits of a new authoress. That it caught the popular fancy is shown that a second edition was made necessary and that it is put forth in pretty style. It is a graceful, sparkling tale.

Transcript—Boston, Mass.

The story of "Unforgiven" is a strongly dramatic one worked out with no little skill.

Inter-Ocean—Chicago, Ill.

This is a second edition of an interesting romance. It is a book calculated to make every reader better who reads it. It will encourage the sorrowing and brighten the lives of many. It is full of sunshine and helpfulness, and all its lessons are excellent.

Bulletin—Philadelphia, Pa.

Marks the popularity which has attended Mrs. Reifsnider's efforts to produce a pure and healthy story.

Press—Pittsburgh, Pa.

The book is wholesome throughout and shows that wealth alone cannot produce the opening of the gates to happen with a golden key.

Paladium—New Haven, Conn.

Despite its somewhat severe and unattractive title, this is a book which cannot fail to interest and charm a very wide circle of readers.

Times Union—Albany, N. Y.

The heroine, by reason of her luxurious surroundings, is enabled to partially realize the purposes of existence, but the very fact of her wealth is shown to be a barrier to those best things which God's poor may have.

Daily Sun—Chicago, Ill.

It is simply a charming sketch that carries the reader through the sunshine of poverty and the dark places of wealth.

Journal—Kansas City, Mo.

It is a story of the struggle which deserving poverty makes to reach a higher mental and spiritual life.

Dispatch—Columbus, O.

Elicited much praise when given to the reading public.

State Journal—Columbus, O.

The theme of the story is the development of the true life through loving conscientious work.

The World—Cleveland, O.

It is the simple story of the work-a-day world told in good English, and with a narrative which keeps the interest of the reader unflagging to the end.

The Mail—Chicago, Ill.

Is a conscientious and impressive story intended to portray the folly and injustice of a jealous disposition and the inability of true hearted womanhood and mankind.

Dispatch—St. Paul, Minn.

Its simple story is one that will appeal to every heart which has in it any appreciation of the struggles of life.

The Bee—Toledo, O.

It is refreshing to open up such a novel as this filled with so much that tends to make the struggling man of to-day holier, happier and blessed.

Star—Washington, D. C.

A decidedly creditable production whose fields of life and literary have been thorny, yet, in obedience to a cultivating force that would not rest, productive of profit.

Evening Post—San Francisco, Cal.

The story is of a handsome girl, an artist, whose struggle with the world and against false report is well depicted.

Tribune—Minneapolis, Minn.

Her experience and courage are a powerful lesson to every woman thoughtful enough to heed it.

Enterprise—Albert Lea, Minn.

The author has certainly woven a plot that holds the reader's attention to the end.

Blade—Toledo, O.

All its lessons are excellent.

The Enquirer—Cicinnnati, O.

A very interesting story and one full of action and life.

The News—Savannah, Ga.

This story has some excellent features that will commend it to lovers of fiction. That it possesses merit there is no doubt.

The Review—Wilmington, N. C.

The purpose is wholesome and helpful, and united with a narrative told in graceful style makes a book that will add many thousands to Mrs. Reifsnider's readers.

Metropolis—Jacksonville, Fla.

It makes the road of poverty brighter by contemplation of its own possibilities.

The Republic—St. Louis, Mo.

There are some very human touches, it has forcible expression and is very earnest.

The Kennebec Journal—Augusta, Me.

There are no dreary places in it.

Gazette—Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. Reifsnider has earned well-merited distinction by her successes, not only in literary work, but in her financial efforts.

Commercial—Toledo, O.

There is scarcely one dull page in the book.

Traveler—Boston, Mass.

It is a notable edition to the Happy Hour Library.

Times—Minneapolis, Minn.

A simple story flowing on in sunshine and shadow.

The Commercial—Toledo, O.

It is a story so full of sunshine, of helpfulness, of wholesome morals as tends to brighten the pathway of daily toil and open wide the floodgates of joy in the mere fact of living. Books like these of Mrs. Reifsnider's are more than welcome in this age of misanthropy and misrepresentation.

New Church Messenger—Newark, N. J.

We are especially pleased with the moral health of the book. It deserves commendation on that ground as well as upon the ground of skill and art, both of which are brought into just play in the story.

Sun—Baltimore, Md.

The story is a good moral, and is a description of that ideal of life which results in a happy marriage.

Tribune—Minneapolis, Minn.

"Unforgiven" is a novel that has perhaps cheered more readers than is usually given to any one book to accomplish.

Free Press—Detroit, Mich.

The story is full of incident, and has at times a dramatic strength which stamps the author as a woman with decided ability.

Journal of Commerce—New York

It will doubtless give many happy hours to the reader who may be fond of works of this character.

THE HOLY LAND

IN GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY.

By TOWNSEND MAC COUN, A.M.,

Member of the American Historical Association, Fellow of the American Geographical Society, Author of "Historical Geography Charts of the United States," "Historical Geography Charts of Europe," etc.

Vol. I—GEOGRAPHY. ILLUSTRATED BY 53 MAPS.

Vol. II—HISTORY. ILLUSTRATED BY 101 MAPS.

FLEXIBLE CLOTH, 7X4½. PER SET, $2.00.

These two volumes, the acme of all that is best in the printer's and engraver's arts, must rank among the best publications of their kind. The product of many years of study and research, the author has spared neither time nor money in making these multum in parvo volumes to be models of accuracy and finish, while his marvelous ability to condense information renders them a veritable encyclopedia of Biblical information.

THE AUTHOR'S EFFORT.

There are numerous histories of Israel and of the time of Christ, but they are voluminous and costly works. The ordinary maps of Palestine, the limited number in our teachers' Bibles, or the folded ones in books of travel, do not meet the want. They either are not adapted to the period under consideration, or they contain so much and so many details as to be confusing, or they are too large for practical purposes, and ill adapted for use in teaching.

The Geography should be based upon the results of an actual survey. It should present the natural features of the land in a plain and attractive manner, showing especially those things which the ordinary reader of the Bible most often wishes to find. With this should be an identification, as far as known, of the Biblical sites.

The History should consist principally of a series of progressive historical maps, so arranged as not only to emphasize the fact that Biblical history is part of, and inseparable from the world's general history, but also so complete as to embrace a special map, for each specific period of the country's history, for every lesson which a teacher may have to teach. To lay before a class each Sabbath for a year one to three new maps, especially prepared for that lesson, means interest, attention and comprehension in that class.

The text should be brief and suggestive, based on the scripture narrative but written in the light of the latest discoveries of science and archæology, and of the broadest, most critical scholarship.

To be of practical use it must be a small, handy volume for quick reference at home, convenient for the lady teacher to carry to Sabbath-school with her teacher's Bible, or for the gentleman teacher to drop into his side pocket. Moreover, its cost must be so nominal as to place it within the purchasing power of all.

An attempt to supply such a work is the author's excuse for this book.

—From the Preface.

THE AUTHOR'S SUCCESS.

"We are acquainted with no other work that combines the attractive features of Mr. Mac Coun's compact little volumes."—Review of Reviews.

"Here are the daintiest, neatest, cheeriest 'Bible Helps' that ever greeted the eyes of those who have to do with the many big, dark and heavy books which have been written about the one great book."—Wooster Quarterly.

"I know of no other work of the kind as completely abreast of the present stage of Biblical learning and archæological research. The work is thus completely fresh and up to date. As a handbook for students it must be simply invaluable."—Rev. William F. Gold, S.T.D., Western Episcopal Theological Seminary.

"I wonder at your patience and exactitude in all the work you have done. It is really wonderful. I also admire your ability to make things clear and short. The book will undoubtedly be of very great help to all intelligent Bible students, and I shall be glad to recommend it to my class of Sunday-school teachers. I personally feel indebted to you for the work you have done which, by just so much, lightens the work of everyone who follows in your footsteps."—Rev. A. F. Schauffler, D.D., Vice-Pres. City Mission and Tract Society.

"I marvel at the comprehensiveness and erudition of these books of yours and rejoice in the profusion of maps. These alone are worth more than the whole. It surely will be of immense value to S. S. Teachers and Bible students."—Rev. F. Monroe Gibson, D.D., Pres. National Council of the Evangelical Free Churches of Great Britain.

"I am enthusiastic over it, and if it proves all through as good as it has thus far, I shall not only recommend it here to the students, but in every place where I go to speak on Bible study."—R. A. Torrey, Supt. of Moody's Bible Institute.

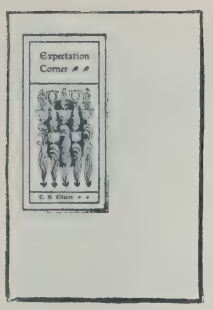
The Perfected Life Booklets.



This series, as a whole, and the individual booklets included in it, have been and are extremely popular. For this the reasons are plain. There is probably not another series sold at the very modest prices asked for this, which has for its contributors any such list of authors as has this. The very wide range of the topics treated should also be noticed. The bindings, of which two are pictured in the accompanying cuts, are highly attractive.

Decorated paper, each, net 10 cents.

1. "God's Box." A Home Missionary Episode. By Mabel Nelson Thurston. Illustrated.
2. Cripple Tom, by Mrs. Walter Searle, and His Royal Highness, by Rev. C. H. Mead, D.D.

The Quiet Hour Series.

A new series of small books on subjects of great importance. Daintily bound in ivory-colored buckram, decorated on front and reverse covers with an extremely effective design, of which the accompanying cut is a reproduction.

18mo, cloth, each, 25 cents.

1. A Life for a Life, and Other Addresses. By Prof. Henry Drummond. With a Tribute by D. L. Moody, and a Portrait.
"There is something so sane, so rational, so spiritual, in these addresses that no one can read them without heart warming and life inspiring."—The Standard.

2. Peace, Perfect Peace. A Portion for the Sorrowing. By Rev. F. B. Meyer, B.A.
"Though the book is a little one, it carries much more consolation than many larger volumes."—The Congregationalist.

3. Money: Thoughts for God's Stewards. By Rev. Andrew Murray.
"He would have us give more thoughtfully and prayerfully, whether the gifts are great or small, for the blessing follows the motive of the heart and not the abundance of the giver."—The Christian Observer.

4. Jesus Himself. By Rev. Andrew Murray.
"In this little book the Christian reader listens to one to whom his heart responds."—The Mid-Continent.

5. Love Made Perfect. By Rev. Andrew Murray. With Portrait.
"There is good food here for all devout souls."—The Christian Advocate, Nashville.

6. The Ivory Palaces of the King. By Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D. With Portrait.
"Brief, impressive observations about spiritual duty and character, intended to lead the unbelieving to Christ, and to stimulate Christians."—The Congregationalist.

7. Christ Reflected in Creation. By D. C. McMillan.
"A devout and reverent little volume, in which the author seeks to point out the harmony of the Divine plan in the march of human events and the working of mankind."—The Episcopal Recorder.

8. How the Inner Light Failed. A Study of the Atrophy of the Spiritual Sense. To which is added "How the Inner Light Grows." By Newell Dwight Hillis.
This little book places in permanent form one of Dr. Hillis's very best essays. Samson is the central character, and round the failure of Israel's man of might is builded a structure of admonition and inspiration to men of to-day.

9. The Men Who Wanted to Help. By Rev. J. G. K. McClure, D.D., President of Lake Forest University, and author of "Possibilities."

10. Young Men in History. By Rev. F. W. Gunsaulus, D.D.
Shows how far the course of events in both sacred and secular history has been influenced by young men.

11. St. Paul: An Autobiography. Transcribed by the Deaconess, a servant of the Church.
A compilation of the various autobiographical passages found in Paul's writings.

12. Faith Building. By Rev. Wm. P. Merrill, D.D.
Addressed to young people who are doubtful in the midst of their faith, and faithful in the midst of their doubt.

13. The Dearest Psalm and the Model Prayer. By Henry Ostrom, D.D.

14. The Life Beyond. By Mrs. Alfred Gatty. Adapted by M. A. T. An allegory, by the author of "Parables from Nature."

15. Mountain Tops with Jesus. By Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D.

The Blessed Life Series.

18mo, decorated cloth, each, 30 cents.

BY THE REV. F. B. MEYER, B.A.

1. The Shepherd Psalm.
"These meditations on the twenty-third Psalm are earnest, devout, practical."—The Evangelist.

2. Christian Living.
"Full of rich, ripe thought and strength and encouragement for the Christian heart."—Christian Work.

3. The Present Tenses of the Blessed Life.
"He always has something to say that is suggestive, constantly casts light upon the Scripture."—The S. S. Times.

4. The Future Tenses of the Blessed Life.
"Full of tender comfort and helpful suggestions."—The Interior.

5. Through Fire and Flood.
"The author's pungent and impressive style shapes the message for encouragement and comfort."—The Presbyterian.

6. The Glorious Lord.
"It abounds in Biblical knowledge and evangelical earnestness."—The Churchman.

7. Key Words of the Inner Life.
"Mr. Meyer writes fluently and forcibly of the deep things of God, and fosters spiritual hunger while he feeds it."—The N. Y. Observer.

8. Calvary to Pentecost.
"All Mr. Meyer's books are welcome, but none more than this. It is rich food for the aspiring Christian."—The Standard.

BY THE REV. ANDREW MURRAY.

9. Humility: The Beauty of Holiness.

10. Be Perfect. A Message from the Father in Heaven to His Children on Earth. Meditations for a Month.

11. Let Us Draw Nigh! The Way to a Life Abiding Continually in the Secret of God's Presence.

12. Why Do You Not Believe? Words of Instruction and Encouragement for all Seeking the Lord.

16mo, flexible cloth, gilt tops, each, 50 cents; the set, boxed, $2.00.

The Shepherd Psalm.
Christian Living.
The Present Tenses.
The Future Tenses.

The With Christ Series.

By Rev. ANDREW MURRAY.

Comprising the six great works in connection with which the author attained such world-wide favor as a writer of helpful and spiritual devotional works. The bindings are unique and attractive, and the price, which in view of the fact that this is the authorized edition, upon which royalties are paid to the author, was already astonishingly low, has now been still further reduced.

The set of 6 volumes, 16mo, boxed, bound in white or colored cloth, $2.00.

1. With Christ in the School of Prayer. Thoughts on our Training for the Ministry of Intercession.
2. Abide in Christ. Thoughts on the Blessed Life of Fellowship with the Son of God.
3. Like Christ. Thoughts on the Blessed Life of Conformity to the Son of God.
4. Holy in Christ. Thoughts on the Calling of God's Children to be Holy as He is Holy.
5. The Spirit of Christ. Thoughts on the Indwelling of the Holy Spirit in the Believer and the Church.
6. The Master's Indwelling. Northfield Addresses, 1895.

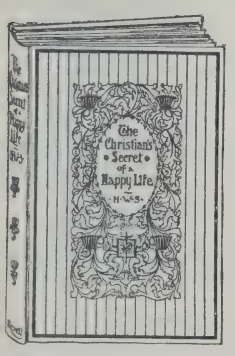
The Spirit-Filled Life Series.



A series of devotional books of exceptional value, including only copyright works by authors of wide reputation whose writings are rapidly becoming classics among Christian readers. The publishers' purpose is to supply some of the most popular religious works in such a form and at such a price as must insure an enormous sale. It is only in view of such large editions that the almost nominal price is made possible. The books are bound in the finest cloths, artistically decorated in two colors.

12mo, decorated cloth, each, net, 30 cents.

1. The Spirit-Filled Life. By the late Rev. John MacNeil.
2. The Christian's Secret of a Happy Life. By Hannah Whitall Smith.
3. A Castaway, and Other Addresses. By Rev. F. B. Meyer, B.A.
4. Light on Life's Duties. By Rev. F. B. Meyer, B.A.
5. The Secret of Guidance. By Rev. F. B. Meyer, B.A.
6. In Christ. By Rev. A. J. Gordon, D.D.
7. Heaven on Earth. By Rev. A. C. Dixon, D.D.
8. The Overcoming Life. By D. L. Moody.
9. Absolute Surrender. By Rev. Andrew Murray.
10. Meet for the Master's Use. By Rev. F. B. Meyer.

The Nonpariel Series.

Reprints at greatly reduced prices of some very popular and valuable works. The series to be added to from time to time.

16mo, cloth, each, net, 25c.; by mail, each, net, 30c.

The New Topical Text Book. A Scripture Text Book for the Use of Ministers, Teachers, Visitors, etc. New edition, revised and enlarged. Edited by Rev. R. A. Torrey, D.D.

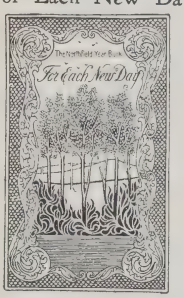
The additional matter includes "Hints and Helps on the Use of the Bible," by R. A. Torrey, and "Outline of Fundamental Doctrines," by D. A. Reed.

The Pilgrim's Progress from this world to that which is to come. By John Bunyan. With Explanatory Notes by Thomas Scott, D.D.

This is the well-known "Scott edition," suitable alike for the ordinary reader and for classes.

Year Books.

For Each New Day. The Northfield Year Book. Compiled by D. L. Pierson. Illustrated from designs by Mary A. Lathbury, and from photographs. A page for each day. 5th thousand. 16mo, decorated cloth, gilt top, boxed, $1.25.



"Compiled from the treasures of thought and feeling which have found expression by celebrated speakers at the Northfield conferences. There are numerous pretty illustrations, and the subject-matter, which is most excellent, represents most of the great leaders of spiritual thought of to-day"—The Interior.

The Pilgrim's Staff; or, Daily Steps Heavenward by the Pathway of Faith. By Rose Porter. Long 16mo, cloth, gilt top, $1.00.

A text and a helpful thought for each day of the year. The compiler, Miss Porter, has long been recognized as one of the very best of those engaged in this line of work.

A Gift of Love, and Loving Greetings for 365 Days, 13th thousand. Long 16mo. Price reduced as follows: cloth, 50c.; white cloth, silver top boxed, $1.00; silk, gilt edged, boxed, $1.25.

"The title of this dainty volume aptly describes its character. It has a Scripture text, with an appropriate stanza of poetry and comment, for each day, and thus constitutes an excellent manual of devotion. All the texts chosen present some expression of God's love to man, and this indicates the significance of the title."—The Lutheran Observer.

A Gift of Peace, and Loving Greetings for 365 Days. 5th thousand. Long 16mo. Price reduced as follows: cloth, 50c.; white cloth, silver top, boxed, $1.00; silk, gilt edged, boxed, $1.25.

A companion volume to "A Gift of Love," in which the peace is the central thought.

Little Books for Life's Guidance.

Long 16mo, decorated cloth, each 50 cents.

"The Revell Co., always quick to see what the religious public will appreciate, is now bringing out a series entitled Little Books for Life's Guidance, which retail at fifty cents each. They are compact in form and prettily bound, each volume containing perhaps 150 pages. Certain characteristics are common to them all. They are written for Christians, and not for worldly people. They are from men whose minds are saturated with the language and thought of the Scriptures. . . . But the main object of all these writers is to develop and make effective a life of faith and devotion. They start with the presupposition, which cannot be gainsaid, that most Christians fall short of those heights on which God expects them to live. . . . We believe that such men as these have a mission for all branches of the Christian Church. To others it may be given to lead the Church out into the field of social problems; to still others the duty falls of helping to elucidate the Biblical and theological problems of our age; but surely no speakers and no writers can put Christians generally under greater obligations than those who bring a message to that which is deepest and best in our personal life with Christ."—The Congregationalist.

1. Saved and Kept. Counsels to Young Believers. By Rev. F. B. Meyer, B.A.

"Contains twenty-three short addresses, earnest, direct and spiritual, as is everything that comes from the pen of this devoted preacher. He writes the preface on his fiftieth birthday, and as he reviews the past he longs to utilize the lessons and warnings of his life for the benefit of his younger brothers and sisters on each side of the Atlantic."—The Evangelist.

2. Ways to Win. Thoughts and Suggestions with Regard to Personal Work for Christians. By Rev. Dyson Hague.

Originally written for the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, this volume has attained to a wide circulation in Great Britain and Canada. It is now issued for American readers, thoroughly revised and adapted to general Christian work.

"We bespeak for this small but stimulating volume a hearty welcome."—The Church Standard.

3. Waiting on God. Daily Messages for a Month. By Rev. Andrew Murray.

"As we read, we seem to drink cooling draughts from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate. The author lives near to his Lord, and always teaches to profit. The deep spirituality and the plain and simple expression and enforcement of truth which mark all his works are manifest in this latest work from his pen. Many a weary soul will read its pages with delight and thank God and take comfort and courage."—The Observer.

4. Inspired Through Suffering. By Rev. D. O. Mears, D.D.

"The volume will accomplish successfully the object for which it has been specially designed, and it also will afford uplift and cheer to many, even when not called upon to seek such comfort because of inward distress."—The Congregationalist.

5. Life's Everydayness. Papers for Women. By Rose Porter, author of "A Gift of Love," etc.

"This is a volume of brief papers on the practical difficulties and duties in the every-day life. . . . Here we have hints to aid in rising each day from an imperfect experience toward the perfect standard laid down by Jesus Christ."—Zion's Herald.

6. When Thou Hast Shut Thy Door. Morning and Evening Meditations for a Month. By Amos R. Wells.

"In brief chapters it brings the needs and experiences of life to the test of the quiet hour of God's presence and communion. If its invitation is heeded its work will be largely done."—The Congregationalist.

7. Foretokens of Immortality: Studies "for the hour when the immortal hope burns low in the heart." By Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis.

"It is a book that lifts us out of our narrow view, and gives us the broad landscape, across which the narrow river of death flows as an insignificant stream; lifts our eyes from the clods of the open grave to the wider expanse of sunlight, which falls to and beyond the limits of our vision."—The Interior.

Little Books for Life's Guidance.

8. Yet Speaking. Unpublished Addresses. By Rev. A. J. Gordon, D.D.

"A collection of eight short addresses upon practical religious subjects, by Dr. A. J. Gordon, makes a beautiful little volume entitled 'Yet Speaking,' and are eminently fitted to quicken devotion and activity in the Christian life. It is beautifully bound, and makes a fitting memorial of one who, though dead, yet speaks with a most persuasive voice."—The Advance.

9. I Believe in God the Father Almighty. By Rev. John Henry Barrows, D.D.

"This is a bright and strong series of four addresses by a bright and strong man. They are rich in illustration, full of pith, and right to the point."—The Independent.

10. A Holy Life, and How to Live It. By Rev. G. H. C. Macgregor, M.A.

"Better than Thomas à Kempis's 'Imitatio Christi' is Macgregor's 'A Holy Life, and How to Live It,' because it is wholly free from asceticism; it is a book for the open air of the modern life. Beautiful in its depth of direct dealing with conscience and heart, it is a joy to the soul seeking completeness of life, and, if it be not wholly new, is divinely true as a guide to the ideal life in Jesus Christ."—The Northern Christian Advocate.

11. The Lord's Table. A Help to the Right Observance of the Holy Supper. By Rev. Andrew Murray.

Contains meditations and prayers for Communion Sabbath, and for seven days before and six days after.

"This is a book for serious, prayerful use, when the believer is ready to give 'not a brief glance,' but some quiet portion of a consecrated life to the usefulness of devotion and self-examination. The author has proved his right to stand in the ministry among the 'sons of consolation,' and it is in this character that he meets the communicant in this volume."—The Independent.

12. Sin and Its Conquerors; or, The Conquest of Sin. By the Very Rev. Dean Farrar.

Contains five addresses upon the following subjects: Guilt; Hindrances to Repentance; Enthusiasm; Egoism and Altruism: a contrast; Lessons from the Birds and the Lilies.

13. Discipleship. By Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, of London.

"This little book is intended to be, along practical lines, an aid to the disciples of Jesus, by endeavoring to show the eminent practicability of being a Christian, in the power of the life communicated by, and sustained in, Christ through the Holy Spirit. It is the desire of the author to make very simple the conditions and laws of discipleship. The spirit of the book is earnest, practical and devotional, and it will be a real help to those who wish wise and loving suggestions as to the best way of living the Christian life."—The Herald and Presbyter.

14. Cheer for Life's Pilgrimage. By Rev. F. B. Meyer, B.A.

"Like all of Mr. Meyer's books this is filled with a devout spirit and with good common sense. The practical matter of living a Christian life day after day, and of receiving God's grace and guidance, is the subject running through the ten brief and happy chapters of this little book. Any one may have this good cheer as he travels along if he only lives near to Christ."—The Journal and Messenger.

15. The True Vine. Meditations for a Month on John xv. 1–16. By Rev. Andrew Murray.

"I feel as if there is not another passage in God's Word in which our union to Christ Jesus, with its call to entire consecration, its privileges of unbounded confidence, its power of abounding joy, much fruitfulness, and prevailing prayer, is put with equal clearness or force."—From the Preface.

16. Praying in the Holy Ghost. By Rev. G. H. C. Macgregor, M.A., author of "A Holy Life."

"The greatest need of the Church of Christ to-day is the need of prayer. . . . If we would have power with man we must have power with God. But to the work of prayer none of us is equal. Here, if we are to prevail, we must have the mighty assistance of God the Holy Ghost."—From the Preface.

The Jessica Series.

The six volumes included in this series are among the most widely read stories for children published during recent years, and their popularity bids fair to continue undiminished for many years to come. The new and beautiful cover design which Miss Lathbury has provided, and the material reduction in price, as well as the intrinsic merit of the stories, are sure to contribute very largely to this result.

Illustrated.

12mo, decorated cloth, each, 35 cents.

1. Jessica's First Prayer, and Jessica's Mother. By Hesba Stretton.
2. Christie's Old Organ.
3. Nobody Loves Me.
4. Whiter than Snow, and Little Dot. By Mrs. O. F. Walton.
5. The Good Shepherd. The Life of our Saviour, for Children.
6. "Probable Sons."

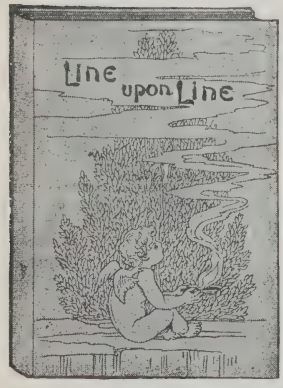
The Peep of Day Series.

By MRS. M. MORTIMER.



A new, uniform edition of four famous and, until lately, very popular books of Bible instruction for children. If, recently, they have in a measure lost their hold upon juvenile readers, it has only been because they have not been accessible in good print and binding, and at a moderate price.

Miss Lathbury's cover design is clever and appropriate, while paper and printing are all that can be desired.

Illustrated.

12mo, decorated cloth, each, 50 cents.

1. The Peep of Day. A Series of the Earliest Religious Instruction the infant mind is capable of receiving.
2. Precept upon Precept.
3. Line upon Line.
4. Here a Little, There a Little.

The Dolphin Series.

The volumes selected for reprinting in this new style constitute quite a remarkable collection, being all first favorites and of proved merit. They are among the very best writings of their respective authors, whose names are, indeed, a sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the series.

The works are illustrated in an appropriate manner. The cover design here reproduced is a particularly happy effort.

Illustrated 12mo, decorated cloth, each, 35 cents. The set, boxed, $2.00.

The Crew of the Dolphin. By Hesba Stretton.
Alone in London. By Hesba Stretton.
How a Farthing Made a Fortune. By C. E. Bowen.

Brave and True. Talks to Young Men. By Rev. Thain Davidson, D.D.
"Dr. Davidson is a prince among talkers to young men. His matter is proverbial philosophy with a heart in it. It breathes, it moves, it is full of life."—The Living Church.

First Battles and How to Fight Them. Friendly Chats with Young Men. By F. A. Atkins.
"It is true in its substance, attractive in its style, and admirable in its spirit. I heartily commend this little volume."—Rev. John Hall, D.D.

Stories of Childhood.

Well illustrated, well-bound books for children, of the kind that entertain not only the youngsters who hear, but equally the oldsters who read them. The covers are evidence that the publishers are determined that not the grown-ups only shall have their literature in artistic dress; while the illustrations, from original drawings by well-known illustrators, are to an equal extent distinctly in advance of what is usually considered sufficiently artistic for the youthful eye.

Small 4to. decorated cloth, each, 50 cents.

1. A Thoughtless Seven. By Amy Le Feuvre, author of "'Probable Sons.'" Illustrated.

A record of the doings of seven youngsters, brothers and sisters, who spend their summer vacation at the seashore. One of them becomes impressed with the fact that they should not waste their time so entirely, and endeavors to bring the others to her way of thinking.

2. How the Children Raised the Wind. By Edna Lyall, author of "Doreen," "Donovan," "We Two," etc. Illustrated by Mary A. Lathbury.

"A charming story of the successful efforts of two children to help pay off a debt on a church of which their father is the pastor. The amusing methods of the little ones to collect money with the aid of an organette and a brown poodle who carried the contribution box around his neck, and was further adorned with a placard reading, 'Pity the new church,' are delightfully set forth. The little boy played the organette, and the girl danced, the placard explaining the necessity of the performance. The children's pluck and earnestness won for them influential friends, and the debt was paid."—The Brooklyn Eagle.

3. Adolph, and How He Found the "Beautiful Lady." By Fannie J. Taylor. Illustrated by Helene Toerring.

"A delightful story for the children. . . . Adolph becomes an emigrant at a very early age, and the story of his experiences is told in a way to keep the attention."—The Watchman.

"It is all very prettily told in direct narrative, and there are a number of felicitous touches in the descriptions."—The Boston Beacon.

4. The Making of a Hero, and Other Stories for Boys. By Mrs. George A. Paull, author of "Prince Dimple," etc. Illustrated by G. W. Bonte.

"This little volume contains half a dozen bright, attractive and profitable tales for boys by one who was a favorite writer, whether she wrote for young or old. She knew well how to please and profit, and exerted by her manifold sketches untold influence for good. Being dead, she yet speaks through the printed page, and her voice will find welcome and a hearing in numberless homes."—The N. Y. Observer.

5. "Probable Sons." By Amy Le Feuvre. Illustrated.

"We do not know the author of this very touching tale. It is equal to 'Fishin' Jimmy' in its way, while as an illustration of the text, 'A little child shall lead them,' it is the most irresistibly pathetic tale we remember to have seen. Among the brightest, most charming and irresistible of child-creations in our recent literature."—The Independent.

6. Teddy's Button. By Amy Le Feuvre, author of "'Probable Sons,'" etc. Illustrated by E. Lance.

"A captivating story. Teddy and Nancy win our hearts. Teddy's brave fight with himself commands admiration, and stout-hearted, handsome Nancy, a real girl in all her doings, conquers the heart. A very good story is this for the children."—The Christian Intelligencer.

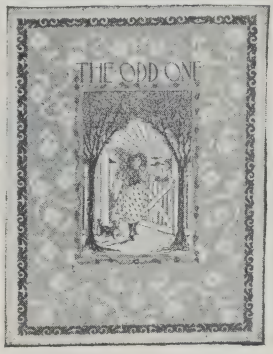
7. Bulbs and Blossoms, and What the Wind Did. By Amy Le Feuvre, author of "'Probable Sons,'" etc. Illustrated by E. Lance.

Roland and Oliver, two little children sent home from India to be educated, are during their first winter much astonished at the apparent death of the flowers and trees and their rebirth during the spring season.

By AMY LE FEUVRE.

Author of "Probable Sons."

The Odd One. With illustrations on every page by Mary A. Lathbury. Small 4to, decorated cloth, $1.00.



"It is written in the same charming and engrossing style which the readers of 'Probable Sons' will remember. It is longer and more elaborate, but the quality holds out to the end. It is daintily illustrated."—The Congregationalist.

A Puzzling Pair. With illustrations on every page, by Eveline Lance. 4to, decorated cloth, $1.00.

Written in the best manner of this popular author, and uniform in mechanical details with the much appreciated "The Odd One," this new volume is certain to achieve a popularity equal to that of its companion. The story deals with the adventures of two small seekers after truth—Guy, the artist, and his extremely practical twin sister, Beryl.

His Big Opportunity. Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, 75c.

Dudley and Roy, otherwise known as "David and Jonathan," are cousins and live with their grandmother. A strenuous soul in a frail body, Roy burns with the desire to do some great deed, and feels that all he lacks is opportunity. After many mistakes, leading to mishaps amusing and serious, his opportunity comes to him. The narrative inculcates many useful lessons.

Teddy's Button. Illustrated. Small 4to, decorated cloth, 50 cents.

"'Teddy's Button' was taken from the coat of his dying soldier father, and in the hands of the boy became a sort of talisman and an incentive to valiant service as a soldier of Jesus Christ. The story is one of fascinating interest, and the moral of it is not far to seek. The little folks will need no urging to read it."—The Evangelist.

A Thoughtless Seven. Illustrated. Small 4to, decorated cloth, 50c.

"The incarnation of religion in daily life, where it is 'not too good for human nature's daily food,' is admirably exemplified and commended."—The Watchman.

"Probable Sons." Illustrated. Small 4to, decorated cloth, 50c.

"This is a touching story, with a little girl for a heroine. The little one by her artless simplicity, faith in God, and unconsciously timely words and deeds helps in the winning of more than one wandering son to the Heavenly Father. She pronounces prodigal as though it were written probable, hence the title."—The Observer.

Bulbs and Blossoms, and What the Wind Did. Illustrated. Small 4to, decorated cloth, 50c.

A charming addition to the favorite "Stories of Childhood" Series. The illustrations are many and beautiful.

Eric's Good News. Illustrated. 12mo, boards, 30c.

A story of the influence which Eric, a little invalid boy, had upon the life of a world-worn young man with whom he became acquainted at a seaside resort.

On the Edge of a Moor. Illustrated, 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

"This is a story of a young girl seeking to help her neighbors in a quiet way by inviting them to her cosy home and by visiting them, and in a simple, friendly manner, showing her sincere interest in all that concerns their physical and spiritual welfare. It is pleasant, helpful and well told."—The N. Y. Observer.

Dwell Deep. Illustrated. 16mo, cloth, 75c.

"A story of a girl who, being left without a home, went to live with her guardian, who had a number of children. Hilda Thorn was trying to be a Christian, and her associates were very worldly, which made it hard for her. It is an interesting story, with the reality of experience."—The Religious Herald.

BEATON, David.

Selfhood and Service. The Relation of Christian Personality of Wealth and Social Redemption. 12mo, cloth 1.00

"A real contribution to the discussion of the social questions of the day. He has struck the nail on the head. Those who have been carried away or troubled by some of the current social theories would do well to study this book. It does not shun the vexed questions of the age. It recognizes the failures of the Church, but sees in her Gospel the only possible cure for the evils that confront us."—E. F. Williams, D.D., Western Editor of The Congregationalist.

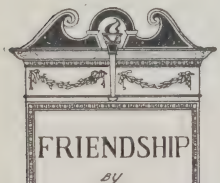
BLACK, Rev. Hugh, M.A.

Friendship. With an Introductory Note by W. Robertson Nicoll, D.D.; and marginal and other decorations by F. Berkeley Smith. Printed in two colors. 12mo, decorated cloth, gilt top, boxed..... 1.25



CONTENTS: The Miracle of Friendship; The Culture of Friendship; The Fruits of Friendship; The Choice of Friendship; The Eclipse of Friendship; The Wreck of Friendship; The Renewing of Friendship; The Limits of Friendship; The Higher Friendship.

Dr. ROBERTSON NICOLL says: "Mr. Hugh Black, of Free St., George's, Edinburgh, who is now, we suppose, the most popular preacher in Scotland, has published a wise and charming little book on Friendship. It is full of good things winningly expressed; and though very simply written, is the result of real thought and experience. Mr. Black's is the art that conceals art. For young men especially this volume will be a golden possession, and it can hardly fail to affect their after lives. Mr. Black says well that the subject of friendship is less thought of among us now than it was in the Old World."

GALE, Rev. James S.

Korean Sketches. A Missionary's Observations in the Hermit Nation. Fully Illustrated. "Stories of Missions" Series. 12mo, cloth.... 1.00

A very sympathetic and true picture of life in the Land of Morning Calm. To a degree Mr. Gale does for Korea what Arthur H. Smith has so ably done for China in his "Chinese Characteristics"; but primarily the work is a sketch-book of things Korean, in which the artist has grouped for us the most fascinating pictures of his travels, adventures, observations, and friendships. His descriptions are full of life and color; his comments pithy and humorous; his character sketches tender and searching; his adventures exciting and ludicrous. He is throughout the lover of the land and the people of his adoption. He uses neither faint praise nor fulsome eulogy. What is to be commended, he commends; what is to be condemned, he condemns. He leaves upon his readers' minds a strong impress of the condition, needs and opportunities of the Hermit Kingdom.

Praying in the Holy Ghost. Long 16mo, cloth, .50

"The greatest need of the Church of Christ to-day is the need of prayer. . . . If we would have power with man we must have power with God. But to the work of prayer none of us is equal. Here, if we are to prevail, we must have the mighty assistance of God the Holy Ghost."—From the Preface.

MACKENZIE, Prof. W. Douglas, D.D.

Christianity and the Progress of Man, as Illustrated by Modern Missions. 12mo, cloth, gilt top.. 1.25

A study of contemporary evolution in connection with the work of modern missions.

"The argument furnished by this valuable book is a convincing evidence that human progress is well-nigh exclusively the result of Christianity, and in its extension to heathen peoples the missionary has been the prime agent. The titles of the several chapters will give an idea of the ground traversed: 'The Universalism of Christianity;' 'The Missionary as Pioneer;' 'The Missionary as Translator;' 'The Missionary and Education;' 'The Missionary and Self-Sacrifice;' 'The Missionary and Civilization;' 'The Missionary and Other Religions;' 'The Missionary as Savior,' and 'Christianity and the Progress of Man." The argument is well marshalled, cumulative and convincing; and the book one truly helpful and stimulative."—The Christian Intelligencer.

MEYER, Rev. F. B., B.A.

Our Daily Homily: Genesis to Revelation. 5 vols. 16mo, cloth, each..... .75

Vol. I. Genesis to Ruth.
Vol. II. First Samuel to Job.
Vol. III. Psalms to Songs of Solomon.
Vol. IV. Isaiah to Malachi.
Vol. V. Matthew to Revelation.

The author has selected from each chapter of the Bible a single verse, which in a measure epitomizes the thought and teaching of the entire chapter. Upon the bases of these selected texts he has constructed brief Homilies, which, in their entirety, constitute an exposition of the most important facts and doctrines of Holy Scripture.

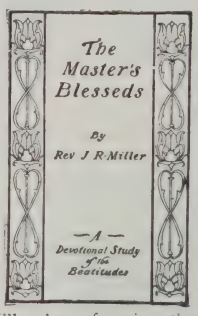
MILLER, Rev. C. Armand, M.A.

The Way of the Cross. A Series of Meditations on the History of the Passion of our Lord. 12mo, cloth, gilt top..... 1.00

"Readers in need of a truly edifying book to guide and aid them in the devotions and meditations of the Lenten season, can hardly do better than to provide themselves with 'The Way of the Cross.' It is arranged in systematic order for devotional use, and is done in a vigorous way, which combines robust thought and expression with devotional sentiment, and is very unlike the drowsy tone of mere devotional routine."—The Independent.

MILLER, Rev. J. R., D.D.

The Master's Blesseds; or, Christ's Secret of Happiness. A Devotional Study of the Beatitudes. Decorated margins. 16mo, cloth, gilt top, boxed,..... 1.00



The peculiar adaptability of the Beatitudes to treatment in a devotional and expository manner, and Dr. Miller's great popularity as a writer of works of this nature were a happy combination, which has resulted in a work of the greatest merit. In its mechanical details—deckel-edge paper, ample margins with artistic illuminations, ornamental chapter headings and title page, decorated covers—the book is worthy of subject and author.

"Everyone knows the way Dr. Miller has of saying these suggestive, comforting, helpful things that reach the heart and do good like a medicine."—The Advance.

MORGAN, Rev. G. Campbell.

God's Methods with Man: In Time—Past, Present, and Future. With colored chart. 12mo, cloth, 1.00

This volume contains the author's addresses on the return of our Lord, delivered at Northfield, Mass., and revised and expanded for publication in this permanent form. Two chapters briefly indicate God's methods with man in the successive dispensations from creation to the present. The remainder of the book deals with the coming of Christ, and the future events of which this is the first in the series, as set forth by prophecy. The subject is handled soberly and conservatively. The controversial spirit is deliberately avoided. The author gives his own convictions as derived from personal study of the Bible, but differing views are fairly stated. Chapter and verse are given for every argument.

"The spirit of the book is earnest, practical, and devotional, and it will be a real help to those who wish wise and loving suggestions as to the best way of living the Christian life."—The Herald and Presbyter.

The Hidden Years at Nazareth. 12mo, boards. .25

"He turns to Jesus in the carpenter's shop to find in him already the spiritual head and saviour of men, and seeks by sympathy to penetrate these years of his silence and obscurity. There is the charm both of truth and right feeling about the booklet."—The Sunday School Times.

Malachi: A Message for the Times. 12mo, cloth, .75

One of the curiosities of omission in religious literature is the lack of good work upon the Minor Prophets. The Major Prophets have fared better. In "Malachi: A Message for the Times," Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, a notable figure among the younger London preachers, has given us a book so stimulating, sympathetic, accurate and suggestive, that one hopes he may be led farther into this most inviting field. The book is, in form, an interpretation rather than a commentary; yet it is in the best sense the best of commentaries. It should be in the hands of every minister who aspires to be an interesting expository preacher.

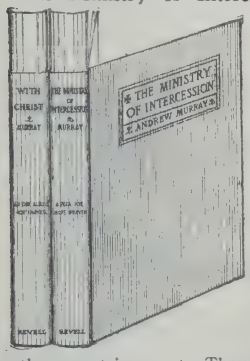
MURRAY, Rev. Andrew.

The Ministry of Intercession. A Plea for More Prayer. 12mo, cloth, .75



A continuation of "With Christ in the School of Prayer." With appendix, "Pray without Ceasing: Helps to Intercession," containing prayers for a month and other aids and guides to the life of prayer.

"The present volume owes its existence to the desire to enforce two truths of which formerly I had no such impression as now. The one is that Christ actually meant prayer to be the great power by which His Church should do its work and, that the neglect of prayer is the great reason the Church has not greater power over the masses in Christian and in heathen countries. . . . The second truth is that we have far too little conception of the place that intercession, as distinguished from prayer for ourselves, ought to have in the Church and the Christian life."—From the Introduction.

NOBLE, Frederick Perry.

The Redemption of Africa. A Story of Civilization. With Illustrations, Maps, Statistical Tables, and Bibliography. 2 vols., 8vo, cloth..... 4.00

This work, by the Secretary of the Chicago African Congress of 1893, and the former librarian of the African section of the Newberry Library, is a history of African Missions of the Catholic and Protestant Churches, including all denominations of the latter. It includes work for the negro in the Western Hemisphere as well as on the Dark Continent. Much space is given to the history of Islam in Africa, as well as to native religions. In sections it is a critique of Missions in point of method, while in others one gets a clear idea of the great workers who have set their stamp on Africa. No such comprehensive work on African Missions has ever before been attempted. Of the author, The Independent says, in its African number, May 5, 1898, that he is "probably better qualified than any other man" to write on this subject.

John G. Paton, Missionary to the New Hebrides. An Autobiography, edited by his Brother. Vol. III. 1886–1897. Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, gilt top, .50

This is the third and concluding volume of Paton's Autobiography. Its principal feature is an extended account of the author's journey around the world, undertaken in the interest of New Hebridean missions generally, but more particularly for the purpose of bringing to the attention of the Governments of Europe and America certain facts in regard to the trade with the New Hebrides in intoxicants, opium, and firearms.

Missions and Politics in Asia. Studies of the spirit of the Eastern peoples, the present making of history in Asia, and the part therein of Christian Missions. Student's Lectures on Missions, Princeton, 1898. 12mo, cloth..... 1.00

The lectures composing this volume were suggested by the study and observation of an extended tour in Asia, in the years 1896 and 1897. They are at once the fruit and the ground by the conviction, vindicated of the obvious facts of history and of life, that Christ is the present Lord and King of all life and history and their certain ultimate goal.

"Charles H. Spurgeon was an extraordinary man. His life was an extraordinary life; and this 'Autobiography' is, in its way, as extraordinary as the man and his life. . . The book is saved from the intolerable egoism which besets religious autobiographies, first of all, by the author's genuine humility. Mr. Spurgeon is continually in evidence, never indeed being wholly out of sight for any considerable number of sentences; but he is in sight not for his own sake, least of all for any petty vanity of self-exhibition, but as the living witness of the grace of God, full of glad testimonies and an irrepressible activity. This is the great feature of the book; and it is irresistible, as it was in the preacher himself; as it was in St. Francis of Assisi."—The Independent.

What the Bible Teaches: A Thorough and Comprehensive Study of All the Bible has to Say Concerning the Great Doctrines of which it Treats. 600 pages. 8vo, cloth..... 2.50

"This book represents years of study. Its contents have been tested again and again in the class-room—in classes composed, in some instances, of representatives of thirty-six denominations. This work is simply an attempt at a careful, unbiased, systematic, thorough-doing, inductive study and statement of Bible truth. The method of the book is rigidly inductive. The material contained in the Bible is brought together, carefully scrutinized, and then what is seen to be contained in it stated in the most exact terms possible. Exactness of statement is first aimed at in every instance, then clearness of statement. Beauty and impressiveness must always yield to precision and clearness. Though no Hebrew nor Greek words appear in the work, it is based upon a careful study of the original text as decided by the best textual critics. Wherever possible the text of the Authorized Version has been given."—From the Preface.

Jerusalem the Holy. With Maps and Diagrams drawn especially for this work by Archibald Dickie, of the Palestine Exploration Society; and other Illustrations. 12mo, cloth..... 1.50

The author of this work has resided in Jerusalem for four or five years as United States Consul for Palestine. His opportunities for daily personal observation, combined with extensive reading, have qualified him to write a brief, popular description of the Holy City. It finds a place awaiting it, for of the works on the same subject already produced, those in any degree authoritative are commonly too exhaustive for general reading, while the briefer works are usually the impressions of tourists or transient visitors.

Comprises the English-Hebrew Bible and the English-Greek Testament, designed to give, as far as practicable, the accuracy, precision and certainty of the original Hebrew and Greek Scriptures on the page of the authorized version. Adapted both for Biblical students and the ordinary English reader.

The Dean of Canterbury says: "It will, I think, enable the English reader thoroughly to understand the original, and place him in a position as near as possible to that of a Hebrew scholar. I find it executed with the utmost accuracy."

BISHOP, Isabella Bird, F.R.G.S.

¶Korea and Her Neighbors. Illustrated from Original Photographs. 8vo, cloth..... 2.00

A record of travel and residence in Manchuria, Eastern Siberia and Korea. Mrs. Bishop reached the last named country just after its invasion by the Japanese, and remained in or near it for nearly two years. Her views are those of an acutely observant traveler of wide experience. Upon the subject of missions in the region visited they are particularly valuable, coming from one who, originally indifferent to the missionary cause, has been forced by her own observations to give it her hearty support

"The author was invited in 1895 to present what is known of the earliest forms of life in a course of lectures delivered at the Lowell Institute, Boston; and the success which attended these lectures has induced him to reproduce them in the present work in the hope that the subject may have for the general reader some of that fascination which it possesses for those who occupy themselves with its study; and that a stimulus may be given to those collectors and scientific workers who have opportunity to obtain new facts relating to the origin and early history of animal life."—Preface.

Eden Lost and Won. Studies of the Early History and Final Destiny of Man, as taught in Nature and Revelation. 12mo, cloth..... 1.25

"This work is in two parts. The first considers the physical and historical probabilities respecting the authorship and authority of the Pentateuch. The second treats of man and nature, fallen and restored. Dr Dawson is a strong believer in the Mosaic authorship of the first five books of the Bible, and states his reasons in such a clear and cogent way as to convince the reader that the higher critics have by no means made out the post-exilian origin of these Mosaic records."—*The N. "This is a work of great value for several widely different reasons. Its style has all the charm of friendly converse. The subject had traveled so widely, mingled with ecclesiastical and public affairs so actively, that the book may be considered a running commentary on the events of the last half century. He knew so many distinguished men and speaks of them so frankly as to produce the impression that his brain must have been a gallery of mental portraits."—The Christian Advocate (N. Y.)

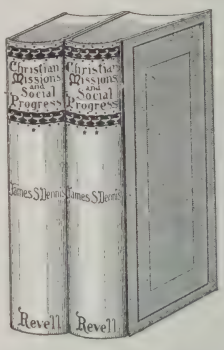
¶ Christian Missions and Social Progress: A Sociological Study of Foreign Missions. With 50 full-page reproductions of original photographs. 2 volumes, large 8vo, cloth, each..... $2.50



A new and notable book on foreign missions. Their influence is studied from the view-point of the sociologist, and results of fresh interest are brought forward. The evangelistic aim is duly honored as paramount, but special attention is devoted to the social significance of mission work as introducing stimulating and corrective ideals giving promise of beneficent and far-reaching changes in the status of non-Christian peoples. The author has taken great pains to inform himself as to the social conditions of heathenism.

Foreign Missions after a Century. 4th thousand. 8vo, cloth..... 1.50

"The various topics are treated in such a way as to lift Christianity to a height of aspiration, a breadth of purpose, and a heroism of devotion far beyond that of any former period in the history of missions. "To many the life of the Christ will be a new book in this form. Though beyond the introduction it contains no word except what is found in the four Gospels, yet when read continuously, without the breaks necessarily made by the different stories of the four evangelists, the narrative takes on new force and lifelikeness. The very fact that this is not our usual method of reading the Word will give it a new reality."—The Golden Rule.

PRESIDENT CHARLES CUTHBERT HALL, D.D., in The Expositor, says: "The Fleming H. Revell Company is drawing an important undertaking to a close. In 32 volumes of about 650 pages each, covering the Canonical Books, the Rev. Joseph S. Exell, M.A., edits THE BIBLICAL ILLUSTRATOR. The twenty-ninth volume (Second Corinthians) is just issued. With extraordinary industry the editor has accumulated a vast store of material designed to illustrate the text of Holy Scripture and to stimulate the homiletic worker. It gathers chiefly from the field of anecdote, simile, emblem, and sermon outline."

GRINNELL, Elizabeth.

¶John and I and the Church. Illustrated. 12mo, cloth..... 1.00
"John and I" long ago captured a large circle of readers by their bright, rich humor and wholesome, homely advice. Here we find them in the midst of church work. "John" is the pastor and "I" is the pastor's wife. Their struggles in a small church which becomes afflicted with a boom, their dismissal, the working of a new field—all this is told in a most interesting and novel manner.

¶Letters from the Scenes of the Recent Massacres in Armenia. With Prefatory Letter from the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone. Illustrated by reproductions from photographs of the places visited and a map showing the route of the authors. 8vo, cloth..... 1.25

"They made an arduous journey through the afflicted parts of Armenia as the almoners of the relief fund raised by the English Society of Friends. From stage to stage in their progress through Armenia they wrote letters back to the English people who had sent them forth; and these letters, simple and unpretentious in form, but most valuable in substance, are now gathered into a volume. The immense value of the work of American missionaries and educators in Asia Minor is constantly noted by Professor and Mrs. Harris, and the splendid heroism of our American countrymen and women through the recent adversities of Armenia is glowingly set forth."—The Review of Reviews.

HENRY, Matthew.

A Commentary on the Bible. Six-volume Edition. 6 vols., large 8vo, cloth, boxed..... 15.00

Half morocco, red edges..... 18.00

It is surprising that in this labor-saving and time-saving age the ever-popular Matthew Henry's Commentary has not before been issued in convenient volumes. Two features of this new edition call for special attention: First, the moderate size of the volumes; second, the large size of the type. Other features are the excellent printing and substantial binding.

Subscription edition, in five volumes. Large 4to, cloth, boxed..... 15.00

"Biblical students who are most familiar with the very best commentaries of this generation are most able to appreciate the unfading freshness, the clear analysis, the spiritual force, the quaint humor, and the evangelical richness of MATTHEW HENRY'S EXPOSITION OF THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS. Ever since we have been engaged in the work of the ministry we have found our appreciation of this work increasing with our years."—The N. Y. Observer.

"There is nothing to be compared with old MATTHEW HENRY'S COMMENTARY for pungent and practical applications of the teachings of the text."—The S. S. Times.

HILLIS, Rev. Newell Dwight.

¶Foretokens of Immortality: Studies "for the hour when the immortal hope burns low in the heart." Long 16mo, decorated cloth..... .50

"It is a book that lifts us out of our narrow view, and gives us the broad landscape, across which the narrow river of death flows as an insignificant stream; lifts our eyes from the clods of the open grave to the wide expanse of sunlight, which falls to and beyond the limits of our vision."—The Interior.

¶The Investment of Influence. 12mo, cloth, gilt top..... $1.25

"As a writer, Dr. Hillis is eloquent and fascinating. His pages sparkle with sentences which one longs to quote. His paragraphs are teeming with metaphors and allusions, but there is not one that does not have the true ring."—The Christian Evangelist.

¶A Man's Value to Society. 5th edition. 12mo, cloth, gilt top..... 1.25

"Right to the point and as good as gold. . . . The author knows how to reason as well as to preach and clothe his thoughts in beautiful forms of expression. The volume is a storehouse of enrichments for the practical and spiritual life, and makes its points with splendor of illustration and cogent reasoning."—The Independent.

Heather from the Brae: Scottish Character Sketches. 3d edition. 16mo, cloth decorated..... .75

"The author, in common with Barrie, Crockett, and Maclaren, has the gift of investing the Scottish character, its life and manners, with the charm of reality, illumined by the glow of feeling, and made human by its very simplicity."—The Boston Transcript.

"Lyall is of the school of Barrie and Ian Maclaren, but is far from being an imitator. He writes from conviction, because he has been deeply impressed with the simple pathos of the Scotch character, and because his love of this life is quite as deep as his knowledge of it. His stories abound in illuminating touches which leave no doubt of his being possessed of the clairvoyance of genuine talent."—The Examiner.

Genesis,
Exodus,
Leviticus,
Numbers,
Deuteronomy, (2 vols.),
16mo, cloth, each, .75
The set, boxed... 4.50

These books are not Commentaries, in the ordinary understanding of that word: they are of a more popular style, helpful, suggestive, inspiring.

"Under God they have blessed me more than any books outside of the Bible itself that I have ever read, and have led me to a love of the Bible that is proving an unfailing source of profit."—Maj. D. W. Whittle.

MACKAY, Rev. George Leslie, D.D.

‡From Far Formosa. The Island, its People and Missions. Edited by Rev. J. A. MacDonald. With 4 Maps, 16 Illustrations and an Index. 5th thousand. Popular edition. 8vo, cloth,.. ..... 1.25

"An unfailing source of enthusiasm is the story of a missionary pioneer. . . . He was led to settle in North Formosa, then without a missionary; and for twenty-three years he has labored, with almost no foreign helpers, developing a native church and a native ministry. . . Besides being richly illustrated, the book is as fascinating as a novel, and is a striking contribution to our knowledge of Southern Japan, being especially noteworthy for the rich stores of scientific knowledge concerning the geology, geography, flora, fauna and ethnology of the 'Beautiful Island.' Yet it abounds also in practical hints on mission methods, and reveals again and again the indomitable courage and boundless resource and unfailing love which are behind the modern hero of the cross."—The S. S. Times.

‡The Spirit-Filled Life. Introduction by Rev. Andrew Murray. 115th thousand. 12mo, paper... .15
*Cloth..... .30

"A book of practical religion. It exhibits the high privileges of the believer and urges him on to the attainment. We live in the dispensation of the Spirit, and may enjoy His cleansing, comfort, and help. The line of spiritual life opened by Wesley in his doctrine of perfect love is followed up in such books as this of MacNeil. The author's statements on the work of the Spirit are fresh and forcible; he tells the way of the life of God in the soul of man."—Zion's Herald.

McNEILL, Rev. John.

Sermons, Volume I.
Sermons, Volume II.
Sermons, Volume III. Each containing 26 Sermons. 12mo, cloth, each..... 1.50

"The hiding of Mr. McNeill's power appears to be his deep spiritual life and knowledge. He sees things which are invisible. Aiming to convince the judgment, awaken the conscience, and persuade to immediate action; he knows the springs of the human heart through which the objects may be accomplished and touches them. He understands the mission of the gospel and the obstacles which hinder its progress. He smites the evil squarely and proclaims his message in simplicity and plainness of speech, displaying a sublime confidence in the omnipotence of truth."—Rev. J. M. Buckley, D.D., Editor Christian Advocate (N. Y.).

The Bells of Is; or, Voices of Human Need and Sorrow. Echoes from my Early Pastorates. With Portrait. 12mo, cloth..... .75

"This book is brief—sixteen short chapters, each one a little psalm of life. Mr. Meyer has left the impress of his strong personality on the book. It is full of his quiet reveries, his outreaching toward God and toward souls, with practical suggestions as to city missions, and relief of poverty and distress."—Rev. A. T. Pierson, D.D.

Prayers for Heart and Home. Morning and Evening Devotions for a Month. 8vo, flexible cloth, round corners..... .75

"Mr. Meyer has a gift of utterance in things spiritual such as few men of the present day possess, and no Christian writer of the day is better fitted by character, training and experience to prepare a manual of worship than he."—Christian Work.

The Shepherd Psalm. A new presentation edition printed in two colors, with illustrations on every page by Mary A. Lathbury. 12mo, richly decorated cloth, boxed..... 1.25
Gilt edges..... 1.50

"Nothing could be more closely in harmony with the gospel of will than the richly elaborated, yet wholly tasteful form in which this religious classic now appears. A perfect gem in itself, it needed only the beautiful decorative designs of Miss Lathbury to give it a perfect setting."—The Chautauquan.

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE SERIES.

Through Fire and Flood. 18mo, cloth..... .30
"God's purpose running through our lives, often leading through fire and flood,' is set forth in these pages. The author's pungent and impressive style shapes the message for encouragement and comfort."—The Presbyterian.

The Shepherd Psalm, The Present Tenses,
Christian Living, The Future Tenses.

OLD TESTAMENT HEROES. 8 vols., 12mo, cloth, boxed..... 8.00
Each..... 1.00

"Mr. Meyer is unsurpassed in recent times in his faculty of helpfully and interestingly adapting studies of Old Testament characters to modern needs. His work does not consist of mere pious moralizing, but it is the product of a man evidently of scholarly habits and attainments, and in close and practical touch with the life of the people of the day, and with the strongest and clearest convictions that the simple, plain gospel of Christ, the divine and atoning Saviour, and the Bible the very word of God, are indispensable to the salvation of the world."—The United Presbyterian.

David: Shepherd, Psalmist, King.
"As in all his works, he has developed the spiritual and practical lines, so that his book is not merely a record of events, but the story of a great life, the reading of which will be stimulating and profitable."—The S. S. Times.

Jeremiah: Priest and Prophet.
"It is at once a biography, an interpretation, and a terse and practical application of divine truth to human life. It is scholarly but not pitched on too high a key of learning for the common reader."—The Congregationalist.

Joshua, and the Land of Promise.
"The twenty chapters here given on the Book of Joshua are so many lines of light on the whole period and its main characters. The great leader stands out in relief, and his relations to the age are traced with care and intelligence."—Zion's Herald.

Moses, the Servant of God.
"The author's analysis of the character and history of Moses is, in some respects, the best which we remember to have seen. The book is at once learned and popular."—The Congregationalist.

Abraham; or, The Obedience of Faith.
"He is throughout reverent and thoughtful, and will point out to many a reader unsuspected truth and beauty in the Holy Scriptures."—The Watchman.

Elijah, and the Secret of His Power.
"Good, exceedingly good. Mr. Meyer is a great gain to the armies of evangelical truth, for his tone, spirit and aspirations are all of a fine Gospel sort."—C. H. Spurgeon, in Sword and Trowel.

Israel, a Prince with God.
"No Christian is likely to read the volume . . . without being wiser, purer, happier and more devoted to His Master. It surpasses any book we have ever seen on Jacob and his eventful career."—The Baptist Magazine.

Joseph: Beloved, Hated, Exalted.
"We trust this welcome volume will find readers in all ranks and classes, among old as well as young, and will perform a blessed ministry of help and guidance in the life which is life indeed."—The Christian.

THE EXPOSITORY SERIES. 4 vols., 12mo, cloth, boxed..... $4.00
Each..... 1.00

Christ in Isaiah. Expositions of Isaiah XL.–LV.

"The quality of the author's work as an interpreter of Scripture is already well known and highly appreciated in this country. Nothing thus far issued by him can, in our judgment, deserve wider or longer favor than this apt, keen-eyed, eloquent expansion of the prophet's inspired words."—The Watchman.

The Way into the Holiest. Expositions of the Epistle to the Hebrews.

"The aim of the author in this work is to deduce the great spiritual lessons which are enshrined in the sublime words of the epistle. It is needless to say that Mr. Meyer has admirably succeeded in accomplishing his purpose."—The N. Y. Observer.

The Life and Light of Men. Expositions of John I.–XII.

"These expositions have the character of all Mr. Meyer's writings. They combine devout insight into the rich resources of the Word of God, with skill in adapting it to the spiritual needs of his readers."—The S. S. Times.

Tried by Fire. Expositions in the First Epistle of Peter.

"The popularity of Mr. Meyer's Expositions is a good sign of the times. This, latest, is one of the best, and is full of tender Christian wisdom. The chief charm of the book is its earnest simplicity."—The British Weekly.

The Psalms. Notes and Readings. 18mo, cloth, .60

MILLS, Rev. B. Fay.

God's World and Other Sermons. 3d edition. 12mo, cloth..... 1.25

"It may be said without question, these discourses are deeply spiritual, earnest and practical. They are touching and inspiring, calculated to continue the effective work evident wherever they have been delivered from the lips of the preacher. They are good to read."—The Christian Advocate (N. Y.).

"These sermons will be read with peculiar interest, because they embody some of the secrets of power possessed by this remarkable man. Some of the sermons are specially addressed to Christians, and six out of the fifteen to those who are not. In style Mr. Mills is simple, and evinces an insight into the workings of the human heart when brought face to face before the truths of God."—The Methodist Recorder.

The Story of Jesus for Little Children. Very large print and profusely Illustrated. 10th edition. 12mo, cloth..... $1.00

"A lovely book, and one that mothers and Sunday School teachers may well turn to account. By all means give the little ones this 'Story of Jesus.'"—The Evangelist.

"Mrs. Morton has done a none too easy work in a most creditable manner; we heartily commend it."—Christian Work.

"A successful attempt to adapt the life of Christ to the comprehension of children of four years and under. The charm of the story and the simplicity of the telling make this one of the very best books that can be given to a child."—The N. Y. Observer.

MOTT, John R.

Strategic Points in the World's Conquest: The Universities and Colleges as related to Christian Progress. With introductory letters from the Earl of Aberdeen, Mr. Gladstone, ex-President Harrison, Count Bernstorff and Prince Oscar Bernadotte; and a Map, printed in two colors, showing route, 12mo, cloth..... 1.00

A report of Mr. Mott's observations during his twenty months' tour around the world, in the course of which he visited practically all the colleges and universities, bringing most of them into affiliation with the World's Student Christian Federation.

"The World's Student Christian Federation is the last tide-mark of enlightened scholarship; it is no empty name which Mr. Mott uses for his book; he merely translates into four words the meaning of a movement to wed religion to our schools, to confirm the connection between virtue and intelligence, to garner the treasures of wisdom and piety."—From editorial in The Evangelist.

MUIR, Sir William.

PARKER, Rev. Joseph, D.D.

None Like It: A Plea for the Old Sword. 2d edition. 12mo, cloth..... $1.25

"Dr. Parker maintains the conservative theories of Inspiration and the authority of the Bible, and argues stoutly that it not merely contains, but is, the Word of God. Moreover, the vigor of his style and the positiveness of his views are well supported by able reasoning, sharp satire, and the frequent turning of his opponents' arguments squarely against them. The volume is one of the ablest on its side, is sound in its great principle and many of its inferences, and will do helpful service."—The Congregationalist.

Tyne Folk: Masks, Faces, and Shadows. 16mo, cloth..... .75

Two volume edition,* boxed..... 2.00

"The appearance of another edition gives occasion for fresh words of welcome for what has become a Christian classic. . . We can hardly do a better service to very many readers than by commending their perusal, for few of current publications that are sold by thousands upon thousands have in their pages the import and the fascination that stamp nearly every page in these. So long as the Gospel and Spirit of Jesus Christ make men like the hero here commemorated, they prove their own best attestation in tangible and visible results."—The Outlook.

"We commend to all who would advance the cause of Foreign Missions this remarkable autobiography. It stands with such books as those Dr. Livingstone gave the world, and shows to men that the heroes of the cross are not merely to be sought in past ages."—The Christian Intelligencer.

PEERY, Rev. R. B., A.M., Ph.D.

¶ The Gist of Japan. The Islands, their People and Missions. Illustrated. 8vo, decorated cloth.... 1.25

It does not pretend to be an exhaustive treatise of an exhaustless topic: it does pretend to cover the subject; and whosoever is eager to know the "gist" of those matters Japanese in which Westerners are most interested—the land, the people, the coming of Christianity, the difficulties and prospects of her missions, the condition of the native Church—will find it set down in Dr. Peery's book in a very interesting, reliable, instructive and condensed form. It is a valuable addition to popular reading about the Land of the Rising Sun.

PRICE, Ira M., Ph. D.

A Syllabus of Old Testament History: Outlines and Literature. Interleaved. 4th edition. 12mo, cloth..... $1.50

"Educational experience, in College work especially, has shown the great worth of the syllabus as a guide to study. Students will find the book eminently useful. Its author has spared no pains in being accurate."—The S. S. Times.

"The volume is admirably adapted to interest and stimulate the Biblical student."—The Congregationalist.

PRINCETON Sermons.

Chiefly by Professors in Princeton Theological Seminary. 12mo, cloth..... 1.50

"They are scholarly, vigorous, and practical, and among them are some which might serve well as models."—The Congregationalist.

"These sermons are elevating in religious tone, profound in doctrine, and models of systematic arrangement and scholarly diction."—The Religious Telescope.

"PROBABLE SONS," Author of

"Probable Sons." Illustrated. 60th thousand. Small 4to, decorated cloth..... .50
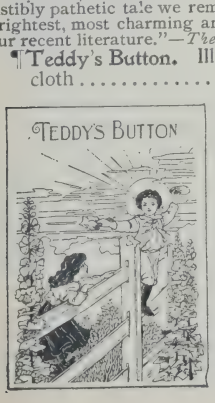
Paper..... .15

"We do not know the author of this very touching tale. It is equal to 'Fishin' Jimmy' in its way, while as an illustration of the text, 'A little child shall lead them,' it is the most irresistibly pathetic tale we remember to have seen. 'Among the brightest, most charming and irresistible of child-creations in our recent literature."—The Independent.

¶Teddy's Button. Illustrated. Small 4to, decorated cloth..... .50



"A captivating story. Teddy and Nancy win our hearts. Teddy's brave fight with himself commands admiration, and stout-hearted, handsome Nancy, a real girl in all her doings, conquers the heart. A very good story is this for the children."—The Christian Intelligencer.

"'Teddy's Button' was taken from the coat of his dying soldier father, and in the hands of the boy became a sort of talisman and an incentive to valiant service as a soldier of Jesus Christ. The story is one of fascinating interest, and the moral of it is not far to seek. The little folks will need no urging to read it."—The Evangelist.

¶A Thoughtless Seven. Profusely Illustrated. Small 4to, decorated cloth..... $0.50

A record of the doings of seven brothers and sisters who spend their summer vacation at the seashore. One of them becomes impressed with the fact that they should not waste their time so entirely, and endeavors to bring the others to her way of thinking.

¶Dwell Deep. Illustrated. 16mo, cloth..... .75

"A story of a girl who, being left without a home, went to live with her guardian, who had a number of children. Hilda Thorn was trying to be a Christian, and her associates were very worldly, which made it hard for her. It is an interesting story, with the reality of experience."—The Religious Herald.

¶On the Edge of a Moor. Illustrated. 12mo, cloth..... 1.00

An interesting narrative of the means by which a city girl, thrown among a number of rough, untutored country people, became an influence for good to her entire neighborhood.

¶The Odd One. Profusely Illustrated. Small 4to, decorated cloth..... 1.00

Another of the charming child stories by this now well-known writer. The title describes the characteristics, and prepares the reader for the experiences, of the little girl who is the heroine of the tale, which is a graceful and touching story, full of Gospel teaching. The book is furnished with wide-margined pages, which are decorated with numerous drawings in Miss Lathbury's best style. The cover design, here reproduced, is also by Miss Lathbury. It is one of the most successful efforts of one whose pen and brush have ever found their most congenial employment in the delineation of child life.

Eric's Good News. Illustrated. 12mo, boards, .30

A story of the influence which Eric, a little invalid boy, had upon the life of a world-worn young man with whom he became acquainted at a seaside resort.

SCUDDER, Mrs. A. M.

Attractive Truths in Lesson and Story. Introduction by Rev. F. E. Clark, D.D., 3d thousand. 8vo, cloth, 1.25

A series of outline lessons, with illustrative stories, for Junior Christian Endeavor Societies, Children's Meetings, and Home Teaching.

"This book occupies a new field, and occupies it well. No other book in the language, so far as we know, has even attempted just this task. There is nothing weak or puerile about the book, but there is a wealth of information and suggestion of which thousands of workers among the children will avail themselves. We commend it most cordially."—The Golden Rule.

"The selections are excellent, the suggestions useful, and the ideas eminently practical."—The Christian Advocate (N. Y.).

¶*Bible Study by Books. 5th edition, revised. 12mo, paper..... $0.35
Cloth..... .60

Contains 52 lessons. Each Book has received careful treatment, and no statement is made except upon the best authority. The demand for this text book has been large, the first edition being sold within about three weeks of publication.

"Mr. Sell has had the rare good fortune to hit upon the doing of exactly the kind of thing sorely needed to be done, and he has done it well."—The Advance.

¶*Bible Study by Doctrines. 12mo, paper.. .25
Cloth..... .50

Every Christian should be able to give a reason for the faith that he holds; to know why he believes and upon what grounds. The design of these lessons is to meet that need and to give a summary of the leading Bible doctrines. No attempt has been made to seek after new or novel constructions of the subjects treated, or to emphasize points of difference, but rather to show upon how many fundamental things all Christians are united. The standard of authority is the Bible, and the final appeal is always to its pages.

STIFLER, Prof. J. M., D.D.

¶The Epistle to the Romans. A Commentary, Logical and Historical. 12mo, cloth..... 1.25
"This commentary shows painstaking, honest, careful and discriminating exegesis. The aim has not been to read the author's individual views into the Apostle's words, but to state truly and faithfully the meaning of Paul's teaching, both logically and historically. He has done his work with much intelligence and conscientiousness. He employs a clear, beautiful and forcible style. He evinces a reverent spirit. While manifesting the alertness and thoroughness of the scholar, he exhibits the love and docility of the humble Christian. His commentary was not designed for the critic or the learned, though they can read it with profit, but for the ordinary English reader."—The Presbyterian.

An Introduction to the Book of Acts. 3d thousand. 12mo, cloth..... 1.25
‡Popular edition.* 16mo, cloth..... .75
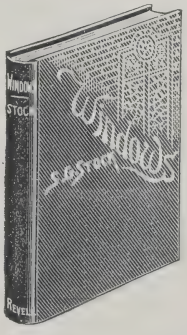
"For general readers we cannot speak too highly of this book. It marks the great events of this first period subsequent to the death and resurrection of Christ with masterly simplicity and good sense, and performs the work of such an introduction by leaving the outlines and great features of the history strongly impressed on the student's mind."—The Independent.

STIMSON, Rev. Henry A., D.D.

Questions of Modern Inquiry. 12mo, cloth... 1.25
"They are timely, earnest, impressive utterances in which strong and cogent reasoning is put before the reader in a sympathetic and manly fashion which cannot fail to make its impression. The author wastes no time on side issues of any kind, and is wholly free from religious sentimentalism. Every reader will receive the impression which every hearer must have gained, that he is addressed by an able and devout friend who is in intense earnest."—The Congregationalist.

STOCK, Sarah Geraldina.

Windows or, Gospel Lights for Gospel Subjects. Suggestions for Addresses and Lessons on Scripture Emblems. Many Illustrations. 12mo, cloth..... .60



"The book is intended as a help to those who desire to use illustrations in imparting to others the truths contained in the Word of God. The lessons, each one full of good points, will prove helpful in furnishing topics and matter for short addresses."—The Church Advocate.
"These windows let in a flood of light, whereby much precious truth may be revealed to youthful minds."—The Observer (N. Y.)
"The studies tend to bring in those fresh and vital currents of thought which should expell all that hinders spiritual growth."—North and West.

TERHUNE, Mrs. E. P. ("Marion Harland").
¶ Ruth Bergen's Limitations. A Modern Auto-da-Fe. 12mo, cloth..... .50
A well told tale that will greatly interest those who are concerned about the controversy that has been, and still is, raging between conservatives and liberals in the matter of Biblical criticism. The story not only purports to be, but manifestly is, the narration of true events; which adds greatly to its power and importance.
The plot is the discovery, development, and disaster of fundamental differences of conscientious convictions between two young persons affianced in marriage. Robert Craig, Bachelor of Arts and Student of Theology, stands for ultra-liberal views concerning Inspiration; and Ruth Bergen for ultra-conservative. His views come to her as a great surprise, and the light and almost flippant manner in which he winnows the Scriptures—every jot and tittle of which she has always viewed as inspired—deeply wounds and greatly excites her. The contest is too much for her, and serves to precipitate and aggravate a severe attack of illness, from which she dies. And as at the last, in a fit of delirium, she cries out with husky articulation, "They have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him!" the effect is tragic, and we lay the book down with the feeling that we have witnessed a modern auto-da-fe.

¶Christian Life in Germany. 8vo, cloth, gilt top, 1.50
"It is the fruit of long and thorough study during personal residence in Germany. The author evidently had exceptional opportunities of informing himself upon his subject, and was not only an intelligent and well-trained observer, but performed his self-imposed task with genuine zeal. Yet enthusiasm never has mastered his pen. The spirit of the book throughout is discriminating and candid. There is no attempt to support a theory, but the purpose is to set forth the actual facts clearly and fully, so that the reader may form his own conclusions."—The Congregationalist.

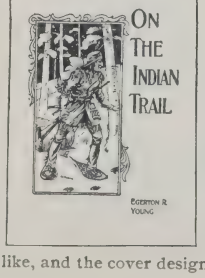
YOUNG, Rev. Egerton R.
¶On the Indian Trail, and Other Stories of Missionary Work among the Cree and Saulteaux Indians. Illustrated by J. E. Laughlin. 12mo, cloth..... 1.00



Mr. Young is well known to readers of all ages as the author of "By Canoe and Dog Train," "Three Boys in the Wild North Land," and other very popular books describing life and adventure in the great Northwest.
The stories in this new book tell of some very exciting incidents in his career, and describe phases of life among the American Indians which are fast becoming things of the past. The illustrations are spirited and life-like, and the cover designs appropriate.

REVELL'S MISSIONARY LIBRARY

Four Volumes

OCTAVO, DECORATED CLOTH

Each, $1.25 The set, boxed, $5.00

PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED

Comprising the following standard Missionary Works, in uniform binding, at reduced prices:

Persian Life and Customs. With Incidents of Residence and Travel in the Land of the Lion and the Sun. By Rev. S. G. Wilson, M.A., for 15 years a Missionary in Persia. With a Map and other Illustrations, and an Index. 2d edition.

"This is not merely a book of travel, but of long observation in Persia. The author has studied with much care the condition of Persia and its future possibilities."—The N. Y. Tribune.

From Far Formosa. The Island, its People and Missions. By Rev. G. L. MacKay, D.D., for 23 years a Missionary on the island. Edited by Rev. J. A. MacDonald. With 4 Maps, 16 Illustrations, and an Index. 6th thousand.

"Undoubtedly the man who knows most about Formosa."—The Review of Reviews.

Chinese Characteristics. With 16 full-page Illustrations and Index. By Rev. A. H. Smith, D.D., for 22 years a Missionary in China. 6th thousand.

"The best book on the Chinese people."—The Examiner.

The Gist of Japan. The Islands, their People and Missions. By Rev. R. B. Peery, A.M., Ph.D., of the Lutheran Mission, Saga. With Illustrations and Index. 3d thousand.

"What Mr. Peery does is to present in exceedingly condensed form the characteristics of the Japanese, their manners and customs, the quality of their civilization, and a bit of their history. Half of the volume has reference to religion; the old beliefs are outlined and much attention is given to the story of the introduction of Christianity. This is a matter with which Mr. Peery, himself a minister, is conversant, and is a novel feature in a consideration of the Japanese."—The Boston Transcript.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

In our Students' Series of Latin Classics (more than 50 books now out and under way) we hope to have any Latin Text that a College or School Instructor may wish to use. No time or expense will be spared to perfect this series in every detail, extend its usefulness, and give it even a larger hold upon the Latin instructors of this country.

In English contracts have been or are being made with Instructors in our largest Universities and Secondary Schools for books that shall include Composition, Rhetoric, English Literature, American Literature, and a series of carefully edited English Classics. In this series most of the books required for the college examinations have been assigned, and will begin to appear in the autumn, 1898.

In the broad field of Science, tentative assignments of books have been made, which will be announced later.

☞ All the Latin Classics have text editions in paper.

Saunders' Medical Hand-Atlases.

THE series of books included under this title are authorized translations into English of the world-famous Lehmann Medicinische Hand-atlanten.

For scientific accuracy, pictorial beauty, compactness, and cheapness these books surpass any similar volumes ever published. Each volume contains from

50 to 100 Colored Plates,

besides numerous other illustrations in the text. These colored plates have been executed by the most skilful German lithographers, in some cases twenty or more impressions being required to obtain the desired result. There is a full and appropriate description of each plate (printed, for convenience, opposite the plate), together with a condensed outline of the subject to which the book is devoted.

The same careful and competent editorial supervision will be secured in the English edition as in the originals. The translations will be directed and edited by the leading American specialists in the different subjects.

The great advantage of natural pictorial representation is indisputable. For lasting and practical knowledge, one accurate illustration is better than several pages of dry description.

These Atlases offer a ready and satisfactory substitute for clinical observation, available only to the residents of large medical centers; and with such persons the requisite variety is seen only after long years of routine hospital service.

By reason of their projected universal translation and reproduction, affording international distribution, the publishers have been enabled to secure for these Atlases the best artistic and professional talent, to produce them in the most elegant style, and yet to offer them at a price heretofore unapproached in cheapness. The success of the undertaking is demonstrated by the fact that volumes have already appeared in German, English, French, Italian, Russian, Spanish, Danish, Swedish, and Hungarian.

While appreciating the value of such colored plates, the profession has heretofore been practically debarred from purchasing similar works because of their extremely high price, made necessary by the limited sale and the enormous expense of production. The very low price of these Atlases will place them within the reach of even the novice in practice.

THE AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK SERIES.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF APPLIED THERAPEUTICS.

By 43 Distinguished Practitioners and Teachers. Edited by JAMES C. WILSON, M.D., Professor of the Practice of Medicine and of Clinical Medicine in the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. One handsome imperial octavo volume of 1326 pages. Illustrated. Cloth, $7.00 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $8.00 net. Sold by Subscription.

"As a work either for study or reference it will be of great value to the practitioner, as it is virtually an exposition of such clinical therapeutics as experience has taught to be of the most value. Taking it all in all, no recent publication on therapeutics can be compared with this one in practical value to the working physician."—Chicago Clinical Review.

"The whole field of medicine has been well covered. The work is thoroughly practical, and while it is intended for practitioners and students, it is a better book for the general practitioner than for the student. The young practitioner especially will find it extremely suggestive and helpful."—The Indian Lancet.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF THE DISEASES OF CHILDREN. Second Edition, Revised.

By 63 Eminent Contributors. Edited by LOUIS STARR, M.D., Physician to the Children's Hospital, Philadelphia, etc.; assisted by THOMPSON S. WESTCOTT, M.D., Attending Physician to the Dispensary for Diseases of Children, Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. In one handsome imperial octavo volume of 1250 pages, profusely illustrated. Cloth, $7.00 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $8.00 net. Sold by Subscription.

"This is far and away the best text-book on children's diseases ever published in the English language, and is certainly the one which is best adapted to American readers. We congratulate the editor upon the result of his work, and heartily commend it to the attention of every student and practitioner."—American Journal of the Medical Sciences.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF DISEASES OF THE EYE, EAR, NOSE, AND THROAT.

By 58 Prominent Specialists. Edited by G. E. DE SCHWEINITZ, M.D., Professor of Ophthalmology in the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia; and B. ALEXANDER RANDALL, M.D., Professor of Diseases of the Ear in the University of Pennsylvania and in the Philadelphia Polyclinic. Ready soon.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF GENITO-URINARY AND SKIN DISEASES.

By 47 Eminent Specialists and Teachers. Edited by L. Bolton Bangs, M.D., Late Professor of Genito-Urinary and Venereal Diseases, New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital; and W. A. Hardaway, M.D., Professor of Diseases of the Skin, Missouri Medical College. Imperial octavo volume of 1229 pages, with 300 engravings and 20 full-page colored plates. Cloth, $7.00 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $8.00 net. Sold by Subscription.

"This volume is one of the best yet issued of the publisher's series of 'American Text-Books.' The list of contributors represents an extraordinary array of talent and extended experience. The book will easily take the place in comprehensiveness and value of the half dozen or more costly works on these subjects which have heretofore been necessary to a well-equipped library."—New York Polyclinic.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF GYNECOLOGY, MEDICAL AND SURGICAL. Second Edition, Revised.

By 10 of the Leading Gynecologists of America. Edited by J. M. Baldy, M. D., Professor of Gynecology in the Philadelphia Polyclinic, etc. Handsome imperial octavo volume of over 700 pages, with 341 illustrations in the text, and 38 colored and half-tone plates. Cloth, $6.00 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $7.00 net. Sold by Subscription.

"It is practical from beginning to end. Its descriptions of conditions, its recommendations for treatment, and above all the necessary technique of different operations, are clearly and admirably presented. . . . It is well up to the most advanced views of the day, and embodies all the essential points of advanced American gynecology. It is destined to make and hold a place in gynecological literature which will be peculiarly its own."—Medical Record, New York.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF LEGAL MEDICINE AND TOXICOLOGY.

Edited by Frederick Peterson, M.D., Clinical Professor of Mental Diseases in the Woman's Medical College, New York; Chief of Clinic, Nervous Department, College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York; and Walter S. Haines, M.D., Professor of Chemistry, Pharmacy, and Toxicology in Rush Medical College, Chicago. In Preparation.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF OBSTETRICS.

By 15 Eminent American Obstetricians. Edited by Richard C. Norris, M.D.; Art Editor, Robert L. Dickinson, M.D. One handsome imperial octavo volume of over 1000 pages, with nearly 900 beautiful colored and half-tone illustrations. Cloth, $7.00 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $8.00 net. Sold by Subscription.

"Permit me to say that your American Text-Book of Obstetrics is the most magnificent medical work that I have ever seen. I congratulate you and thank you for this superb work, which alone is sufficient to place you first in the ranks of medical publishers."—Alexander J. C. Skene, Professor of Gynecology in the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"This is the most sumptuously illustrated work on midwifery that has yet appeared. In the number, the excellence, and the beauty of production of the illustrations it far surpasses every other book upon the subject. This feature alone makes it a work which no medical library should omit to purchase."—British Medical Journal.

"As an authority, as a book of reference, as a 'working book' for the student or practitioner, we commend it because we believe there is no better."—American Journal of the Medical Sciences.

Illustrated Catalogue of the "American Text-Books" sent free upon application.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF PATHOLOGY.

Edited by JOHN GUITÉRAS, M.D., Professor of General Pathology and of Morbid Anatomy in the University of Pennsylvania; and DAVID RIESMAN, M.D., Demonstrator of Pathological Histology in the University of Pennsylvania. In Preparation.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF PHYSIOLOGY.

By 10 of the Leading Physiologists of America. Edited by WILLIAM H. HOWELL, PH.D., M.D., Professor of Physiology in the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md. One handsome imperial octavo volume of 1052 pages. Illustrated. Cloth, $6.00 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $7.00 net. Sold by Subscription.

"We can commend it most heartily, not only to all students of physiology, but to every physician and pathologist, as a valuable and comprehensive work of reference, written by men who are of eminent authority in their own special subjects."—London Lancet.

"To the practitioner of medicine and to the advanced student this volume constitutes, we believe, the best exposition of the present status of the science of physiology in the English language."—American Journal of the Medical Sciences.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF SURGERY. Second Edition.

By 13 Eminent Professors of Surgery. Edited by WILLIAM W. KEEN, M.D., LL.D., and J. WILLIAM WHITE, M.D., PH.D. Handsome imperial octavo volume of 1250 pages, with 500 wood-cuts in the text, and 39 colored and half-tone plates. Thoroughly revised and enlarged, with a section devoted to "The Use of the Röntgen Rays in Surgery." Cloth, $7.00 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $8.00 net. Sold by Subscription.

"Personally, I should not mind it being called THE TEXT-BOOK (instead of A TEXT-BOOK), for I know of no single volume which contains so readable and complete an account of the science and art of Surgery as this does."—EDMUND OWEN, F.R.C.S., Member of the Board of Examiners of the Royal College of Surgeons, England.

"If this text-book is a fair reflex of the present position of American surgery, we must admit it is of a very high order of merit, and that English surgeons will have to look very carefully to their laurels if they are to preserve a position in the van of surgical practice."—London Lancet.

AN AMERICAN TEXT-BOOK OF THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF MEDICINE.

By 12 Distinguished American Practitioners. Edited by WILLIAM PEPPER, M.D., LL.D., Professor of the Theory and Practice of Medicine and of Clinical Medicine in the University of Pennsylvania. Two handsome imperial octavo volumes of about 1000 pages each. Illustrated. Prices per volume: Cloth, $5.00 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $6.00 net. Sold by Subscription.

"I am quite sure it will commend itself both to practitioners and students of medicine, and become one of our most popular text-books."—ALFRED LOOMIS, M.D., LL.D., Professor of Pathology and Practice of Medicine, University of the City of New York.

"We reviewed the first volume of this work, and said: 'It is undoubtedly one of the best text-books on the practice of medicine which we possess.' A consideration of the second and last volume leads us to modify that verdict and to say that the completed work is in our opinion the best of its kind it has ever been our fortune to see."—New York Medical Journal.

Illustrated Catalogue of the "American Text-Books" sent free upon application.

AN AMERICAN YEAR-BOOK OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY.

A Yearly Digest of Scientific Progress and Authoritative Opinion in all branches of Medicine and Surgery, drawn from journals, monographs, and text-books of the leading American and Foreign authors and investigators. Collected and arranged, with critical editorial comments, by eminent American specialists and teachers, under the general editorial charge of GEORGE M. GOULD, M.D. One handsome imperial octavo volume of about 1200 pages. Uniform in style, size, and general make-up with the "American Text-Book" Series. Cloth, $6.50 net; Half Morocco, $7.50 net. Sold by Subscription.

"It is difficult to know which to admire most—the research and industry of the distinguished band of experts whom Dr. Gould has enlisted in the service of the Year-Book, or the wealth and abundance of the contributions to every department of science that have been deemed worthy of analysis. . . . It is much more than a mere compilation of abstracts, for, as each section is entrusted to experienced and able contributors, the reader has the advantage of certain critical commentaries and expositions . . . proceeding from writers fully qualified to perform these tasks. . . . It is emphatically a book which should find a place in every medical library, and is in several respects more useful than the famous 'Jahrbücher' of Germany."—London Lancet.

ANDERS' PRACTICE OF MEDICINE. Second Edition.

A Text-Book of the Practice of Medicine. By JAMES M. ANDERS, M.D., PH.D., LL.D., Professor of the Practice of Medicine and of Clinical Medicine, Medico-Chirurgical College, Philadelphia. In one handsome octavo volume of 1287 pages, fully illustrated. Cloth, $5.50 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $6.50 net.

"It is an excellent book,—concise, comprehensive, thorough, and up to date. It is a credit to you; but, more than that, it is a credit to the profession of Philadelphia—to us." JAMES C. WILSON, Professor of the Practice of Medicine and Clinical Medicine, Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

"I consider Dr. Anders' book not only the best late work on Medical Practice, but by far the best that has ever been published. It is concise, systematic, thorough, and fully up to date in everything. I consider it a great credit to both the author and the publisher."—A. C. COWPERTHWAITE, President of the Illinois Homeopathic Medical Association.

ASHTON'S OBSTETRICS. Fourth Edition, Revised.

Essentials of Obstetrics. By W. EASTERLY ASHTON, M.D., Professor of Gynecology in the Medico-Chirurgical College, Philadelphia. Crown octavo, 252 pages; 75 illustrations. Cloth, $1.00; interleaved for notes, $1.25.

[See Saunders' Question-Compends, page 21.]

Essentials of Bacteriology; a Concise and Systematic Introduction to the Study of Micro-organisms. By M. V. BALL, M.D., Bacteriologist to St. Agnes' Hospital, Philadelphia, etc. Crown octavo, 218 pages; 82 illustrations, some in colors, and 5 plates. Cloth, $1.00; interleaved for notes, $1.25.

[See Saunders' Question-Compends, page 21.]

"The student or practitioner can readily obtain a knowledge of the subject from a perusal of this book. The illustrations are clear and satisfactory."—Medical Record, New York.

BASTIN'S BOTANY.

Laboratory Exercises in Botany. By EDSON S. BASTIN, M.A., late Professor of Materia Medica and Botany, Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. Octavo volume of 536 pages, with 87 plates. Cloth, $2.50.

"It is unquestionably the best text-book on the subject that has yet appeared. The work is eminently a practical one. We regard the issuance of this book as an important event in the history of pharmaceutical teaching in this country, and predict for it an unqualified success."—Alumni Report to the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy.

"There is no work like it in the pharmaceutical or botanical literature of this country, and we predict for it a wide circulation."—American Journal of Pharmacy.

BECK'S SURGICAL ASEPSIS.

A Manual of Surgical Asepsis. By CARL BECK, M.D., Surgeon to St. Mark's Hospital and the New York German Poliklinik, etc. 306 pages; 65 text-illustrations, and 12 full-page plates. Cloth, $1.25 net.

"An excellent exposition of the 'very latest' in the treatment of wounds as practised by leading German and American surgeons."—Birmingham (Eng.) Medical Review.

"This little volume can be recommended to any who are desirous of learning the details of asepsis in surgery, for it will serve as a trustworthy guide."—London Lancet.

BOISLINIERE'S OBSTETRIC ACCIDENTS, EMERGENCIES, AND OPERATIONS.

Obstetric Accidents, Emergencies, and Operations. By L. CH. BOISLINIERE, M.D., late Emeritus Professor of Obstetrics, St. Louis Medical College. 381 pages, handsomely illustrated. Cloth, $2.00 net.

"It is clearly and concisely written, and is evidently the work of a teacher and practitioner of large experience."—British Medical Journal.

"A manual so useful to the student or the general practitioner has not been brought to our notice in a long time. The field embraced in the title is covered in a terse, interesting way."—Yale Medical Journal.

BROCKWAY'S MEDICAL PHYSICS. Second Edition, Revised.

Essentials of Medical Physics. By FRED J. BROCKWAY, M.D., Assistant Demonstrator of Anatomy in the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York. Crown octavo, 330 pages; 155 fine illustrations. Cloth, $1.00 net; interleaved for notes, $1.25 net.

[See Saunders' Question-Compends, page 21.]

"The student who is well versed in these pages will certainly prove qualified to comprehend with ease and pleasure the great majority of questions involving physical principles likely to be met with in his medical studies."—American Practitioner and News.

"We know of no manual that affords the medical student a better or more concise exposition of physics, and the book may be commended as a most satisfactory presentation of those essentials that are requisite in a course in medicine."—New York Medical Journal.

"It contains all that one need know on the subject, is well written, and is copiously illustrated."—Medical Record, New York.

"By far the best book on this subject that has ever come to our notice."—American Medical Review.

"It has rarely been our duty to review a book which has given us more pleasure in its perusal and more satisfaction in its criticism. It is a veritable encyclopedia of knowledge, a gold mine of practical, concise thoughts."—American Medico-Surgical Bulletin.

FROTHINGHAM'S GUIDE FOR THE BACTERIOLOGIST.

Laboratory Guide for the Bacteriologist. By LANGDON FROTHINGHAM, M.D.V., Assistant in Bacteriology and Veterinary Science, Sheffield Scientific School, Yale University. Illustrated. Cloth, 75 cts.

"It is a convenient and useful little work, and will more than repay the outlay necessary for its purchase in the saving of time which would otherwise be consumed in looking up the various points of technique so clearly and concisely laid down in its pages."—American Medico-Surgical Bulletin.

GARRIGUES' DISEASES OF WOMEN. Second Edition, Revised.

Diseases of Women. By HENRY J. GARRIGUES, A.M., M.D., Professor of Gynecology in the New York School of Clinical Medicine; Gynecologist to St. Mark's Hospital and to the German Dispensary, New York City, etc. Handsome octavo volume of 728 pages, illustrated by 335 engravings and colored plates. Cloth, $4.00 net; Sheep or Half Morocco, $5.00 net.

"One of the best text-books for students and practitioners which has been published in the English language; it is condensed, clear, and comprehensive. The profound learning and great clinical experience of the distinguished author find expression in this book in a most attractive and instructive form. Young practitioners to whom experienced consultants may not be available will find in this book invaluable counsel and help."—THAD. A. REAMY, M.D., LL.D., Professor of Clinical Gynecology, Medical College of Ohio.

GLEASON'S DISEASES OF THE EAR. Second Edition, Revised.

Cloth, $1.00; interleaved for notes, $1.25.

[See Saunders' Question-Compends, page 21.]

"It is just the book to put into the hands of a student, and cannot fail to give him a useful introduction to ear-affections; while the style of question and answer which is adopted throughout the book is, we believe, the best method of impressing facts permanently on the mind."—Liverpool Medico-Chirurgical Journal.

GOULD AND PYLE'S CURIOSITIES OF MEDICINE.

Anomalies and Curiosities of Medicine. By GEORGE M. GOULD, M.D., and WALTER L. PYLE, M.D. An encyclopedic collection of rare and extraordinary cases and of the most striking instances of abnormality in all branches of Medicine and Surgery, derived from an exhaustive research of medical literature from its origin to the present day, abstracted, classified, annotated, and indexed. Handsome imperial octavo volume of 968 pages, with 295 engravings in the text, and 12 full-page plates. Cloth, $6.00 net; Half Morocco, $7.00 net. Sold by Subscription.

"One of the most valuable contributions ever made to medical literature. It is, so far as we know, absolutely unique, and every page is as fascinating as a novel. Not alone for the medical profession has this volume value: it will serve as a book of reference for all who are interested in general scientific, sociologic, or medico-legal topics."—Brooklyn Medical Journal.

"This is certainly a most remarkable and interesting volume. It stands alone among medical literature, an anomaly on anomalies, in that there is nothing like it elsewhere in medical literature. It is a book full of revelations from its first to its last page, and cannot but interest and sometimes almost horrify its readers."—American Medico-Surgical Bulletin.

SAUNDERS' QUESTION COMPENDS

Arranged in Question and Answer Form.

THE MOST COMPLETE AND BEST ILLUSTRATED SERIES OF COMPENDS EVER ISSUED.

Now the Standard Authorities in Medical Literature . . . .

with Students and Practitioners in every City of the United States and Canada.

OVER 165,000 COPIES SOLD.

THE REASON WHY.

They are the advance guard of "Student's Helps"—that DO HELP. They are the leaders in their special line, well and authoritatively written by able men, who, as teachers in the large colleges, know exactly what is wanted by a student preparing for his examinations. The judgment exercised in the selection of authors is fully demonstrated by their professional standing. Chosen from the ranks of Demonstrators, Quiz-masters, and Assistants, most of them have become Professors and Lecturers in their respective colleges.

Each book is of convenient size (5 x 7 inches), containing on an average 250 pages, profusely illustrated, and elegantly printed in clear, readable type, on fine paper.

The entire series, numbering twenty-three volumes, has been kept thoroughly revised and enlarged when necessary, many of the books being in their fifth and sixth editions.

TO SUM UP.

Although there are numerous other Quizzes, Manuals, Aids, etc. in the market, none of them approach the "Blue Series of Question Compends;" and the claim is made for the following points of excellence:

1. Professional distinction and reputation of authors.
2. Conciseness, clearness, and soundness of treatment.
3. Quality of illustrations, paper, printing, and binding.

Any of these Compends will be mailed on receipt of price (see next page for List).

Saunders' Question-Compend Series.

Price, Cloth, $1.00 per copy, except when otherwise noted.

"Where the work of preparing students' manuals is to end we cannot say, but the Saunders Series, in our opinion, bears off the palm at present."—New York Medical Record.

Saunders' New Series of Manuals for Students and Practitioners.

THAT there exists a need for thoroughly reliable hand-books on the leading branches of Medicine and Surgery is a fact amply demonstrated by the favor with which the SAUNDERS NEW SERIES OF MANUALS have been received by medical students and practitioners and by the Medical Press. These manuals are not merely condensations from present literature, but are ably written by well-known authors and practitioners, most of them being teachers in representative American colleges. Each volume is concisely and authoritatively written and exhaustive in detail, without being encumbered with the introduction of "cases," which so largely expand the ordinary text-book. These manuals will therefore form an admirable collection of advanced lectures, useful alike to the medical student and the practitioner: to the latter, too busy to search through page after page of elaborate treatises for what he wants to know, they will prove of inestimable value; to the former they will afford safe guides to the essential points of study.

The SAUNDERS NEW SERIES OF MANUALS are conceded to be superior to any similar books now on the market. No other manuals afford so much information in such a concise and available form. A liberal expenditure has enabled the publisher to render the mechanical portion of the work worthy of the high literary standard attained by these books.

Any of these Manuals will be mailed on receipt of price (see next page for List).

IMPORTANT ILLUSTRATED WORKS

HENRY CABOT LODGE

The Story of the Revolution. With nearly 200 illustrations by HOWARD PYLE, F. C. YOHN, H. W. DITZLER, G. A. SHIPLEY, W. A. CLARK and others. 2 vols., 8vo, ... $6 00

Senator Lodge has written unquestionably the best book upon the subject in the freshness and vigor of its narrative and the truth of its proportion and in its spirit, thoroughly modern in its freedom from traditional hamperings, and yet earnest and exalted. Indeed, he has surprised even those who expected most from him, for hardly any one realized beforehand what a multitude of significant points the research of late years had developed, or what an effect they had had upon a familiar story. And the Portland Press has said, the illustrations are, in themselves, "an education in American History."

WALTER ARMSTRONG, of the British Museum

Thomas Gainsborough. His Life and Works. With 36 full-page photogravures, 12 full-page colored lithographs and 20 other illustrations. Limited Edition. Royal 8vo, ... $25.00

This life of the great English artist must inevitably take its place as the final and definitive biography, for it is written by perhaps the foremost authority in England upon Gainsborough, and it would be difficult to find anything comparable to it as an art work, in whose mechanical production every modern resource of the printer's and engraver's art has been brought into play.

OCTAVE UZANNE

Fashion and Fashions in Paris. The History of taste and art in female costume from 1797 to 1897. With 100 full-page colored plates and 230 text illustrations by FRANCOIS COURBIN. Limited Edition. Royal 8vo, . . $15.00

These striking illustrations are far removed indeed from the "fashion plates" which have so long conveyed an idea of French art in costume. They show complete scenes, every detail being historically correct, and in this setting each period's style becomes far more intelligible than when detached. The colored illustrations are as nearly perfect as any that have ever appeared in a book.

EDWARD A. FITZGERALD, F. R. G. S.

In the Highest Andes, including the Ascent of Mt. Aconcagua. With sixty full-page illustrations from photographs by the Author, reproduced mostly in photogravure. Large 8vo, ... In Press

Mr. FitzGerald is known the world over as one of the most intrepid of modern mountain climbers, and he has here described some thrilling experiences in his South American adventures, including the ascent which took him to the loftiest regions—23,000 feet above sea-level—yet traversed by any explorer. The illustrations fit closely in with the text and are of very unusual interest.

DONALD G. MITCHELL

American Lands and Letters. New volume. With over a hundred illustrations, 8vo, ... $2.50

Mr. Mitchell here carries his talks on American Literature down to the times of which most readers know something personally. BANCROFT, EMERSON, HAWTHORNE, WHITTIER, LONGFELLOW, HOLMES, LOWELL, THOREAU, POE, MOTLEY and PARKMAN are among the greatest names in American Letters, and the author's treatment of these literary giants is marked by his usual charm of style and characterization. The many portraits, views and fac-similes make up an attractive series of illustrations.

JOHN R. SPEARS, Author of "The History of Our Navy."

Our Navy in the Spanish War. With many illustrations. 12mo, In Press

Mr. Spears' great Naval History, published last Fall, at once took its place as the definitive record of our fighting force afloat. He is now at work gathering material for a volume which shall tell of its notable achievements in the Spanish War and sum up the present naval situation, with the outlook for the future. The volume will be issued as soon as possible after the cessation of hostilities. This work will also be supplied to those already having "The History of Our Navy," as a fifth and concluding volume.

FICTION

Red Rock. A Chronicle of Reconstruction. Illustrated by B. West Clinedinst. 12mo, ... $1.50

Mr. Page's new novel is a romantic love-story of the South just after the War. It has something of the same note and feeling which made "Marse Chan" famous and which has never been put into fiction so successfully by any other writer. "Red Rock" has been in Mr. Page's mind ever since he was a boy in Reconstruction days, and it represents four years of careful work—labor which is apparent in the easy, sustained and convincing progress of the story.

RICHARD HARDING DAVIS

"In 'The King's Jackal' Mr. Davis shows more sustained increase of power both as regards style and treatment than could be traced in any of his previous books, 'Soldiers of Fortune' not excepted. Mr. Davis has handled the story with rare dexterity. Through the pages throbs a narrative impulse that heightens the striking effect of the dramatic situation. Mr. Davis has never imagined anything more dexterously than the conclusion."—Philadelphia Press.

FOR YOUNGER READERS

ERNEST SETON THOMPSON

Wild Animals I Have Known. With 200 illustrations from drawings by the author. Sq. 12mo, ... In Press

This is a unique book. Each one of the wild animals whose story is told by Mr. Thompson has been either a personal acquaintance, or so thoroughly studied that his characteristics appear as markedly personal as if the personality behind them were human. How animals feel, think and evince individual temperament, in a state of nature, has nowhere been so vividly shown heretofore. Mr. Thompson's abundant illustrations, besides their artistic interest, show the demonstrative value of the text.

HERBERT E. HAMBLEN

The Story of a Yankee Boy. His Adventures Ashore and Afloat. Illustrated. 12mo, ... $1.50

The salt water part of this story is marked by the same force which made Mr. Hamblen's "On Many Seas" so popular. The vivid account of the wreck and rescue, and the graphic pictures of a whaler's life in the North Pacific are thrillingly real; and the quaint New England life and humor in Will's escapades ashore will appeal to many readers.

G. A. HENTY

Each volume with numerous illustrations; handsomely bound. Olivine edges. 12mo, ... $1.50

This famous writer supplies this Fall three new volumes of daring and adventure, such as all true boys delight in. Probably no other author has appealed so long and so successfully to the younger generation as fifty or sixty previous volumes by Mr. Henty abundantly testify.
